Mr. and Mrs. Jack Elliott and daughter returned home Sunday evening from a motor trip to the Dalles where they were guests at the home of Mr. Elliott's mother, Mrs. Margaret L. Elliott. Miss Georgia Merrifield made a brief visit in Salem Monday, en route from southern California where she has been visiting for the past month to her home in the Dalles. Miss Merrifield is well known in social circles having visited here a number of times with her sister, Mrs. Jack Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Graham, prominent eastern Oregon land holders, stopped over in Salem Tuesday calling on former friends, before continuing on to Corvallis where Mr. Graham will begin his duties at the American Legion convention. Mr. and Mrs. Graham are popular residents of Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baker, plan to leave Friday for Seal Rocks where they will open their cottage for the remainder of the beach season. The Salem group plan to enjoy the coast outing for several weeks.

Mrs. Henry Schmall and daughter, Barbara Jane, left Salem Wednesday afternoon for Portland where they will spend the remainder of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page, former Salem residents.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. T. Hill in La Grande. Mrs. Elliott expects to return home about the middle of August.

In compliment to Mrs. Adelaide Keyes, of Halley, New York, who is spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. A. C. F. Perry on Fairmount Hill, Mrs. L. L. Laws entertained Wednesday with a morning of bridge followed by luncheon in her attractive Morning Side home.

Those chosen to greet the out-of-town guest, Mrs. Adelaide Keyes, were, Mrs. C. A. Sprague and mother, Mrs. Martha Schmuck, Mrs. H. K. Stockwell and mother, Mrs. Rachael Goode, Mrs. E. J. Huffman, Mrs. A. C. F. Perry, Mrs. W. A. Speck and Mrs. E. Harrison, mother of the hostess, Mrs. L. L. Laws. A guest prize was presented Mrs. Keyes with high score for the day being won by Mrs. H. K. Stockwell.

Salem Residents Enjoy Motor Trip

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. F. Perry returned home Monday from a week's motor trip to eastern Oregon, including stops at Bend and Burns, returning by way of Walla Walla where the major portion of the time was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Perry speak most highly of the wonderful scenery and delightful cool of Walla Walla lake, and report an enjoyable vacation trip.

Guests at the Perry home will be Mrs. L. H. Farrand and daughter, Miss Louise, who will visit a few days enroute from California where they have been for the past month, to their home in Holley, New York, the former Perry home. Mrs. Farrand and daughter will be guests in Salem for several days before continuing their trip east.

Salem Rebekah lodge No. 1 will hold its regular meeting Monday evening in the local lodge rooms, after which an unusually interesting program has been arranged. The committee in charge of affairs is made up of Miss Ella Smith, Miss Marcella Caspell, Miss Lulu McClay, Mrs. Anna Hunsacker and Mrs. E. Woods. Refreshments will be served by the committee at the close of the program.

Mrs. Frances Elliott of San Francisco, is the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Dotson. Mrs. Elliott has been the inspiration for several small social functions, having lived in Salem for a number of years while her husband was superintendent of schools. She is welcome back by a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Scandling and children are back in Salem after having spent the month of July in the Patton beach cottage at Agate Beach. They are now occupying their new home on North Summer street.

Ladies' Aid society of the Woman's Relief Corps will hold an all day meeting at the fairgrounds on Thursday. A pot luck dinner will be enjoyed at the noon hour.

W. C. T. U. Group Hold Meeting Tuesday

The Salem W. C. T. U. held its regular business meeting Tuesday afternoon in their hall on Commercial street with about 30 in attendance. Among them was Mrs. Helen Prescott, county president; Mrs. Neela Buck, president of north Salem union; Ruth A. Dutton, from Portland; Mrs. Addie Curtis, who had charge of the devotionals at this meeting. Mrs. Curtis followed the prayer and Bible reading with a short, impressive and instructive talk. One of the much appreciated numbers on the program was a group of vocal solos given by Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Taylor is a school teacher from near Baker, and is spending the vacation with her mother. The W. C. T. U. then enjoyed a short round table talk which brought forth some discussion and gave enlightenment on some subjects of special interest.

Mrs. George Nelson Honors Bridge Club

The Thursday bridge club will be guests this evening at the home of Mrs. George Nelson in West Salem. Garden flowers will be combined deftly to carry out the pastel color scheme.

Those in the group are Mrs. Paul Burris, Mrs. Edwin Vlesko, Mrs. Max Flannery, Mrs. Karl Hinges, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. Clifford Townsend, and the hostess, Mrs. George Nelson. Additional guests for the evening will include Mrs. Roy Hurst, Mrs. John Hunter and Mrs. Reed Rowland.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Baker and four children of Clyde, Michigan, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Baker's mother, Mrs. R. B. Duncan. Mrs. Baker will be remembered as Miss Bertha Duncan and very popular among her friends during her girlhood days which were spent in Salem.

Miss Ruth Marr Honored With Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. James Sim of Hazel avenue were hosts Tuesday evening for an attractively appointed 7 o'clock dinner, complimenting Miss Ruth Marr and Edson Burgess, whose wedding will be an event of the fall season. The table was prettily centered with a low bowl of pink and white garden flowers, with the same colors being used throughout the table appointments. Those chosen to honor Miss Marr and Mr. Burgess were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ball, Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler, Alvin Marr, Miss Beverly Marr and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. James Sim and small daughter, Barbara Ann. Several other delightful pre-nuptial affairs are being arranged for the bride-elect.

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE SUGAR TO SWEETEN DRINKS

How could we go through summer without home-made drinks sweetened to taste with sugar and chilled with ice!

Nothing can take the place of sugar in sweetening drinks. And housewives all over the country look upon refined cane sugar as the standard. Use it for iced tea, coffee and chocolate, milk shakes, lemonade and fruit punches. Refresh yourself with a sweetened drink. The Sugar Institute.
