GOVERNOR SWORN BY FATHER
It was a proud day at Atlanta, Georgia, when Richard E. Russell, Sr., Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court, gave the oath of office to his son, Richard E. Russell, Jr., during the inauguration of the latter as Governor of Georgia. Russell, Jr., shown being sworn in by his father, is only 33 years old, the second youngest man to hold the high executive position.

VALSETZ SEES EXODUS
VALSETZ, July 6.—The mountain road to Falls City has been graded the past few days and is in a very good shape. The county has had a crew working on the road. Bert Thomas, superintendent, asked the county to improve the road, so the people of Valsetz could move out. The heavy loads of furniture cut the road until it was in a very bad shape.
