Fire Destroys House At Rickey

RICKEY, Aug. 7 .- Fire of unknown origin destroyed the house known as the A. Schumacher house Friday morning. The D. D. Blivens, who occupy the house, were away at the time and by the quick action of the neighbors all of the furniture and some of the loors were saved. These were stored in the garage, but late in the afternoon either from a smouldering spark or from fire being blown to it, the garage caught fire and it and the contents burned. It is said that the property is owned by a Salem

A temporary decline in sterling exchange found the financial community still scurrying around for an explanation of the pound's weakness. One suggestion advanced in banking circles, applying vin Kroeker, Jay Hyde, Curtiss also to heaviness of the French franc, was that funds were returning to Germany, impelled by the improvement in conditions there. It was pointed out that a similar situation existed in Top grade Old stock France when her currency was, stabilized several years ago; at Lamba, top Buying 1

Buy Sanitarium

In Arizona

RICKEY, August 7—Word has been received from Prescott, Arizona, that Dr. Claude McCully who is well known in Marion county, and his sister, Dr. C. M. Tolle have purchased the Pines sanitarium.

Dr. McCully expects his son Irvin who has been in the aviation department of the U. S. army to take up the laboratory and tray work when his arm, which was injured in a parachute jump, fully recovers. Dr. McCully will be remembered here as Tressic Carlson a Marion county teacher. She was raised in this community and was a great grand daughter of Jane and Jacob Caplinger, Oregon pioneers of 1845.
