Descendants of Pioneers of '65 in Estacada Reunion Held Last Sunday

HUBBARD, Aug. 4.—The 12th annual reunion of the descendants of Philip Linn met Sunday at Dinty Moore's park at Curranville near Estacada. This park is part of the land bought by Philip Linn after crossing the plains in 1865. The original party of 33 consisted of the family of Philip Linn and the families of six of his children. Of this original party six are still living. Two sons, Philip E. Linn and Granville Linn, live at Estacada. Granville Linn is president and Matthew Linn is secretary of the clan. Matthew Lonsberry was also one of the original party. He lost both his mother and father en route to Oregon. His mother, Martha Linn Lonsberry, died near American Falls on the Snake river in Idaho, and his father, Jonathan Lonsberry, at Bake Oven station in eastern Oregon.

Matthew Lonsberry ran a general store in Hubbard and planted a hickory tree there in 1887 which is known as the "mystery tree." Mrs. Waldo F. Brown and her sister, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding of Salem, the great granddaughters of Philip Linn.

WOUKE'S THRESHER ENDS ITS SEASON

NORTH HOWELL, August 4.—The Wouke's threshing outfit concluded the operation of fall grain threshing last Monday at the Everett Milne farm. They will have a short run of spring grain and clover hulling later.

Ida May Summers and Celia Jefferson left last Monday for Camp Santal near Detroit where they will spend a week with the Girl Scout troop of Gervais under the direction of Mrs. Adkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wisener and two children returned last Wednesday from a long motor trip in southern Oregon. They visited the Oregon caves, Crater lake, Klamath Falls and enjoyed the Redwood highway from Grants Pass to Crescent City, Calif.

Choice Gladioli Bulbs To Be Seen At Silverton Now

SILVERTON, August 4.—A two-day exhibition of choice gladioli blooms from the garden of Harvey Hallett, local fancier, will be made Friday and Saturday in the windows of the Starr Hardware company here. This will be the third annual display. One blossom Hallett hopes to have on display is the Mother McChree, a smoky colored variety, considered very rare. The Portland gladioli show, August 14-15, will find many of Hallett's blossoms entered. Last year he won three first prizes, three third prizes, and two second ribbons. His gardens, 310 Brook street, Geiser Addition, are now "ablaze" with about 200 of the bright red Dr. Bennets variety.

Grain Prospect Good; Silverton

SILVERTON HILLS, August 4.—Threshing of grain began in the Silverton Hills yesterday. While it is too early to know what the yield will be, farmers were of the opinion last week that the grain would turn out better than had been expected some time ago. Threshing in this community usually begins a week or ten days later than in some of the lower-lying regions about Silverton.

POLE SITTER

Betty Fox, 23, former University of Michigan co-ed, is shown descending from a Battle Creek, Mich., flagpole after perching there until she had established a new record of 126 hours. After setting the new mark she went to sleep in a show window of a main street store in front of a large crowd of spectators who cheered lustily every time she opened her eyes—and promptly went to sleep again.

TRYING TO SNARE G. O. P. MEET

Conferring in an effort to snare the next Republican Party convention for Philadelphia, Senator Simon D. Fess, of Ohio (left), chairman of the G. O. P. National Committee; Mayor H. A. Mackey of Philadelphia (center), and Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania, were photographed in the City of Brotherly Love. If Philadelphia is selected, added interest will be created due to the battle expected between factions representing President Hoover and Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania.

MILK WAR HAS HUMOR Then Real Identity of Warriors Reveals Itself FARMER, HAND BATTLE

PERRYDALE, August 4.—This community comes in for its share of excitement during the milk war. A truck load was dumped at the S. Van Staavern farm Sunday evening. Everyone was on edge Saturday night when the roads were full of cars of men looking and waiting for the Brande's truck. An amusing incident happened Saturday night between a dairyman and his helper. At the evening meal they discussed the milk dumping and damage being done and decided to protect their property. The hired man was to keep watch so he drove down the road. The owner and wife left a little later to spend the evening away. When they drove a short distance they saw a car without lights drive to their home so they turned out their lights and returned. There was no car in sight so the owner decided to look-around and on his way to the barn he saw someone hiding behind a shrub. The hired man and owner are having a good laugh as they did not recognize each other for a moment. It was milk from this community that was destroyed at Newberg Saturday night.

HUBBARD HAS MANY GUESTS FOR VISIT

HUBBARD, August 4.—Rev. and Mrs. D. George Cole of Salem accompanied by Mrs. C. D. Naylor and daughter Mrs. J. S. Dunlap motored to Portland and were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Naylor's sister, Mrs. M. E. Karten and daughter, Miss Stella Karten. They also visited at the home of Mrs. Maggie Craigmiles and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Katharine Craigmiles and children Barbara and Leslie Craigmiles. Will Bower of Pleasant Hill, Illinois was also a guest at the Karten home. Mr. Bower is spending the summer with his sister, Mrs. Maggie Craigmiles in Portland. Mrs. Rollan Hazzard and Miss Myrtle Hazzard of Stevenson, Wash., and Gordon Miller and Eugene Fox of Brownsville were guests the past week of Mrs. Hazzard's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bixler, and daughter, Mrs. Helen Sargent. They all spent the weekend at Rockaway. Other guests at the Bixler home were: Mrs. Harry DeSauno and daughter, Maxine and son Geraldine DeSauno all of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Edward and three children all of Crescent City, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester A. Harris and daughter, Miss Lavonne Harris and son, Albert Harris accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Emil Cramer spent the weekend on a fishing trip on the Abiqua river above Scotts Mills. Richard How who was seriously injured in an automobile accident near Brooks a week ago, and was in the Deaconess hospital has been brought home and is improving very satisfactorily. Mrs. Mary Hawkins of Salem, is visiting old friends and neighbors here after an absence of several years. Mrs. Hagkins was a former resident of Brooks. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes and daughter, Mrs. Carl Aspinwall and daughters, Bessie and Hattie Aspinwall were called to Tillamook Sunday, when they received the sad news of the death of Mrs. Hayes grandson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fleck who passed away Sunday morning.

Annual Picnic Of White's District Held On Sunday

HUBBARD, August 4.—The White's district held its annual picnic at Collins Park Sunday. About 125 were present. The guests included former residents of the White's school district now residing at St. Helens, Portland, and Woodburn. The picnic was sponsored by the community circle of which Mrs. George Pardy is president. She was assisted by committee composed of Mrs. Lillian Schneider, Miss Lillie Iry, and Mrs. Charlotte Taylor. A bountiful picnic dinner was served at noon and water sports and baseball were enjoyed in the afternoon.

ATTEND REUNION

LIBERTY, August 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams motored to Chehalis, Wash., for the weekend to attend the annual meeting of a club to which the Williams have belonged for 20 years. They will be accompanied home by their son, Joe, Jr., who has spent the past two weeks in Chehalis.

Last Rites Said, Mrs. Uppendahl; Hubbard Church

HUBBARD, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Herman Uppendahl was buried from the Catholic church at Hubbard at 10 a. m. Monday. Father Jonas officiated. Interment was in the Hubbard cemetery. She had been ill for several years and passed away July 30 at 8 a. m. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, Henry Uppendahl, a sister, Priscilla Ridgely and several nieces and nephews.

MRS. LYONS FETTER LYONS, August 4.—Mrs. Ella Lyons of Corvallis has been visiting relatives and friends here and at Stayton the past two weeks. Mrs. Lyons and family resided at Lyons for a number of years before moving to Corvallis about four years ago. Several social affairs were tendered Mrs. Lyons during her brief stay here.

2 FAMILIES ENJOY ANNUAL REUNION

75 Attend Jones-McAlpine Gathering, Silverton; Morley new Leader

SILVERTON, August 4.—Seventy-five descendants of the Jones and McAlpine families met in the city park here Sunday for the third annual reunion. Lewis Jones crossed the plains in 1852, first settling on the Albany prairie. Of the three children of his, still living, Miss Sally Jones of Salem was present. The Jones-McAlpine clan included the well-known Morley and Hicks families of here and Salem. After a picnic dinner, a program was enjoyed. Lois A. Jones of Portland exhibited a number of his wood carvings. Roy Morley, prominent hop grower here, was elected president, and Miss Julia Johnson, Salem, secretary. Due to the conflict with other clan reunions, it was decided to hold the annual gathering the last Sunday in July instead of the first Sabbath day in August.

YOUNG PEOPLE END SUCCESSFUL MEET

Young people of the Friends church closed their conference Sunday with a record attendance. The sacred concert conducted by William Murphy of Idaho Sunday afternoon was well given by chorus and soloists. Outstanding events during the conference were two messages by Prof. Bennett, M. A., of Chicago, president of the American Science foundation. His subjects were "America at the Crossroads" and "Spiritual sciences". A message was given by Everett Cottell of Ohio on "The Three Dimensions of Christian Life". Offerings for the improvement of the grounds were liberal. Delegations from Highland, Marion, Rosedale, South Salem, and Scotts Mills churches were present.

Trade Made For 260-Acre Ranch By Hersberger

HUBBARD, August 4.—Jake Hersberger, well known business man of Hubbard, and proprietor of the Hubbard garage, traded 100 acres of his 260-acre ranch south of Needy for the house and lot and garage of Mr. Berkeley of Woodburn. Berkeley will take possession of his place at once. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Kaufman, who have until recently been residing on the Jake Hersberger farm, have moved to Hubbard and will be in charge of another place belonging to Mr. Hersberger.

ATTENDS BRIDGE PARTY

AURORA, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Chester Glibbreath and little daughter, Joan, left for Portland Tuesday where Joan will visit a little friend while her mother attends a bridge party at the home of Mrs. Clark Moody, Vancouver, Wash., given in honor of Mrs. Lee Hoskins, a recent bride of Longview, Wash., who with her husband is summing at Mt. Hood. Mrs. Glibbreath and Mrs. Hoskins will be overnight guests at the Moody home.

Hubbard Girl Enjoys Week At Fire Camp

HUBBARD, August 4.—Anna Knight returned Saturday night from Camp Namanu, the camp at Bull Run for Camp Fire girls of Oregon. One hundred and fifty girls were there and 35 counselors. Each girl has a major and a minor project. Anna took nature study for her major project and first aid for her minor project. Anna received a national honor for her major activity, which is a seeker honor. Seeker is the first honor in nature study. Besides her national honor she won an honor for good camper and good service. A rather odd incident of Anna's stay happened while the girls were returning from a first aid lesson on how to carry a patient with broken bones. One of the girls turned her ankle and broke two bones, the first time there has ever been any major injuries at Camp Namanu. Anna and another girl immediately applied what they had just learned and carried the injured girl to the house of health.

STICKS TO CRIPPLED YACHT

Although the yacht Lismore, entered in the race from Newport, R. I., to Plymouth, England, was disabled by a severe storm in mid-Atlantic, Mrs. William Roos, wife of the owner and perhaps the only Social Register sailor on the Seven Seas, refused to leave the crippled craft and board a liner which came alongside to render assistance. Mrs. Roos is shown at the helm of the yacht which she is sticking with until it reaches its goal.
