Aurora Wedding is Beautiful Affair

Aurora.—A lovely wedding of the month was that of Laura Ellen McKillip, niece of Mrs. Catherine Culbertson of Portland, to Edwin Gardner Robinson of Aurora, which took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the attractive garden of the Culbertson home on Torwiltzger boulevard. Yellow flickering lights among the trees, and a fountain upon which ever-changing colors played, formed a charming background for an altar of golden-colored gladioli, over which hung a floral bell of yellow and white. From the house to alay a long pink carpet was spread, enclosed by streamers held in place by standards of flowers like those which composed the altar.

The couple knelt on two golden pillows before the altar while the impressive Episcopal service was read by the Rev. J. A. Cleland of Oregon City. The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Cornelius Bateson of Salem.

She made a striking figure in a cream satin gown of simple elegance, with long train and veil of tulle. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies. Miss Margaret Downs, her only attendant, was gowned in a becoming frock of shades of delphinium blue, with close-fitting hat to match. She carried a bouquet of gold-colored roses. Robert Palmer of Arlington, Wash., acted as best man.

Following the recessional a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson joining the wedding party in the receiving line. A buffet supper was served at a long table in the garden, after which there was dancing in the bathroom.

The young couple will take an extensive motor trip south. The second week in September they will leave for Chicago where the groom will enter Northwestern Medical college for his senior year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wheeler of Arlington, Wash., motored down to attend the wedding and Miss Peggy Sadler and Vernon Eller were guests from Aurora.

Miss Peggy Connell, who will leave today for her home in Wisconsin, after having been a guest here of Miss Ruth and Miss Rachel Yocum, was complimented with a delightful evening of cards Thursday. At the tea hour the young hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Ray Yocum and Mrs. Cora Dunaven. Guests in compliment to Miss Connell were Miss Barbara Kurtz, Miss Margaret Johnson, Miss Nellie Carter, Miss Dorothy Dahlberg, Miss Eira McCune, Miss Martha Sprague, Miss Doris Drager, Miss Betty Bonell, Miss Agnes Miller, Miss Elizabeth Holcomb, Will and Charles and Chester Fisher, Douglas Drager, Rex and Ray Rhoten, Dick Pierce, Will and Charles Latchies, Jimmy Nicholson, Francis Barnes, Glen Luther and Wallace Sprague.

Mrs. Hal Wiggins will return to the home of Frank Spear this weekend where she will join her young son, Paul Wiggins, who has been a guest at the Sparrs home for the past week. Mrs. Wiggins and son will return to Portland this weekend and from there will leave for their home in San Francisco.
