 Vancouver Merchants vs. Hillsboro and Vancouver Barracks vs. Gresham at Vancouver, double headed.
 Compton's at Newberg.

Eyes of the Portland Valley league's followers will all be turned Salem-ward again this afternoon as the Senators battle the league leading EverReady team from Portland. EverReady is undefeated this half.

Andy Peterson will have his hands full with the task of stopping this crew of sluggers, and the Senators also have their work cut out for them in opposing the dependable hurling of Jimmy Rogers, backed up by the Italian boys' speedy fielding. But Johnny Beck stopped the sluggers in the first half and the Senators got the lead on Rogers and his understudy Roberts, and they may possibly do it again.

Foreman will be Back in Uniform
 "Trux" Foreman, injured in an automobile accident two days before last week's game with the Vancouver Soldiers, was all handed up and had to watch that game from back of the chicken wire, but he is ready to play again today.

This is Salem's lone opportunity to head off the climbing EverReady team, and the Senators are all set for a battle.

Even if Salem wins, it will be in nothing better than a tie with the sluggers and there is a possibility that will be three-way tie, depending upon whether Vancouver Merchants can overcome Hillsboro's threat.

BURDETT WINS IN UPSET FOR TITLE

PORTLAND, Ore., July 25—(AP)—Russell Burdett, Portland, won the first annual Western Amateur public links golf championship by defeating Arthur G. Sato, San Francisco, 3 and 2, in the 36-hole final match over the Inverness golf and country club course here today.

MAT STAR HERE WEDNESDAY

Get a glimpse of the rugged countenance of Ted Thye, former world light heavyweight wrestling champion, who will show in Salem for the first time Wednesday night when he meets Roy Anderson, alias Bob Steele, in a main event match at the armory.

CURT COMMENTS

Billy Sullivan got a couple of hits for the White Sox yesterday and scored a couple of runs. And blamed it for didn't steal a base. In spite of his remarkable performances here along other lines, he never was credited with a lot of speed on the paths. Playing in the big leagues must have provided him with wings.

In that triple play he started the other day, Billy made two of the putouts himself.

Now we see the recent hopeless cellarite Oaks, right on top of the heap. And Kallio, after his release by Portland, hurling great ball for his old outfit, the Suda. It's a funny business.

The Marion Juniors are in Medford, facing their final test to determine whether they go to the state championship round at Corvallis. Here's luck to them, and maybe, yes, we'd better. We pick Medford to win.

Lot of golf tournaments going on—winding up or just getting started. Don Hendrie won the slinkin golf bag, emblem of the Kiwanis club championship, by beating Don Roberts in the finals this past week. The first real competition in the Salem Golf club's summer handicap tournament will be today.

More criticism of the way junior ball has turned out, appears in an editorial in the Albany Democrat-Herald. We'd like to see what Medford thinks of it, but haven't seen a paper from there lately.

RANKINGS CHANGED IN LADDER TENNIS

When the Salem Tennis association team plays the Vancouver, Wash., club a return series of matches at Vancouver today, several changes will be noted in the Salem lineup, brought about by successful challenges in the ladder tournament in the past week.

Fred Hageman moved up from sixth place to third, defeating Howard Hobson twice, 5-6, 6-4 and 6-3, and then winning over Norris Kemp, who has been No. 4, 8-6, 4-6, 6-2. He advanced to third position, as John Creech has withdrawn from competition.

Don Saunders challenged Farrell Hovers and regained his former position at No. 6 by winning 8-6, 7-5. Hansen challenged Meyers but lost 6-3, 6-3.

DAM LUCKIAMUTE AT HELMICK PARK

MONMOUTH, July 25—Helmick state park south of town, is the scene of unusual activity almost every day when the "twilight league" of Lions club members and other interested workers muster at the new dam across the Luckiamute to labor toward its betterment. Four hundred bags of sand have been filled and sunk to strengthen the structural framework of the dam, the main element of which is a large log dragged out of the river by a tractor, and to deepen the swimming hole.

From modest pool crowded with a few score bathers, the swimming hole now accommodates more than a hundred at a time, easily. A raft and diving

FRENCH WIN IN DAVIS DOUBLES

Cochet Dominates Play as British Team Beaten; Windup is Today

AUTEUIL, France, July 25—(AP)—Henri Cochet, still the world's greatest tennis player, today sent France into the final day of play in defense of the Davis cup with a commanding lead of two victories to one over a fighting but apparently outclassed English team.

Paired with his partner of other heated tennis wars, Jacques Brugnon, Cochet dominated the play as they swept to victory over George P. Hughes and Charles Kingsley, English doubles pair, 6-1, 6-7, 6-3, 8-6.

He meets Fred Perry, 21-year-old English public parks player, tomorrow, while Jean Borotra plays England's number one, H. W. "Bunny" Austin.

Even the most enthusiastic English rooters can do little better than hope for the best and expect the worst in the Cochet-Perry match.

Perry was saved out of the doubles to give him the advantage of a day of rest after his hard-fought five-set victory over Borotra yesterday, but even at his best he is hardly a match for the great Cochet.

American Legion golfers of Salem will attempt to wrest the state legion golf championship from Corvallis, at the tournament to be conducted in connection with the state legion convention at that city August 6, 7 and 8.

Oliver B. Huston, chairman of the athletic committee of Capital Post No. 9, has appointed Graham P. Sharkey captain of the post team, and Sharkey is busy lining up the veterans who will field wicket clubs. He has asked that golfers of the post get in touch with him as soon as possible.

Two years ago when the convention was held in Salem, a tournament was held and Corvallis' team emerged as champion. The same men will represent Corvallis this year, it is reported. Salem did not enter a team two years ago. There was no golf tournament at last year's convention, held at Baker.

Prusoff, Murio Meet in Finals
 SEATTLE, July 25—(AP)—Nosing out a victory in a torrid four set battle, Henry Prusoff, Seattle, won the right to meet John Murio, San Francisco Hawaiian, for the Washington state men's singles tennis championship here today. Prusoff conquered Mel Dranga, Seattle, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3.

Steele Flies From North After Match

Bob Steele, or Ray Anderson, as he may now be called, returned to Salem by plane from Calgary Saturday after wrestling a draw there Friday night with Jack Taylor. He is scheduled to meet Ted Thye, former world champion in the light heavyweight division, here Wednesday night.

Steele didn't linger in Salem for the Legion's main event in play in defense of the Davis cup with a commanding lead of two victories to one over a fighting but apparently outclassed English team.

Paired with his partner of other heated tennis wars, Jacques Brugnon, Cochet dominated the play as they swept to victory over George P. Hughes and Charles Kingsley, English doubles pair, 6-1, 6-7, 6-3, 8-6.

 VANCOUVER, Wash., July 25—(AP)—Aberdeen won the southwestern Washington American Legion junior league baseball championship here today by defeating Vancouver, 16 to 5, in the final game of a series of three.

Aberdeen will meet the winner of the Seattle-Port Angeles series for the championship of western Washington.

SUNNYSIDE, Wash., July 25—(AP)—The Sunnyside team won the eastern Washington American Legion junior baseball title today by defeating Walla Walla, 8 to 7 in a ragged 12 inning game. Both teams made 11 hits.

Helen Moody Takes Essex Crown Again

MANCHESTER, Mass., July 25—(AP)—Mrs. Frederick S. Moody, Jr., who plays tennis just as skillfully as when she was Helen Willis, super-champion, today crashed Mrs. Lawrence A. Harper of Oakland, Cal., 6-8, 6-1, in the final match of the Essex Country club's invitation tournament.

Mrs. Moody spent only 30 minutes routing her neighbor, who was given top national ranking this year because of Mrs. Moody's scanty tournament play last season.

The Oakland player's usually accurate service was instantly killed by Mrs. Moody's power and speed, and her usually keen strokes were so badly blunted by the fire that most of them popped outside or crashed into the net.

During this fiasco of a final, Mrs. Harper was out-pointed 54-25, earned only five points to 15 and had 39 errors to Mrs. Moody's 20 in the 13-game match.

Business Men's Ball Team Wins Over War Vets
 STAYTON, July 25—The annual Business Men vs. American Legion ball game was played here Friday night with an enthusiastic crowd of partisans looking on and cheering their favorites. The score was 8 to 4 in favor of the business men, who were also victorious last year. Since most of the participants had not played ball a good many years they are liable to "feel their age" for a day or so.

Fred Albus and Billy Lulay were the batteries for the Legionnaires while "Pete" Rock and "Digger" Shelton performed for the business men.

AURORA, July 25—The Rod and Gun club of Aurora has just completed four pens of required size, on the lots owned by Sam Miller and adjacent to his residence, to house 350 or 400 pheasants, which they will get from the state.

The members have faithfully worked, Sundays, evening at odd moments, doing the work themselves—peeled the poles, made the frames and wired the pens.

Running water is piped to each pen. The gun club has furnished the funds for the pens. The state furnishes the birds and feed. Dewey Miller will take care of the pheasants until hunting time when they will be released.

What How Why ?

PLYMOUTH FLOATING POWER

THE WHOLE NATION WANTS TO KNOW MORE ABOUT IT

The revolutionary character of the New Plymouth has created a great flood of interest. Even the hardest of skeptics are so amazed at this new four that performs like an eight that they ask eagerly for the facts behind this tremendous accomplishment.

What is Floating Power?
 Floating Power is a term applied to the new and revolutionary principle of mounting the engine in the car frame, developed by Chrysler Motors engineers for the New Plymouth.

Just how is the engine mounted?
 On two live-rubber mountings nearly an inch thick. These mountings are so placed that a line drawn through them passes through the center of gravity of the engine. Thus the engine is suspended in perfect balance.

What does Floating Power do?
 The live-rubber mountings allow the engine to rock upon its natural axis as if in a cushioned cradle. Vibration is thus entirely eliminated from the car.

Why does Floating Power succeed when all other methods fail?
 Because Chrysler Motors engineers have not tried merely to dampen vibration; they have achieved an entirely new principle which dissipates the motor impulses so that they never reach the body and frame.

Why and How is Power Increased?
 Because the elimination of vibration allows higher compression, which gives greater horsepower without increasing cylinder size. Floating Power makes possible 56 brake-horsepower and actual stop-watch speeds of 65 and 70 miles an hour, and pick-up from 0 to 40 miles in 9.7 seconds.

What else does Plymouth offer?
 A score of things! Plymouth's Free Wheeling combines the advantages of the various types now in use. As a result, it permits Free Wheeling in all forward speeds, and it also may be completely locked out. The Easy-Shift transmission which enables you to shift, without clashing, from second into high and back into second, if you wish, at speeds up to 50 miles an hour. The new, double-drop frame for greater safety and roadability. New, eye-compelling beauty. Internal hydraulic brakes. Safety-Steel body.

You must see and drive the car to appreciate the phenomenal performance and value made possible by one of the greatest engineering developments the industry has ever seen.
