REWARD OFFERED FOR PARK VANDALS

Dallas Moves to Protect its Public Property; Street Committee Reports

DALLAS, August 5.—Notice offering a $25 reward to anyone furnishing information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone destroying park property will be placed in the city park soon. The park board was authorized to do this Monday night at the regular council meeting. This offer is a result of a recent increase of vandalism in the park and the marauding of the beauty of that place.

MARQUAM CHURCH IS PLACE FOR PARTY

MARQUAM, August 5.—A young people's party was held in the Marquam Methodist Episcopal church hall recently. Games were played and plans were made to organize an Epworth League for young people. At a late hour refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the following: Joanna Kolosen, Cecelia Jait, Arvian Marquam, Anna Olson, Anna Kolosen, Helen Jell, Messrs Howard Swartout, Morris Ridings, Ross Marquam, Frank Jell, Richard Ridings, Ronald Asboe, Herbert Jones, Ormond Rice and Rev. and Mrs. D. George Cole.

Rev. and Mrs. D. George Cole drove over to the A. O. Deaver ranch at Amity on Sunday afternoon. They called on friends from Oregon, Calif., Fla. and Mrs. Horace H. Allen, who is the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church there. Mr. Cole and Mr. Allen were schoolmates at the Kimball School of Theology at Salem and Rev. Cole's parents are members of Rev. Allen's church.

Fishing Enjoyed In Valseltz Area

VALSETZ, August 5.—Mrs. John Anderson and Mrs. Eugene and Eric Bolin of Portland were enjoying the fishing down the Siletz river Sunday. They camped in some of the vacant houses in Valseltz and returned to Portland on Sunday night.

Valseltz Men In Fight On Fires

VALSETZ, August.—Forest Ranger Worth, called the remaining men from Valseltz Monday to fight fire near the Williams Logging company, a few miles from here, Valseltz, was covered with smoke Monday.

The Englewood club will hold their regular meeting in Englewood park, at 2:30 o'clock, Friday afternoon. Mrs. J. C. Hill, president, urges a complete attendance as there are important matters to be discussed. Mrs. M. B. Wagstaff, associate secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., will be the speaker for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eby and son, Jackie Ray, accompanied by Mrs. D. W. Lucas, motored to the Tillamook beaches Sunday where they were the guests of friends. Mr. Eby returned to Salem Sunday evening, while Mrs. Eby and son and Mrs. Lucas will remain for the remainder of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown motored to Seal Rocks over the past weekend where they have opened their beach cottages for the remainder of the month of August.

Mrs. Clara Patterson accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Frank Chapman, motored to Portland Wednesday where Mrs. Patterson transacted business.

The Woman's Benefit association will hold their regular meeting Thursday evening at 8 p. m. in the Woman's club house on North Cottage street.

SOCIETY

Hubbard Citizens Many Visitors Stop at West Salem Homes

West Salem—Miss Maud Shaw and Miss Pearl Fulton, house guests from Vulcan, Alberta, Canada, of Mrs. Nick Ertler, spent the weekend at different coast resorts. They were accompanied by Mrs. Brinkley's sister, Miss Mildred Gardner of Seaside. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Henderson who came up six weeks ago from their home at Long Beach, Calif., and have since been living in the Richardson house on Rosemont avenue have gone to Newport where they may remain for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Lee of Washam, Wash., left for home yesterday following a week's visit with Mrs. Lee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Richardson. Monday the two couples drove to Newport, returning home that evening. Another recent guest at the Richardson home, was Porter Lambert, a nephew of his host who left Monday for his home in southern California.

Kingwood Club Enjoys Picnic

Kingwood—Members and families of the Laurel Social House club drove Tuesday morning to Falls City where a delightful day was spent at the home of a member, Mrs. J. W. Page. A potluck buffet luncheon was served at noon and a social afternoon was spent, interspersed with games and contests, the men of the party spending the afternoon playing horse shoes.

Prominent Salem Folk Return From Europe

Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Brown, Mrs. T. K. Ford and Miss Loretta Ford arrived in Salem Wednesday evening from an extensive European tour. The Salem party left New York early in March for Vienna, Austria, where Dr. Brown took intensive study in ear, eye, nose and throat clinics, while Mrs. Ford and Miss Loretta toured other parts of Europe and Great Britain.

The entire party landed in Quebec late in July where Dr. Brown attended a Y. M. C. A. world conference. Mrs. Ford and Miss Loretta Ford had previously arranged to visit in Canada until late in September but at the last moment accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Brown to their home in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thonney of Pullman, Wash., are here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stirman for a few days. They have spent the past week visiting in Seattle and Olympia and other parts of Washington.

Mrs. Guy Vincent Smith and Mrs. John H. Hunt motored to Portland Wednesday on a shopping trip.

Miss Maxine Burton who has been a guest in the city for the past two weeks, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Burton, plans to leave this weekend for her home in Seattle. Miss Burton has been a member of the staff of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer for the past two and one-half years.

Mirveta. — Miss Gladys Mae Rowland, sister of Paul Rowland of Mirveta, became the bride of Ralph N. Mosong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nels P. Mosong, at a quiet ceremony in Salem on Saturday morning. Justice of the Peace M. B. Hayden performed the ceremony. They were attended by Mr. Mosong's parents.
