Various Activities aid Recovery of Those in Tuberculosis Hospital

By EMERSON TUSSING Chronic illness is a great misfortune; but it is also a chal-lenge to one's powers of mental readjustment. Such, at least, is the opinion of Dr. G. C. Belling-er, superintendent at the Oregon state T. B. sanitorium, whose polfor is to encourage educational and trade activities among pa-

Correspondence courses in ele-mentary and advanced English, history, Spanish, accounting, Hawaitan guitar and radio are popular at the state sanitorium. Work is also being done in the various arts and trades such as block printing, painting, photography, basketry, knitting, cro-cheting and leather work. Twenty six men patients have sold their products in leather.

More and more patients are taking advantage of the fact that it is now possible to secure a complete high school education as well as instruction in many college courses by correspondence. Not only do these courses provide cultural and recreational advantages, but they also materfally improve the economic efficiency of patients who resume ac-

FIRST OF NEW OATS

The first oats to reach the Salem market will arrive today, according to reports from local warehouses. Threshing has been going on in the district for more than a week but farmers seem refuctant to sell at the present low

This condition is particularly true of wheat and se far no sales have been reported. Farmers de-clare that they will use the wheat themselves rather than sell at the present price. Many are hopeful for a rise in the market within the next 60 days and are holding on for a while. Dealers are reluctant to hazard a guess as to what the market will do.

Bull Attacks Perrydale Man

PERRYDALE, July 29 - John rts had a close call with a bull Tuesday morning. When he was leading him to water the animal got him down and hurt Mr. Roberts' leg quite badly.

In the evening as he went to tie him up the animal knocked him down and broke a rib before belp could reach him.

Mr. Roberts seems to take all his bumps on the ribs. Several years ago he was in an accident and a rib was broken, also injuring a lung. He never fully recovered from that injury and early in May he was in an automobile accident breaking two ribs.

CORN PRICE SHARPLY DOWNWARD APPEALS, PATIENTS BUTTER TRADE GROWS STRONGER

Wheat is Being Bought Despite Increase in Visible Supplies

CHICAGO, July 20—(AP)— Quick breaks in corn prices to-day resulted from widespread heavy rains that came just in the nick of time to dispel fears of crop shortage.

Big sales of corn against simultaneous purchasing of wheat put the corn market under pressure, whereas wheat developed comparative strength despite 7,-198,000 bushels increase of the United States wheat visible sup-ply. World shipments of wheat were the smallest in a long while, and stocks affoat for Europe decreased 4,120,000 bushels. Corn closed unsettled, 1 1/2-2 3-8 cents lower, wheat unchanged to 1/2 off, oats 5-8-7-8 down.

Hot Weather Decrease In Make is Noted Over Wide Area

PORTLAND, July 26—(AP)—Increasing strength in the butter trade is suggested in latest reports of leading markets of the country. Not only are prices well held along the Pacific slope but in the midwest and in the aast. Make of butter general I y through the country is decreas-ing with extreme hot weather but the full effects of the loss is not expected to be reflected for some days. The shortage in the coast output is apparent in recent advan-ces in the price at leading con-suming points. California markets are keenly seeking ship-ments from the north but the surplus from this territory has almost reached the vanishing oint

Efforts are still being made by entralizers to hold down the price of top score butter herewith co-operative makers the held up generally near the high point although where there is no competition, values are at the
