For the fifth time in six years that it has competed, the veteran Postoffice baseball team Tuesday night won the Industrial twilight league championship by defeating the Courthouse team 6 to 4 in a hard fought game. Courthouse and Kay Woods Mills will fight it out tonight for second place, for which they are tied.

Of the team which won the championship, seven players have been members for six years; Benny Rider, who has done most of the pitching all of those successful seasons, Thompson, Taylor, Collins, Price, Welborn and Fischer. White has played four years, Garrett and Harnsberger two and Nutter has been playing his first season.

Postoffice started with a determination to win Tuesday night's crucial game and clinched it, as things turned out later, in the first inning when five runs were scored.

Collins was safe on an error with one out, Thompson was hit by a pitched ball and Nutter brought them in with a triple, scoring himself on a fielder's choice with White also safe at first base. Taylor was hit by a pitched ball and hits by Fischer and Rider brought him and White in.

Courthouse came back for three runs in its half, a three bagger by Drager bringing in Hardcastle who had doubled and Ward who had reached first on an error. Drager scored on Judd's two bagger.

Postoffice scored its final run in the second on two baggers by Thompson and Nutter. Ford tripled for Courthouse in the fourth and scored on an over-throw.

Three double plays, two by Courthouse and one by Postoffice, helped to prevent further scoring. Ford started one and Ward another for Courthouse and Harnsberger the one for Postoffice.

Umpires and Cards Treat Giants Badly

ST. LOUIS, July 21.—(AP)—Treated roughly by both the Cardinals and the umpires during their four-day stay here, the New York Giants left tonight for Cincinnati where tomorrow their fiery leader, John J. McGraw returns to the baseball wars after a three-day suspension.

The Giants, defeated in three games out of four here, fared even worse in their arguments with umpires, not winning a single one of importance.

The umpires also suffered a casualty during the series, Bob Clarke, who banished McGraw Saturday for what President John A. Heydler of the national league called "abusive language." Clarke was suffering from tonsillitis today and unable to work in the series final, but Umpire Ritzler continued where Clarke left off and banished Fred Fitzsimmons and Coach Dave Bancroft of the Giants, acting manager during McGraw's absence.

Bancroft was ordered from the field when he protested a base on balls. Fitzsimmons issued to Fischer, the hurrier going to the clubhouse while Bancroft continued the argument.

RING GOSSIP

BALTIMORE, July 21.—(AP)—Jim London tonight successfully defended who he calls his world heavyweight wrestling championship, by throwing Kola Kwariani, Russian challenger in 53 minutes with what experts described as an "unconscious hold." London weighed 200 pounds and Kwariani 215. The gate was $8,400.

BOSTON, July 21.—(AP)—Sandor Szabor, 204, of Hungary, was declared the victor in tonight's feature wrestling bout at the Boston Garden when Tiny Roebuck, 240, former Haskell Indian football player, disabled himself by diving through the ropes. Roebuck was trying to put over a flying tackle and Szabor side-stepped him.

Jack a Dwarf Killer?

JACK SHARKEY—THE HEAVY FIST OF FATE MAY DEAL A KAYO BLOW TO THE ILL-STARRED GOB'S TITLE HOPES TONIGHT!

TERRY MCGOVERN—WILL MICKEY WALKER PROVE TO BE A BIGGER EDITION OF OLD TERRIBLE TERRY BY LICKING THE HEAVIER SHARKEY?

WEATHER permitting, Jack Sharkey, U. S. heavyweight champion, will defend title against the much lighter Mickey Walker in the annual Milk Fund boxing show scheduled for fifteen rounds in Brooklyn, N. Y., tonight. Barred by court order on a contract suit from engaging Primo Carnera until after September 1930, Sharkey's role has been changed from that of a giant killer to that of well, Walker's a comparative dwarf when sized up with Italy's Mistic Mountain or that growing Boston Bear, Mickey and his many friends are not in the least scared because of that. They point out that Walker has been famed as the bulldog of the ring for about ten years and that such a canine often beats a bear in desperate action. And ferocious fighting is what the fans should see tonight at Ebbetts Field... Bullidge vs. Bear battling for future glory with practical oblivion the penalty of defeat! The Boston Bruin again is facing the jinx that has thus far thwarted his championship drives. Unless he whips Walker decisively, he'll lose the chance of a return bout with Champion Max Schmeling. Generally recognized as the best heavy in America (if not in the world) for several years, Sharkey like W. L. Stribling, has just dubbed his big chances. He had Dempsey teetering several times in their 1927 bout but dropped his guard to argue with the referee over low punches and "Iron Mike" then flattened him for the count. He again was aiming for a bout with Gene Tunney in 1928 when he let Johnny Risks take the play from him in a 19-rounder and lost the decision. He just did manage to outpoint K. O. Christner and Stribling in 1929, but did kayo Tommy Loughran quickly that year. While stopping Phil Scott in 1930, he barely escaped losing through wild low punches. He was giving Schmeling a real boxing lesson a little more than a year ago when Max got in the way of a low punch and became champion on that foul. Sharkey has not fought since June 1930 and training is irksome. By stopping Walker in jig time, public demand may substitute Sharkey for Primo Carnera against Schmeling in September. But if he loses, or wins in poor style, it will be curtains for Sharkey. Copyright, 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

SEEK FORECLOSURE ON FOSHAY FARMS

Suit to foreclose first mortgage notes against Foshay Farms, Inc., was instituted here yesterday in an amended complaint filed in circuit court. Annie Barbara Becke, et al, are named as plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs ask that a receiver be named for the farm property inasmuch as the notes are past due and since taxes on the property have not been paid since 1927. Chattels mortgaged under the note indenture as well as the farm will diminish in value unless a receiver is appointed, the complaints state.

The original issue of Foshay, Inc., notes was issued in February, 1927. The Willamette Valley Mort-

MANCHESTER, Mass., July 21.—(AP)—Seven of the nation's first ten women tennis players and the unranked Mrs. Helen Willis Moody, who in other years topped them all, today gained the quarter finals in the Essex County club's brilliant tourney. Rankings however, probably will mean little for none appears to have any chance of halting the former Helen Willis sweep to her fourth victory in this competition. To gain the third and last round, Mrs. Moody had to overcome two sturdy and hard driving rivals, but at no time in either match did her competition approach the pressing stage. She engaged Mrs. Mary Lamme, New York, for a 4-1, 5-3 victory. She moved to the quarter finals by overcoming Charlotte Miller, New York, 6-2, 6-2. In the semi-finals she meets Virginia Hillery, Philadelphia, ranked fourth.

Oana Spoils Duel
SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—(AP)—Henry Oana long double in the ninth inning scored Donovan from second base to break up a pitching duel and give San Francisco a 4 to 3 victory over Sacramento here tonight.

Donovan had walked at the opening of the ninth and went to second on a sacrifice. Oana's hit brought him home. Sacramento scored all its runs in the second inning combining two hits with raged support given Jacobs. The Seals got two singles and two doubles to tie the score in the sixth and the game remained deadlocked at 3 to 3 until the ninth.

Angels Lose Tight One
LOS ANGELES, July 21.—(AP)—Fans saw smart pitching tonight as both sides in a game which gave a nip-and-tuck 3-2 win to Oakland over Los Angeles, although some share of credit for Pete Daglia's victory in his duel with the veteran Jess Petty was due to loose fielding on the part of the Angels.

The first inning saw home runs by Anton of the Oaks and Farrell of the Angels. The third home run of the contest came in the sixth, when Burns placed the Angels temporarily in the lead. A fumble in the eighth allowed the Oaks to tie the score, and the visitors hung up their winning tally in the exciting ninth; when Blackerby went home after stealing third.
