

MULKEY REUNION HELD AT RICKREALL

The reunion of the descendants of the pioneer family of Luke Mulkey was held at Rickreall park Sunday, July 26.

Three members of the old pioneer family were present, namely: H. J. Mulkey, William Mulkey of Monmouth and Mrs. Rowena Bonney of Gold Hill.

A bountiful basket dinner was served in picnic style at the noon hour. After an hour spent in visiting and singing, B. F. Mulkey of Portland gave an address. The young people spent some time in games and swimming.

Fifty relatives of the Mulkey family were present, including the following:

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mulkey of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott and family of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Charwin of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. Beaumont of Stayton, Chauncey Mulkey and family of Monmouth, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mulkey of Monmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Milton McGowan and family of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Parks and two daughters of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mulkey and Mr. and Mrs. William Mulkey of Monmouth, and Mrs. Rowena Bonney of Gold Hill.

FORMER NEIGHBORS PICNIC ON SUNDAY

BETHANY, July 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Torvond, Elizabeth and Stanley Torvond attended a picnic at the Silverton city park Sunday. The picnic was a reunion of former residents of Northfield, Minnesota and the honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hulberg of Pasadena, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulberg were visiting a nephew, George Arneson, in Portland, who also came to the reunion, together with Mrs. Arneson and the children, Nordis, Martha, and Laurence. Others who were present included, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sebo of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Henderson, Thelma Henderson, Mrs. Melissa Goldberg, Mr. Hans Severson, Cora, Orval, Ralph and Clifford Severson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lokrem, Helen, and Esther Lokrem all of Silverton.

Silverton Group Enjoys Picnic

BRUSH CREEK, July 26.—Several families from this district drove to Woodland Park Sunday afternoon for a picnic. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Haere and Sylvia Haere, Mr. and Mrs. John Goplerud, Inga, John Carl, Walter and Charlotte Goplerud, Mr. and Mrs. Goplerud, Viola Larson, all of Brush Creek; and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Storruste and children, Mrs. Marie Goplerud, Cora Goplerud, of Silverton and Clinton Larson of Seattle.

Clinton is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Larson and is spending the summer here. Miss Cora Goplerud has just returned from a trip to several of the mid-west states and says the weather here is heavenly compared to that which was encountered while she was gone.

Amos Benson Suffers Burns

BRUSH CREEK, July 26.—Amos Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Benson, suffered severe burns from steam last week. Mr. Benson was driving a tractor at his home, The Benson Pheasant Farm, when he noticed that water was needed. Not knowing the machine he exercised no caution when tipping back the radiator cap. The rush of hot water and steam struck him with full force burning him on his arms and from his chin to his waist line. A physician treated the burns while they are still painful Mr. Benson is reported as recovering satisfactorily.

New Market Road Complete

MISSION BOTTOM, July 26.—Work on the new market road in Mission Bottom was finished Saturday when Tom Sellwood hauled the last load of gravel to be put on this year. Since the 10th of June a crew of men has been at work widening and leveling this stretch.

Approximately 4500 yards of gravel has been taken from the N. P. Collard plant and used on this road.

FLAX PULLER BUSY

BETHANY, July 26.—E. Overlund and Palmer Torvond are engaged in running the flax puller at present. From Wednesday evening until Saturday night they worked in the Brush Creek district on the farms of Victor Madson and Alfred Jensen. These were the first places at which the puller was used this summer. From there they moved back into the Bethany neighborhood where they will be busy for some time. Considerable trouble was experienced at first in getting the puller to work satisfactorily.

RETURNS TO SEATTLE

BRUSH CREEK, July 26.—Mrs. J. Randall left for her home in Seattle Monday morning. Mrs. Randall and her sister, Mrs. Esther Weaver of San Francisco, have been visiting with their mother, Mrs. O. S. Hauge, the past two weeks. Mrs. Randall made the trip by automobile while her sister traveled by train, having started south on Saturday.

AT ROAD WORK

HAZEL GREEN, July 26.—Earl Rutherford, Homer Davis and Louis Wampler are working with their teams on the county road near the tuberculosis hospital.

West Salem News

Rev. J. B. Green, a retired Methodist minister conducted the morning church service, the pastor Reverend Dark preaching that morning at Summit. A special musical number was a vocal solo by Miss Ruth Bedford, accompanied by her sister, Miss Betty Bedford.

Miss Lottie McAdams and William McAdams attended the family reunion of the Williams family Sunday at Helmiel's bridge at guests of members of the Williams family from Independence and Albion. Specially honored at the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Williams who are home on vacation from India where Williams represents the Standard Oil company.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lemon and family left Saturday for Bellingham, Wash., where they will be guests of relatives for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson are members of a large group, most of whom are from Spring Valley who are enjoying a week's outing at Yachats.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Miller and children visited relatives at Sheridan, Sunday. In the evening they, with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Krebs and family enjoyed a picnic at Yachats.

Mrs. Anton Englehart of St. Louis was a recent two day guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Pfeiffert. To meet Mrs. Englehart, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Greene of Seio were dinner guests at the Pfeiffert home.

Mrs. Rose Greene is spending a week at the home of her son, C. E. Greene at Seio.

Mrs. A. C. Henningsen has resumed her duties as superintendent of Ford Memorial Sunday school, following a vacation at Seaside.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles L. Dark were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Grace Bliss and Miss Helen Bliss at their home at Orchard Heights.

Pastor and Wife Honored
A large crowd gathered Wednesday evening at Ford Memorial church to welcome the new pastor, Rev. C. L. Dark and Mrs. Dark. The affair was sponsored by Mrs. A. L. Applewhite's Sunday school class. A good program was presented and refreshments served. The program opened with the singing of "America," led by Miss Ruth Bedford. Vocal solos were given by Miss Bedford and Mrs. Guy Newgent, a piano solo by Miss Bernice Sloper and a violin number by Miss Claudine Gerth. Messages of welcome were voiced by J. A. Yantiss and John W. Simmons in two short addresses to which Rev. Dark responded. An amusing stunt followed in which three boys, Jack Gosser, Toessie Tandy and Bob Armstrong participated. The program closed with community singing led by Mrs. Newgent with Miss Beth Bedford at the piano. A social hour followed.

West Salem families visiting Silver Creek Falls Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Henderson who partook of a picnic luncheon in that picturesque spot.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brannon and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hesse of Salem spent Sunday at Cascadia.

Mrs. George Reasoner and son Edward, Mrs. Floyd St. Louis and son Lewis of Modesto, Calif., were Saturday visitors at the W. F. Welner home on Rosemont avenue. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Durst and son Edward of Lebanon, whose house guests they are.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora A. Wallace and son Joe will start tomorrow for their home at Evans, Iowa, after a month's visit at the Frank Forrester home. Wallace is an uncle of Forrester. Mr. and Mrs. Forrester, with their guests drove Wednesday to Seaside where they camped several days going from there to Cannon beach and returning home Saturday evening. The Wallace's will motor leisurely homeward with some interesting stop-overs.

"Smoky," a valuable young English bull dog belonging to L. W. Rue, proprietor of the King-clan service station was run down Friday by a passing motorist and so badly injured that he had to be killed. Smoky was a favorite pet.

LIKES OREGON

BRUSH CREEK, July 26.—Two months in Oregon has convinced Albert L. Hall that the Willamette valley is a very pleasant place in which to live. Mr. Hall, grandson of Mrs. N. A. Hall, came to Oregon the first part of June from his home in Nebraska to visit relatives here. At present he is staying with an uncle, Lewis Hall, who lives near Gervais, and is helping with the work of the farm. He makes a trip to his grandmother's home here twice a week for his mail. Mr. Hall plans to stay in Oregon another month, starting for Nebraska September 2.

CHILD'S HAND HURT

SCOTT'S MILLS, July 26.—Junior Coulson, small son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Coulson, had the misfortune of having his thumb mashed last week. It is not known exactly how it happened, but as he was playing with a large battery, it is thought that in some manner the thumb was mashed by it, as he was all alone at the time. Mr. and Mrs. Coulson and family left Saturday morning for Twin Rocks to be gone 10 days. They will attend the "Friends" conference. Mr. Coulson will be in charge of the grounds during the conference.

GUEST FROM ARIZONA

SILVERTON, July 26.—Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Sanders and son, Robert, and daughter, Letah, of Yuma, Arizona, are here for a month's visit with their daughter, Mrs. Lee Alfred. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders are employed on the Yuma Indian agency. Mr. Sanders is a financial clerk, and Mrs. Sanders a teacher in the primary grades. At one time this summer, thermometer touched 116 in Yuma they report.

CAMP MEETING SERIES CONCLUDED

WOODBURN, July 26.—"One of the finest Church of God camp-meetings we have ever attended," was the opinion of a large number of the members of the Church of God before they broke camp Sunday night, after having spent 10 days at the annual camp meeting of the denomination held in the grove north of Woodburn. About 300 persons attended the meeting this year, a great increase in attendance over previous meetings.

Excellent programs, speeches and otherwise successful sessions marked this year's meeting as one of the best ever held. Special musical programs and religious plays were a feature of the meeting. The Anderson college male quartet from Anderson, Ind., gave several well-received programs during Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

GRANGE SPONSORS DANCE

STAYTON, July 26.—The Grange dance Saturday night was very well attended and all are looking forward to a harvest dance next Saturday night when all men are expected to wear their overalls and women their gingham. Stayton Grange has been giving weekly dances the past few weeks in an effort to raise money to pay for the new roof on the hall.

REVIVAL WELL ATTENDED

SCOTT'S MILLS, July 26.—The revival meetings being held at the Church of Christ by W. E. Stram are attended by 150 to 200 persons each evening. Delegations from Woodburn, Mill City, Silverton and Molalla are present. Evelyn Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rodgers and family of Seio were weekend guests of Mrs. Rodgers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burke.

Western Division McDowell Clan Homecoming Held at Orchard Heights on Sunday

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, July 26.—The annual reunion of the western division of the McDowell family was held here Sunday, July 26, at the old home place, the former home of James W. McDowell and his wife, Lydia McDowell, who came from Pennsylvania to Oregon 45 years ago. This is now the home of their eldest son, William McDowell, and his wife.

A bountiful repast was served at noon on tables arranged on the lawn in the shade of the stately fir. At the business meeting in the afternoon, Guy McDowell was elected president. He succeeds Mrs. W. W. McDowell, who has served in that capacity for two years. Mrs. J. G. Reigleman was re-elected secretary for the coming year.

Baldwins Like Oregon
Guests of honor were Rev. and Mrs. Richard Baldwin of Sharon, Pa. Rev. Baldwin, who is a traveling evangelist, is on a church mission throughout the northwest and is holding evangelistic meetings in different towns and cities of the northwestern states. Rev. and Mrs. Baldwin have spent seven years in evangelistic work in England, Ireland and Scotland, and on the continent of Europe. While here they were taken to one of the highest points on the Orchard Heights hills, from which they could see the valleys on either side, and they said they had never witnessed a more beautiful view in all their travels. In the course of a talk by Mr. Baldwin in the afternoon he made the remark that this was a sight worth coming many miles to see.

Rev. and Mrs. Baldwin have been closely associated for many years with the eastern branch of the McDowell family and were able to tell those gathered Sunday many interesting facts about their relatives on the other extreme of the continent. The eastern division of the clan will hold their annual reunion Saturday, August 1. Mr. Baldwin read the McDowell family tree, which disclosed the fact that the original forebears came to America about 1790 from Dublin, Ireland, and settled in Philadelphia.

90 GRADUATE FRIDAY

SILVERTON, July 26.—Miss Dorothy Thomson, daughter of N. J. Thomson of this city, will be among the 90 students who will receive diplomas from the Oregon Normal school Friday night. The graduation marks the completion of the first half of the summer session at Monmouth.

NORMAN RAPE RITES AT WOODBURN

WOODBURN, July 26.—Funeral services for Norman Rape, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rape of Silverton, were held at the Woodburn funeral home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be at a cemetery in Silverton.

Norman Rape died at the Oregon City hospital after having been there ever since July 1. He died as a result of complications which set in after undergoing an operation for appendicitis.

He was born in Silverton 13½ years ago. His grandparents are residents of the Woodburn district.

Sunday School Class Has Picnic

HAZEL GREEN, July 26.—The junior class of the Hazel Green Sunday school has a picnic Sunday afternoon in Dunnigan's park. The class was divided into two Indian tribes, and contests were held between the groups. Josephine Woods carried away two prizes and Beulah Cook one.

CARS CRASH

JEFFERSON, July 26.—A blow-out caused Virgil Johnson, traveling south from Salem to Eugene, to lose control of his fine new car at Grabenhorst's corner north of Jefferson, when he met a car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Looney and daughter, Louise and Mrs. Nancy Miller of Jefferson, on their way to Salem. The Johnston car struck Looney's car in the rear, causing it to turn around, completely, and it landed in the ditch. All escaped injury, except Mrs. Miller who received slight bruises. The Looney machine received a bent fender, sprung axle and damaged tires. Johnston is employed by the state and is a cousin of the Looney's.

BRUSH CREEK, July 26.—Mr. and Mrs. John Moe, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hattberg, motored to Albany Sunday to attend services at a German Lutheran church near that city. A special mission Sabbath was being observed with services both in the forenoon and afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. J. Doerfler of Victor Point made the trip also. Invitations to come to the services had been extended by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson whose uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hansen, live at Silverton.

No More Gas In Stomach and Bowels

If you wish to be permanently relieved of gas in stomach and bowels, take Bealman's Gas Tablets, which are prepared especially for stomach gas and all the bad effects resulting from gas pressure. That empty, gnawing feeling at the pit of the stomach will disappear; that anxious, nervous feeling with heart palpitation will vanish, and you will again be able to take a deep breath without discomfort. That droopy, sleepy feeling after dinner will be replaced by a desire for entertainment. Bloating will cease. Your limbs, arms and fingers will no longer feel cold and "go to sleep" because Bealman's Gas Tablets prevent gas from interfering with the circulation. Get the genuine, in the yellow package, at any good drug store. Price 50c.

Always on hand at
Daniel J. Fry's Adv.

SEE THE BEAUTIFUL FORD DE LUXE BODIES

SPECIAL DISPLAY OF SIX
NEWEST DE LUXE CARS AT SHOWROOMS OF FORD DEALERS

LOW, SWEEPING LINES AND CHOICE OF COLORS. SAFETY GLASS. ROOMY, ATTRACTIVE INTERIORS AND RICH UPHOLSTERY. NEW, LONGER, WIDER BODIES WITH SLANTING WINDSHIELDS. OUTSTANDING BEAUTY, STYLE, COMFORT, SAFETY AND PERFORMANCE AT AN UNUSUALLY LOW PRICE

F O R D M O T O R C O M P A N Y

