Miss Marie Waldorf Tells Wedding Date

Miss Marie Waldorf announced July 18 as the date of her marriage to Ralph Eggestaff of Eugene at an attractive bridge evening in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Waldorf, Thursday evening.

The announcement was made by means of small cards bearing the names and date and tucked into dainty corsage favors. Bridge was in play during the early evening hours, and winning scores were held by Miss Mildred Judson, Miss Evelyn Rutherford, Miss Ethel Milburn, and a guest prize to Miss Marian Eggestaff.

Miss Winona Williams, Miss Edith Starrett, Mrs. T. E. Waldorf and Mrs. M. Pearce assisted in serving a late supper.

Guests in compliment to Miss Waldorf were Isobel Mielke, Edith Starrett, Winona Williams, Dorothy Franks, Carol Reynolds, Mildred Judson, Ruth Reynolds, Mabel Curry, Gladys Miller, Gertrude Chamberlain, Evelyn Rutherford, Lola Schultz, Ethel Milburn, Letha Pelley, Mrs. W. A. Hazelwood, Mrs. Berle Fruit and Mrs. Albert Mefferd, all of Salem; Miss Marjorie Eggestaff of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Norma Green of Portland.

Mrs. LaVern Winkler Is Hostess

A service club meeting which proved a delightful social success was that of the Zonta club Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. LaVern Winkler with Miss Hazel Cook and Miss Katherine Gunnell as assistant hostesses. A dinner preceded the program meeting. A charming center piece arrangement was a low bowl in which had been arranged a dainty grouping of garden flowers in pastel shades and on either side of which were blue tapers in crystal holders.

Following the dinner hour Miss Helen Louise Crosby addressed the group on the general subject of "July 4" and this was followed with informal musical numbers.

Covers were placed for Dorothy Pearce, Helen Pearce, Nellie Schwab, Helen Louise Crosby, Ella Wilson, Belle Brown, Elene Phillips, Winifred Herrick, Ora McIntire and the hostesses, Mrs. LaVern Winkler, Kathryn Gunnell and Hazel Cook.

Among those from Fidelity Lodge No. 64 A. F. & A. M. of Gervais attending the Masonic picnic and dance at Hazel Green park Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nattger and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. Detroit, Mrs. and Mrs. Harold Asplund, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fuller and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Asplund, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Goulet and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sturgis.

Savage-Patrick Reunion Enjoyed

The fifth annual reunion of the Savage-Patrick clan, descendants of Towner Savage who crossed the plains in 1846 and his brother, John Savage of Michigan, was held at Silverton park, Sunday, June 28.

A picnic dinner was served at noon, after which the business meeting was held with Fred Gibson, the president, presiding. Miss Ethel Fletcher was elected president for the ensuing year and Walter L. Fuller secretary, succeeding Charles Ramp.

After the business was transacted an interesting program followed. Those giving numbers were little Miss Clarita Fuller, Bobby Bridges, Elynor Fuller, Mrs. Eliza Koppinger, and a reading of the early history of the Savage family from the Sarah Hunt Stevens book, and early day incidents were given by several members and all enjoyed singing old time songs.

Plans were made and a committee appointed to choose the time and place for the 1931 annual picnic.

Among those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Evans and family of Eugene, Mrs. Elliot M. Savage, Miss Ethel M. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kruss of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. George Savage, Mr. and Mrs. F. Crawford, Mrs. Eliza Koppinger, Mrs. Stella Bridges and Bobby Bridges, Mrs. Sarah Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramp, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Fuller and family, Miss Yerna Koppinger and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Koppinger and family of Gervais.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Rinehart will have as their guests for the coming two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rinehart and son Frank, Jr., of Eugene. Mrs. Rinehart was Miss Mary West before her marriage.

Mrs. Clifford Farmer will have as her week-end guest, her sister, Mrs. Louise Josie of Seattle.

LIONS CLUB HEARS NOTED EDUCATOR

MONMOUTH, July 3—Mrs. Marietta Johnson was guest speaker at the Lions' club luncheon this week, giving a talk on her school of organic education at Fairhope, Ala. This school is supported by voluntary contributions, and is free to all children just like a public institution.

E. O. Cole, retiring secretary of the Lions, submitted his annual report. At next week's meeting the incoming officers will be installed. Ira C. Powell, president and Dr. Lloyd L. Hockett, secretary.

Pupils Enjoy Museum Visit

MONMOUTH, July 3—Summer session at the training department of the Oregon Normal school is the time for numerous excursions out of town in the interest of education. Thursday afternoon Miss Catherine Gentle, fifth and sixth grade supervisor, and the children attending her classes were guests of Dr. J. B. Horner of Oregon State college at an interesting lecture and visit in the college museum. Later, the young folk enjoyed an opportunity to swim in the college natatorium.

Mrs. F. E. Murdoch, Mrs. F. E. Chambers and Mrs. H. Craven accompanied the group, contributing the use of their cars to transport the children. Cyrus Urmy accompanied the boys' group of swimmers; and June Craven accompanied the girls swimmers, a life-guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris McKinney of Hood River will be guests in Salem over the week end. They will divide their time between the O. F. Victor and W. Neimeyer homes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shipp have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Richard Newman of Corvallis. Mrs. Newman was Joan Shipp before her marriage.

Miss Beatrice Olin is spending the July 4 weekend in Seattle.

TSIANINA, CHEROKEE PRINCESS
