Need Extra Class—Bob Boardman, physical director of the Salem Y. M. C. A., reported Wednesday that so many of the women and girls reported to the pool for swimming that extra classes were required to care for all of them. The pre-membership age class composed of 12 boys and girls will be completed next Friday and is coming along nicely now according to Mr. Boardman. Jean Burrell, Letta Heyland and Patricia Carson all passed their beginner's life saving tests Wednesday. This is a good showing, as all are under 12 years of age.

Directors Meet—Important standing committees for the coming fiscal year will be named at the board of directors meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Thursday noon. The committees named will have until October 1 to get organized and formulate plans, at which time they will take charge of the work being carried on by the present incumbents. The camp leaders will attend the meeting also and be prepared to report on the summer camp at Oceanside.

Come for a good time to the dance, Thurs. night, Yew Park hall. Music by the Cornhuskers. Admission 25c.

Dragons Practice—The Black Dragons, senior life savers of the Y. M. C. A., met Wednesday night at the Y pool to get into condition for an exhibition to be given for the benefit of the Elks at Hager's grove Sunday. Another invitation has also been received asking that the swimmers demonstrate life saving methods at Silverton in the near future. The membership of the organization is now 17 and will probably be brought up to 25 this winter.

Dauer Holds Clinics—Dr. C. C. Dauer of the Marion county health unit held clinics at Hubbard and Woodburn today with an attendance of 14 at each. At Hubbard an infant and pre-school clinic was held and at Woodburn T.B. contacts were examined to ascertain whether or not any had contracted the disease from exposures.

Gym is Repaired—The gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. is being prepared and put into condition for the heavy usage anticipated this fall, according to word of C. A. Kells, Y. secretary, Wednesday. The floor is being smoothed, refinished and all the lines will be remarked. Several minor changes will be made.

Special attraction, Bob Fletcher's Feudleton Roundup dance band at Hazelgreen tonight. Dance to this peppy music. Gents 50c, ladies free.

Teachers Seek Jobs—A large number of applications for teacher's positions are still being received at Superintendent Hug's office. Most applications are being made by mail however. All vacancies here are now filled.

PAPER MILL'S FORCE LARGE

More Employees now Than at Any Time in Past on Production Alone

The Oregon Pulp & Paper company is now employing the largest number of helpers of any time in its history, with the exception of years when a heavy construction program was under way, according to Carl Heinlein, resident manager of the company. The total plant employed force, foremen and office workers included, are now 130 men and women. Workers in the woods and truck drivers range from 400 to 700 men at different periods of the year.

Heinlein said yesterday that the total payroll of the mill had kept up surprisingly high through depression days. Last week the total paid came within $1000 as much paid as a year ago. Reductions in the wage scale have been offset by the additional men employed to take care of the additional machinery which was put in operation several months ago.

The mill here as well as the Columbia River Paper mills, also controlled by the P. W. Leadbetter interests, has worked steadily, three eight-hour shifts, six days of the week through the present period of industrial decline. Heinlein says the local mill and the Vancouver mill are the only ones operating in the northwest on a full schedule. Many mills are running on a two day to five day a week basis.

Catching Up With Orders—Now
The paper market continues very weak, Heinlein said. A year ago the local mill was 30 days behind orders. The first of this year production was still running a fortnight behind orders but this summer production of the mill here is right at the heels of incoming orders. Unless demand increases materially this fall, Heinlein says, the operators of the mill will be bothered to production held to the last two years.

Under the Dome...

WILLIAM HANLEY, new state highway commissioner, was in Salem yesterday to "get the atmosphere for my new job," he said. Hanley visited the state highway department as well as the governor's office. He said the date for the next highway meeting, which will be his first one, has not yet been set.

Hanley went to Portland late yesterday with Governor Meier. The governor spent two days here this week after he had planned to take the entire week off as vacation. This week the governor has been working on his unemployment program about which he will have another announcement soon, he said.

Any doubts as to A. A. Schramm continuing in office as superintendent of state banks, was dispelled yesterday by the governor when he announced the banking board has reappointed him. Reports last week indicated a change, but all authoritative sources denied knowledge of any contemplated change in this department.

The reappointment is considered an excellent move, as Schramm's record during his Contracts for wood from territory surrounding Salem call for 40,000 cords of white fir to be cut and delivered to the plant here during 1931. Substantial quantities of hemlock and spruce are also handled by the mill.

Occurrences and Gossip at the center of Oregon's state government first four years has been a good one, and the present conditions do not warrant any changes in the banking field. Bankers visiting the state capitol recently have all expressed the hope that Schramm would be reappointed.

Some changes in the laws of the army have been announced this week, but late reports indicate no further complications would be expected for a number of years. It was reported that Brigadier-General Thomas E. Riley, of the Oregon National Guard, had three teeth removed, but dangers of complete substitution were allayed by the dentist, it has been learned.

But, as is the case in all changes, political or otherwise, some sore spots are left, and Tom says his jaws are included in that list this week. He still claims he is fortunate, more so than some other Salem citizens, in that his dentist informed him he won't have to worry about store teeth until he is fifty years old.

Oregon's public utilities commissioner this week is leading the fight for shippers against the common carriers. Charles M. Thomas fired the opening shot in the northwest's protest against the proposed 15 per cent freight rate increase, before the interstate commerce commission hearing in Portland. The hearing will last three days.

FUNERAL IS TODAY FOR ELIJAH SMITH

SILVERTON, Aug. 12—Death claimed another Silverton pioneer last night when Elijah Theodore Smith, 74, died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Towne, on the Abiqua river. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Miller church, four miles from here. Interment will be made in the Miller cemetery, where Mr. Smith had been sexton for many years.

He was born in Morgan Morgan county, Missouri, November 1, 1857, coming to Oregon in May, 1877. He settled on the place which was his home until his death. In 1886 he married Della H. Murray. Ten children were born to this union and seven survive. They are Mrs. Mary Towne, Silverton; Mima Bixel, Oregon City; Ina Smith, who died in 1926; Leila Bixel, who died in 1928; Emily Guggenbuecher, Francis, Wn.; Wesley Smith, Portland; Nellie Schmidt, Culver City, Cal.; Alice Ingram, Battle Ground, Wn.; and Ella Bixel, Canby.

The deceased is also survived by six sisters and two brothers, who are Mrs. May Hunter, Salem; Mrs. Agnes Jones, Scotts Mills; Mrs. Ed Helver, Molalla; Mrs. Elizabeth Coleman, Silverton; Mrs. Julia Powell, Taigent; Mrs. Tabitha Land, Oak Ridge; J. L. Smith, Portland, and Vic Smith, Orting, Wn. Twenty-five grandchildren and three great grandchildren also survive.

"TOASTING" expels SHEEP-DIP BASE naturally (Black, biting, harsh irritant chemicals)
present in every tobacco leaf

"They're out—so they can't be in!"

Every LUCKY STRIKE is made of the finest tobacco leaves the world can offer—the finest from Turkey—the finest from Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, Georgia, and the Carolinas—the Cream of many Crops throughout the world. But all tobacco leaves, regardless of price and kind, as nature produces them, contain harsh irritants. LUCKY STRIKE'S exclusive "TOASTING" Process—a process that mellows, that purifies, that includes the use of the modern Ultra Violet Ray—expels certain harsh irritants naturally present in every tobacco leaf. We sell these expelled irritants to manufacturers of chemical compounds, who use them as a base in making sheep-dip*, as well as a powerful spraying solution for fruits, flowers and shrubs—enough to permit the daily dipping of over 50,000 sheep or the daily spraying of many thousands of trees. Thus, you are sure these irritants, naturally present in all tobacco leaves, are not in your LUCKY STRIKE. "They're out—so they can't be in!" No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

The finest tobacco quality plus throat protection.
