Marion Juniors to Play Hill's Candy Saturday at 2:30

Game Will be Last Prior to State Finals; Dorman Offers Loving cup

PORTLAND, Ore., July 30. land-Salem series of baseball games to be played at Corvallis next month to decide the state American Legion Junior league Ready, and can ill afford to lose championship.

Dorman has named the follow ing committee of four to meet after the final game of the series to choose the winner of the cup: Alexander G. Barry, commander of Portland post No. 1; Spec Burke, Portland; Ralph Coleman, Corvallis, and Bill Rheinhart, Eugene.

The Marion county American Legion Junior basebtil team will make probably its final appearance on the home diamond prior to engaging in the state finals, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when it will meet Hill's Candy Factory team on Olinger field.

This game was signed up following definite cancellation of the second scheduled game with the Eugene Juniors, whose man-agers admitted they had "suffi-cient" after the 23 to 0 lacing administered here Wednesday night.

It was felt that in view of that lopsided game, the teams would not be a drawing card again either in Salem or in Eugene. While not objecting to completing the series if Eugene so desired, Coach "Frisco" Edwards of the Marion Juniors was entirely satisfied to call it off, as he feared his boys might not enter into another game with Eugene, with the proper fighting spirit.

Hill's Candy provides at least the necessary threat, as this team of rain, and then the playoff in league ball, though not from the present personnel drawn from the entire county. On the other hand, Hill's has added some new players who are expected to augment its strength, among them, Denny Heenan, "Mutt" Deetz and one of the Seguin brothers, Hill's is planning to play some of the faster semi-pro teams in the state for the remainder of the season. Perrine and Wilson

It is recalled that despite its lowly position, Newberg gave the Senators one of their hardest battles in the first half. Johnny Perrine will probably be Edwards' choice for mound duty Saturday, as he was not used in the Eugene game. "Squeak" Wilson will probably hurl for Hill's.

Lawrence Susee, who was "beaned" in Wednesday's game, will probably not play Saturday but is recovering satisfactorily from the injury to his ear, and is expected to be able to take part in the series at Corvallis. He consulted a local physician Thursday and the latter reported that the injury is one which will heal rapidly in most instances.

The Marion county team has been assigned to quarters in one of the O. S. C. fraternity houses at Corvallis for next weekend, Manager Oliver B. Huston has been informed. The players will go to Corvallis Tuesday for a workout on the O. S. C. diamond, where the series will be played, but will return and go there for the opening game Thursday. In addition to the junior baseball, Capital Post No. 9 has designs on the state American Legion bowling and golf championships and will enter teams in both.
