Ruth Aufderheide Names Bridal Party

Probably the most outstanding wedding of the mid-summer seaaon is that of Miss Ruth Aufder-heide, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Aufderheide, and Paul A. Lee, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lee, which will be an event of Saturday evening, August 15, in the 1 vely gardens adjoining the A. A. Lee home on State street.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. George A. Theiss of Pasadena, California, cousin of the bride, before an improvised altar with lattice background entwined with vines and summer flowers in pastel tints. Miss Alice Aufderheide, sister of the bride, will be the bride's only attendant as maid of honor, will a brother Robert Aufderheide, will serve as best man. Little 'tarjorie Rodgers and John Coleman Lee will mark the aisle for the bridal party and Lloyd A. Lee will act as Preceeding the ceremony Miss Eva Roberts accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Paul Pemberton, will sing "I Love You Truly" and "Because," while Miss Eugenia Savage will play both the wedding marches. After the wedding Mrs. C. T. McPherson, aunt of the groom, will sing an original composition "Love Star," a message from the groom to the bride. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Paul Pemberton of Woodburn. Miss Roberts, Mrs. Mc Pherson and Mrs. Pemberton will also give vocal and instrumental numbers during the reception which is to be held in the Lee home immediately following the wedding in the gardens.

During the reception the guests will be greeted at the door by Miss Grace Zercher Deaton and Isabell Melike while
