

Local News Briefs

Reports Accidents—S. A. Cannon of Marcola, reported to police that his sedan was struck yesterday at Fourth and Market streets by one driven by Edward Schunk, Jr., 324 North Church street. He says Schunk averred he could not see Cannon's machine approaching at the intersection because of trees obstructing the vision. No one was injured. Lee E. Brant, 1515 South Commercial street, truck driver, reported that his machine was damaged to the extent of $35 when the car of Frank Cowr, 1124 Second street, West Salem, backed into it.

Sidewalk Boxcar—Edward Klukis, Portland, driver of a bakery truck, reported to the sheriff's office that in trying to avoid hitting a machine driven by C. F. Holt, Scotts Mills, near an intersection and railroad crossing at Mt. Angel, yesterday, his car side-swinged eight feet into the street. No injuries were reported.

For 35 years the Oregon Mutual Fire Ins. Co. of McMinnville has been serving the people of Oregon. They have paid in losses more than $3,750,000. See our agents Standley & Foley for your next policy.

Hear From Hewitt—Their son, Ronald, has received word from Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Hewitt, saying that they have reached China on their tour of the Orient. They report their trip through the Orient is being carried on satisfactorily. By a change in the itinerary, the party will land at San Francisco instead of Seattle in September. A stop is to be made at Honolulu.

Keene, Walgamott Return—After spending several days fishing and resting in the Marion lake district, Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Keene and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walgamott returned to the city Wednesday. They report that fishing was satisfactory. Keene found his mailbox full of letters, mostly dealing with the American Legion water baseball, for which he is state chairman.

A large shipment of tailored made suits just arrived. On sale at $12.75 to $14.75. See Mrs. Kay Woolen Mill Co.

Franklin Recovering—Dr. F. G. Franklin, Willamette university librarian, who sustained serious injuries to his left shoulder and arm last spring as the result of an automobile accident, is now able to leave his home occasionally, but he is still encumbered with an apparatus to keep bones in position while they are healing. Mrs. Franklin, less seriously injured, has almost recovered.

Appointed St. Paul Teacher—Miss Beatrice Amundson, who taught in Silverton schools last year, will be an instructor at St. Paul the coming season. It was learned when she visited the city school superintendent's office here yesterday.

Quality Sought—J. D. Mickle, chief of the division of food and dairy products of the department of agriculture, was in Corvallis Thursday making arrangements with college staff members for their help in placing special emphasis on quality in dairy products exhibits at the state fair this year.

Dance at Hazel Green Friday night.

Investigate Irrigation—Frank Doerfler, Frank Speers and son and Arthur Jones Thursday joined an irrigation caravan under direction of County Agent Beck of Polk county. The party visited the country west of Periwinkle and as far as Sherwin and looked over projects especially as they were related to raising Ladino clover.

Called by Illness—Mrs. H. M. Tennant, wife of registrar Tennant, of Willamette university, was called to San Luis Obispo, Calif., yesterday by the illness of her mother. She left by the forenoon Southern Pacific train. She plans to return here within a month.

Take August Vacation—Members of Fraternal club, meeting at the Spa last night, decided not to hold their regular Thursday night dinner sessions during August. The next meeting will be September 19, to be featured by a program of entertainment.

See Russ Smith, Center and Church, for tire bargains.

Prof. Clark Finishes Work—Herman Clark, science professor at Willamette university, has finished his summer's work at University of California according to word received Thursday by H. M. Tennant, registrar here. Clark did not say when he and his family will return to Salem.

Albany Attorney Here—A Salem business visitor Thursday was Mark V. Weatherford, Albany attorney, who was interested in case before Judge McMahan in circuit court.
