The OREGON STATESMAN, Salem, Oregon, Friday Morning, July 10, 1931

Afternoon Tea

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Friday, July 10

B-;de Honored With Pretty Affairs

Among the outstanding events of the week are the affairs which are being given for Mrs. Virgil T. Golden, nee Miss Grace Calkins, who with Mr. Golden returned to Salem this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Golden were married in New York City June 10 and returned to Oregon by motor from there. Mrs. Golden was assistant superintendent of Salem General hospital during 1929 and 1930 and left here to affiliate herself with a Philadelhia hospital where she was until she was married.

Mrs. Clifford E. Hald entertain-ed for Mrs. Golden Tuesday night with a delightfully informal social evening in her garden at her home on the Portland highway. The informal evening concluded with refreshments served in the Hald home by Mrs. Hald assisted by Miss Viola Haack.

Guests in compliment to Mrs. Golden were Mrs. Mildred Lenoir, Miss Natalia Standier, Miss Olive Dose, Miss Olga Larson, Miss Nora Lebow, Mrs. Helen Goplen, Miss Viola Haack, Miss Margaret Longen, and Miss Mary Berndt.

Miss Viola Haack and Miss Olga Larson are entertaining for Mrs. Golden tonight in the nurses home and a large group of nurses will be guests for the event. Other offairs are being planned for the popular bride.

Scotts Mills Rebekahs Install Officers

Scotts Mills-Ivy Rebekah installed their officers Tuesday evening for the next six months, Mrs. | around.' Ella Carpenter, district deputy president, as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Pauline Swartout as deputy marshal, installed the following officers: Noble grand, Leila Heinz; vice-grand, Lida Brougher; warden, Mary Groshong; conductor, Rosa Murray; musician, LaVerne Dixon; inside guardian, Minnie Groshong: outside guardian, Johnnie that a woman can't give overtime Gamasche; treasurer, Zella Smith; recording secretary, Edna Barth; L. S. N. G., Ella Carpenter; R. S. V. G., Mayme Wooster; L. S. V. G., Nellie Haynes.

The financial committee appointed was Albert Barth, Goldie Marquam, Lena Skirvin. On the flower committee were appointed Mayme Wooster, Addie Smith and Rosa Murry.

Miss Marie Bennett, former out of jobs?"

Y'sMennettes will meet with Mrs. J. E. Blinkhorn, 1086 Larmer avenue, 2:30 o'clock. Barbara Frietchie tent, Daughters of Civil War, Veterans, Woman's clubhouse; 8 o'clock. Woman's Missionary society of First Baptist church, with Mrs. F. A. Erixon at her home, 1191 North Capitol street; 2 o'clock. Yomarco class of First Methodist church, annual plenic at Hager's grove; 6:30 o'clock dinner. Three Links club, 2:30 o'clock in I. O. O. F. hall. Saturday, July 11 First Spiritualist church circles at home of George Stoddard, 1420 North Fourth street. L. C. McShane Talks Oh These Before W. C. T. U.

Women!

of Veterans of the Civil War, By LEOLA ALLARD spoke to them on the subject of A married woman who works, patriotism and also gave some uses her money for necessities, early memories of his own concerning the early work of the and who gives her house work over to someone who likes it and needs the job, writes to protest the statement that jobs should go to single girls and not to married women in good circumstances.

"Why don't these girls who Mrs. George Guttekunst, who had complain, buckle down to business charge of the devotions. and rout the married women by Mrs. H. F. Shanks announced doing better work?" she asks, "I that there had been five silver knows an employer who says that medal contests held and that the she prefers to have ten married committee was now preparing for women working for her than 20 the gold medal contests.

The next meeting of the Union single ones because they do better work, take orders agreeably and will be July 21 in Union hall. do less powdering and fooling

Dinner Party Honors She says she never objects to overtime and she puts her heart Salem Visitors and soul into the work. She never knew an employer who didn't Mrs. E. T. Adair and hirs. Maappreciate that kind of service. bel Lockwood entertained with a I'd say she must have a fine delightful dinner party Wedneshusband, who is a co-worker inday evening in compliment to Mr. stead of the old fashioned variety. and Mrs. Charles Elkins of Prine-Not all women workers are that ville.

W. C. T. U. Crusaders.

lucky. She will have to admit Covers were placed at the attractive table for Mr. and Mrs. and work "with her whole heart Elkins, Mrs. Mayro McKinney of cording secretary. Edna Barth; and soul" in an office and have Turner, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Epley, S. N. G., Pauling Swartout; any heart and soul left for her and Mrs. Adair and Mrs. Lockhusband and her home. There wood.

is no question about that. It's a Mrs. Elkins, Mrs. Lockwood and question as to which she thinks Mrs. McKinney were schoolmates more important. I think the in Willamette when it was called home, but we can't all think alike. a conservatory instead of a uni-She makes these complaints re- versity. Mr. and Mrs. Elkins left Salem garding single workers: "What about the rich single for their home late Wednesday girls who get the best job through evening.

influence and keep needy girls F. H. Meyer of Portland is spending his vacation with his sis-Miss Marie Bennett, former out of journer. I think that is ter, Mrs. E. F. Yeaton. state president of the Daughters She's right. I think that is ter, Mrs. E. F. Yeaton.

Scio Lodge Installs Officers

Scio-Mrs. Stella Flanagan was elevated to the highest office in Leone Rebekah Lodge No. 84, I. O. O. F., at the first regular meeting of the new term this month. She succeeds Mrs. Bertha N. Lytle, who officiated as noble grand during the term ended July 1.

In the absence of Mrs. Alta Phillips, district deputy president for the Scio lodge, who was ill at the time of installation, Mrs. Mae also a past district deputy pres-ident of the local lodge, officiated as installing officer. N. I. Morris-table arranged to on, pioneer member of the subwhich Mrs. Maud Roadarmel, Mrs. Dell Shelton and Joe Lytle also assisted.

Mrs. Jennie Weddle, a past grand of the Scio lodge, was in-stalled as vice grand for the en-Will Picnic Members of the Saleri W. C. T. U. and visitors enjoyed an interesting talk Tuesday when L. C. McShane, commander of the Sons suing term, which ends January

1, 1932. Mrs. Eunice Baxtu, also a past grand, was installed for her second consecutive term as recording secretary, while Mrs. Janie Ewing, who has served in virtually all official capacities in Others who appeared on the the Scio lodge, succeeds herself as treasurer, which office she has program were Miss Dorothy Guttekunst, Mrs. Rachel Reader. held for several years. Mrs. Maud Mrs. G. N. Thompson, Mrs. Charles Fessenden, Leslie War-Roadarmel, who also has been through the chairs in the local lodge, continues as financial sec-retary, having been installed last ren, Mrs. Joseph Carruthers and January for a term of one year.

Appointive officers were announced as follows: Mrs. Hattie Hassler, warden, Mrs. Maud Montgomery, conductor, Mrs. Hannah Ray, inside guardian, Joe Lytle, outside guardian, Mrs. Alta Phillips, R. S. N. G., Mrs. Mae Lettenmaier, L. S. N. G., Mrs. Jane Morrison, R. S. V. G., Mrs. Dell Shelton, L. S. V. G., Mrs. Emma Cupor, chaplain, Mrs. Leone Ray, musician, Potluck lunch and a pleasant social hour followed the induction of the new officers into their stations in the lodge. The next reg-ular meeting is to be held Wed-nesday evening, July 15.

Mrs. W. F. McCall is Dinner Hostess

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McCall entertained with dinner Wednesday evening in compliment to a group of Granger, who were in Salem Jovernor Meler.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown of Medford, Claude Wicklander of Boardman, Happy Event One of the most attractive events of the week was the joint tea sponsored by the women of the First Congregational church and those of the Knight Memor-ial church Wednesday afternoon in the attractive garden of Mrs.

T. D. Daugherty. In all about 50 women were present for the event,

Before the tea hour Mrs. M. D McCallister, Miss Constance Kantner, and Miss Mary Flake gave most interesting reports of the convention held in Seattle last week of the Merged Congregational and Christian churches of America. All three women attended as delegates. An additional program number to be enloyed was the group of songs presented by the trio of Miss Benits Lettenmaler, a past grand and Edwards, Miss Caroyl Braden and Tea was served from a service table arranged on the lawn. Hostesses were Mrs. Daugherty, and ordinate and Rebekah lodges here Mrs. Fred McIntyre, Mrs. H. C. acted as deputy marshal during Stover, Miss Grace Robertson, the installation ceremonies, in Mrs Newell Williams, and Mrs.

Will Picnic

The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will hold its annual pienic Friday in Hager's Grove. A pienic dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock and this will be followed by an informal social evening and program. The committee in charge is Mrs. Edgar Fortner, Mrs. John D. Foley, Mrs. Walter Minier, and Mrs. Walter Pennington.

Three Links Club Will Meet Today

Another club which does not tire of meeting in the summer vacation is the Three Links club. It will have its regular meeting today in the L O. O. F. hall at 2:-30 o'clock. All Rebekahs are welcome to attend.

The hostesses will be Mrs. Lou-ise King, Mrs. Louise Loveland, Mrs. Eva Martin and Miss Anderson.

McCoy - The friends of Miss Eva Christenson and Edgar Cooper were pleasantly surprized to learn that they were quietly married Monday. Both Miss Christenlived here for a number of years. Miss Christensen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Christensen. Mr. Cooper is the son of Mrs. Anna Cooper. Mr. an1 Mrs. Cooper will make their home in Marshttending the conference called by field, where Mr. Cooper is employed.

Mrs. A. A. Schramm and children, Patricia, Susanna and S. H. Edwards of Corvallis, C. C. Philip, will leave today for Wald-Hulet of Albany, Henry Gustafsen port where they will have a cotof North Bend and Mr. and Mrs. tage and will spend the rest of the summer. This will make the

For Santaly on Monday; Stay for one Week

Final preparations are virtually omplete for opening of the annual Giri Reserve camp periods at Camp Santaly, on the Santiam above Mehama, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, director of the camp and Y. W. C. A. secretary, said yes-

Thirty-five girls will attend the first camp, which opens Monday morning and lasts a week, Jun-for high girls will attend this camp. The second camp period, which opens July 20, will be attended by senior high girls, and junior high girls who did not get in on the first period. Grade school girls will occupy the camp the third week, beginning July 27 and ending August 3.

chen Rockenfeller, Marion Ross, Mrs. Gallaher said yesterday Eleanor Perry, Beverly Swart, that two more cars are needed to Louise Wheeler, Grace Balley, take the girls to camp, and that Gretchen Spencer, Jean Wiley and use of an old truck during the Frances M. Paris. camp periods would be a great as-

The camp committee of the Y. sistance. Anyone who can haul W. C. A., Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, some of the girls to the camp Mrs. Claud Glenn and Mrs. J. A. Monday morning, leaving the Y. Brownson, has worked for weeks W. C. A. about 10 o'clock, or anyon its end of camp preparation. one who would donate use of a truck, should call the Y. W. C. A. Contributions of fruit and nuts Lillian Seaman could also be used readily, and such help on the supplies would permit taking several underprivileged girls to camp. The girls spend the week in or-ganised camp activity, including a carefully worked out program not only for recreation but for study. ervices for Lillian Mamie Sea-Assisting Mrs. Gallaher in conman, 60, who died at the Good duct of the camp will be the fol-Samaritan hospital, Portland, last lowing six: Helen Breithaupt, night, will be held here Saturday general assistant and in charge of afternoon at 2 o'clock, with inarts and crafts; Gladys Taylor, nature lore; Helen Cochran, draterment in the Scotts Mills cemetery. She had been ill for some matics and music; Dorothy Huttime. chason, swimming and athletics.

MRS. ELIZABETH GALLAHER

assisted by Eileen Moore; and Gwen Gallaher, assisting Miss Breithaupt with arts and crafts. The girls who are already signed for the first period are: Lucy

Downing, Edna M. Loe, Marjorie Smith, Margaret Thompson, Irene Shields, Opal Green, Anna Larsen, near here for many years. Mrs. Lillian Cottenberg, Margaret Seaman was a member of the Langley, Rowens Leslie, Edna sen and Mr. Cooper are well Kreutz, Evelyn Stewart, Martha known in this community, having Kreikenbaum, Evelyn DeMarais, Rebekah lodge of Scotts Mills. R. F. Larson and Son, morticians, have charge of the body. Emlyn Griggs, Ruth Sawyer, Gret-

> VISIT AT ARLINGTON William H. Fisher of 175 South 14th street, has returned SILVERTON, July 9 .- Father F. Scherbring of the St. Paul's home after spending two weeks church here, his brother. Father vacation at Tacoma with his Frank Scherbring of Sublimity. and Herbert Mickelbrook are daughter, Miss Viola Fisher. spending this week in Arlington.

> Mr. and Mrs. Alvin B. Stewart visiting with the Thomas Cimeotti have returned from several days' family. They will return home Saturday.

lodges, at a meeting held in Al-bany last night. The big event will be staged in the city park August 9. The association com-prises the lodges in Marion, Linn, Benton and Polk countles.

Delegates from every loage in the four counties met in Albany last night, choosing Silverton. This will be the first time since its inception that the picnic has not been held in Bryant's park in -Kennell-Ellis Photo Albany. Between 800 and 1000 attend the picnics each summer.

> At last night's meeting it was voted to tax each lodge in the four counties four cents per capita; the money to be spent for ice cream for the picnic. The tax money will come out of the general fund of each lodge, and will not be assessed upon the members individually. Coffee, cream and sugar will also be furnished tree. The furnishing of ice cream this year will be an innovation, since barbecued beef has been always offered in the past,

Each Lodge to Provide Stunt Funeral is Set

The picnic program will be 2 p.m. Saturday made up of short stunts from each lodge in the four counties. Liberal prizes are offered each year. The speaker of the day SILVERTON, July 9-Funeral has not been chosen, but it is the custom to have some one nationally known.

Captain F. M. Powell of Silverton is president of the association. He will be chairman of the picnic committee which will include the entire membership of She was born in Lodi, New York, July 3, 1871, and has lived the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors here. Mrs. Melissa Persons of Salem is secretary of in this community for many years. Her husband, E. J. Seathe organization, and Mrs. Esta man and son, Robert, both of Marguam, and sister, Mrs. R. Bier of Corvailis, treasurer. Delegates from the Silverton Usher, Silverton, survive. The Seamans have lived on a farm lodges to the Albany meeting were F. W. Claus, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ramsby and Mrs. Bert Green.

KELSO PEOPLE VISIT

SILVERTON, July 9-Mrs. Jop Morgan and daughter, Phyllis, of Kelso, Wn., are visiting here with Mrs. Morgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Larsen. Mr. Morgan, who is head o the Kelso Eiks lodge, is in Seattle, attending the national convention. He was formerly connected with the Shell Off company here.

ugh your home

LIBERAL

OFFER

Automatic Models

for as LITTLE AS

$5.00

Down

Balance in easy month-ly payments with your light bill.

POWER

Salem, Oregon

returned to Portland after a few jobs are scarce. days' visit with her mother, Mrs. of Labish Center.

By ANNE ADAMS

ravishing little dress with bloomers, equally smart for the very small tot and her big sister. The pointed yoke tops inverted pleats that give ample freedom and grace while running and playing, and there is a becoming little collar of contrasting color. Stitching the pleats part way, keeps them neatly in place and facilitates laundering. Wearable fabrics for Pattern 2151 are percale, gingham, cotton mesh, lawn, batiste, swiss, dimity, etc.

instructions are given. No dressmaking experience is necessary to sented to Mr. by the lodge.

No drossmaking apporlence is nocce-nary to make this model with our pattern. Yardage for every site, and simple smart instructions are given. Sond-fifteen cants for each pattern. Write plainty your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted. The new spring and summer pat-tern catalog features an excellent ar-sortiment of afternoon, sports and houte dreezes, lingerie, pajamne and kiddles' clothes, also delightful acces-nory patterns. Price of estalog fifteen cents. Catalo gwith pattern, twenty five casis. Address all mail and or-ders in Stateman. Pattern Denset.

next week.

was in need.

mistake.

of light through.

Cloverdale-Mr. and Mrs. Ar-"I know one girl who drives her thur Kunke were hosts to a large L. D. Bennett, and brother Harry, Packard car to work, takes long group of relatives at their home vacations and spends a goodly July Fourth. A, picnic dinner was enjoyed. In the group were Mrs. share of the winter in Florida. She dresses like Fifth avenue and J. Fliflet, Oscar and Palma Flifher fellow workers hate her. They let of Chemawa, Mrs. William Massey and sons Bobby and Treknow she hasn't a right to her val of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. T. Whitehead and Grandma job. Those girls are in a grand position to do welfare work, why

Kunke of Turner, Mrs. Joseph don't they do it?" Nesbith and son Gene of Spokane, Righto! They should. One Miss Gladys Kunke of Portland, reason they don't, is that they Gordon and Joyce Kunke and the think they stand a better chance hosts, Mr. and Mr., Arthur of meeting men in business. Kunke. "I worked with a married woman at one time, who bragged about Following her return from Agwhat she did with her money, and ate beach where the month of what clothes she bought, while July will be enjoyed, Mr. and Mrs. she didn't do any of the things W. E. Scandling will be domiciled she hoasted of. She didn't want in their new home, 1005 North the other workers to know her husband couldn't support her. I Summer street.

felt so sorry for her when I learn-ed the truth. She didn't want The Beauty the flapping flappers to know she "I've worked with girls whose Box parents supported them and they used all their income on clothes and cosmetics. Is that fair with people let out of jobs when they BY HELEN FOLLETT have to work to eat?" Think of those dead (but not-It certainly isn't, but you are, I think, talking about the small so-dear) days when the addition number who do these things, and of an extra inch to the pigtail was the best way to get them out is to cause for celebration. "My dear, shame them out. I hope this ar- her hair is so long, it sweeps the ticle helps. They are selfish and floor when she sits down." Who don't realize what damage they would sweep the floor with her do. They'd be surprised if you hair these times? Some of the told them. They want to do the darlings took their sweepers off right thing but they are pampered when they went to bed, lucking children who go about having them into the dresser drawer. their own way. They are not made | False hair was no disgrace, unless to understand conditions. Wom- one needed it. It is doubtful if en like you can make them under- Godiva locks will ever regain their stand, but not by getting mad. popularity. Shoulder length is all Get women's clubs and other or- right-or a little longer. More ganizations to talk about it, and than that must just be stowed and shelved away like extra blankets talk to them yourselves, if you know such girls. They are really in the summer season.

all right, just off the wrong foot. Eyebrows should be black, If you had been brought up they they should glisten, they should were you might make the same be beautifully arched, and there Send this to any of them you should be no wild flyaway hairs know, it might let one tiny ray around the outer premises. After applying powder pour a few drops of brilliantine on an eyebrow (If I'm wrong write me care Ring Pestures Syndicate, Inc. 235 East 45th street, N. Y. City). of brilliantine on an eyebrow brush and give the hirsute lam-brequins a grooming. If their brequins a grooming. If their coloring is faint, donate a line of Copyright 1931, King Features Syndi-cate, Inc. mascara. Use dark brown; black is like India ink-gives itself.

Woodburn-About 20 members away. of the Woodburn assembly of the United Artisans surprised Mr. Lipsticks still are working. and Mrs. Ben Goldsmith at their though not so strenuously. home north of Woodburn Tues-day evening. Mr. and Mrs. Gold-smith and their children plan to leave Oregon in the near future inner surfaces of the lips. Begin Obtainable only in sizes 4, 6, S, 10 and 12. Size 4 requires 2<sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub> yards of 36 inch fabric. Yardage bers took refreshments which in the center, neuring the there in the bers took refreshments which in the center, neuring the there is the the second term is term is term is the second term is the second term is the to return to Sleepy Eye, Minne- in the center, helping the colorwere served at a late hour. A lipstick, which calls attention to beautiful carving set was pre-sented to Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith to the Cupid bow pattern.

> Mascara can be used to touch Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm entertained as their dinner guests Wednesday night Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Magruder of Oregon State col-lege. After dinner the group mo-tored to Gladstone to attend the Passion play which is being given there this week and the first of the first of the first of the powdered form, mix with bot water, gunly with a tooth there this week and the first of hot water, apply with a toothbrush and let remain on for half an hour, maybe longer. Shampoo. Mrs. George Croisan has had as By looking long distances the

. . .

Miss Alice Gravos, Mrs. Gladys Youngblood and Miss Louise Kayser entertained recently in compliment to Miss Grace Welborn, who will become the bride of Walter Morse of Grants Pass in the late summer. Guests in compliment to Miss Welborn were:

Mrs. Helen Busselle, Mrs. Nor-Nerod, Mrs. Gladys Youngblood, Mrs. Pearl Ames, Erma Swaddell, Frances Kuensting, Mrs. Ann Merten, Mrs. Pearl Smith, Louise

Kayser, Clara Miller, Zarilda Rodgers, Janice Fawk, Viola Keller, Consuelo Eisman, Margaret Steiner, Mrs. Eleanor Steiner. Mrs. Emma Gilliam, Izora Templeton, Meda Holman, Twyla Stockton, Leia Fox, Carol Stoddard, Irma Bolander, Kathryn Owens, Mrs. Marie Frame, Mrs.

Jane Sharp, Mrs. Iva Reed, Helen Breitenstein, Thea Sampson, Mrs. Marcia Smith, Mrs. Laura Douglass, Bessie Donaldson, Mrs. Carmalite Weddle, Marguerite Huser, Mable Lindquist, Mrs. Jessie Follis and Edith Welborn.

. . . Cloverdale-Mrs. Nellie Hamilton spent the Fourth at Newport, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. I. Hadley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cook and daughter Gertrude grounds in Salem.

sixth summer that the Schramms have enjoyed in Waldport and its many interesting points of vantage.

Word has been received from Mrs. O. M. Washburn, nee Amanda Kuntz, who is now in Honolulu with Mr. Washburn. Mrs. Washburn reports a wonderful ine Fick, Alice Gravos, Caroline crossing to Honolulu and that they are enjoying the city and its climate very much. They expect to start their return voyage August 1.

> Mrs. Mildred Lenoir, superintendent of Salem General hospital, has as her house guest Miss Hallie Hollingsworth of Tacoma. Mrs. Lenoir met Miss Hollingsworth in Portland Wednesday where they spent the day before returning to Salem Wednesday night, . . .

Mrs. A. C. Keller of Ashland, Oregon, has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. Bertha Compton for the past few days. She expects to leave for her home today.

Mrs. Max Flanery entertained her bridge club at her home on going over Friday and returning North 24th street Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Frank Fletcher of Seatspent the Fourth at the American tle, recent guest of Miss Edna Legion celebration at the fair- Garfield, has returned to her home.

PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC CO

PEPCO

CAY good bye to matches, flame, soot and smudge. The modern way to cook is with electricity.

Cleanliness is only one of many advantages you'll enjoy with electric cookery. It saves your time, frees you from the kitchen and eliminates all guess work even for beginners. Yet the cost of using an electric range is now less than one cent a meal per person. Every home can afford it.

GENERAL CO ELECTRIC

AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC RANGE

LIGHT

237 N. Liberty

9.75

10.75 and 12.4!