BATHING BEAUTIES TO COMPETE SOON

Contest at Elinore Friday Night Announced With Attractive Prizes

Bathing beauties, please use stage entrance! If you're attractive enough, take a Jantzen bathing suit home with you as a prize!

This was the announcement yesterday of the Warren's Elinore theatre management which announced a bathing beauty contest for Friday night, July 3. The contest will accompany the showing of Winnie Lightner's latest release, "Gold Dust Gertie."

Anyone may enter the contest, according to the management. Age, occupation, size or the question of whether the entrant is blonde or brunette will have nothing to do with any contestant's right to participate. The only rules are that each contestant be attired in a bathing suit and be at the theatre at 8 p. m.

The bathing beauty parade will be held at 9 o'clock on the Elinore stage and winners will be determined by the amount of applause received from the audience.

Four suits are to be awarded. One will go to the most attractive girl, one to the most attractive man and two suits will be given the team of a lady and her escort, which is adjudged the best.

Suits to be given the winners will be furnished by Bishop's and by Miller's stores.

The Elinore is anxious to know as soon as possible the names of contestants for the Friday night show.

Car Goes Over Bank Into Alsea

INDEPENDENCE, July 1—Elinor Calbreath and Bill Becken left for a fishing trip on the Alsea, this weekend, and had the misfortune to have an auto accident.

In some way their car left the road, and went over a steep embankment, and landed in the Alsea river. They were lucky to escape being drowned, but the car was badly wrecked. They were picked up by others, passing, and brought in. No one was seriously injured.
