National President Makes Official D.A.R. Visit

All Daughters of the American Revolution are awaiting with interest, the arrival of the President General Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart of Washington, D. C., who will be in Portland August 22, 21, and 22, to pay an official call to all state chapters and confer with all officers, heads of departments and members of the D. A. R. organization.

Complimenting Mrs. Hobart, the Daughters have arranged a luncheon Thursday to be given at the Multnomah hotel, after which Mrs. Earl C. Bronaugh will be hostess at her home for a garden tea from 3 to 5 o'clock. The annual board meeting dinner, scheduled for 7 o'clock Thursday evening at Waverly Country club will complete the first day's events.

Friday's plans will include a meeting of the Daughters at the Memorial cabin at Champeog park, of all chapters of the state, and especially the chapters of the Willamette valley. A picnic luncheon will be served at 12:30 with tables being arranged for each chapter. Mrs. E. C. Apperson of McMinnville is general chairman of the affair.

On Saturday Mrs. Hobart will be complimented by the Portland chapters with a drive over the Columbia highway, followed by a salmon luncheon at the Columbia Gorge hotel at Hood River. A number of local matrons are making preparations to attend a major portion of the social activities.

Miss Bessie Newcomb Leaves for California

The Young People's class of the First Congregational church will be hosts Tuesday afternoon honoring one of their members, Miss Bessie Newcomb, who will leave August 20 for California, where she will enter the University of Southern California at the beginning of the fall term. The affair will be in the form of a picnic and swim at Riverdale, after which a supper will be served. Cars will leave the church between 4 and 4:30 for those wishing transportation. The Misses Marjorie Drorbaugh and Nadine Cameron are in charge of arrangements for the picnic and supper.

Monmouth—Mrs. Sheldon Cody, (Bernice Winegar) a recent bride, was the inspiration for reception Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Winegar, which was sponsored by the Homelike Society of the Evangelical church. Mrs. Cody was presented with a handsome floor lamp as a wedding gift from the group. Mrs. T. J. Edwards made a brief talk appropriate to the happy occasion. Refreshments were served to climax the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Cody, both Monmouth young folk, are making their home in Corvallis for the summer.

Davey Smith and Joyce Chambers, popular little song and dance artists, were special guests of the American Legion at Corvallis last week.

They entertained at various luncheons and banquets at the state American Legion convention where they were billed as "the cleverest juvenile entertainers in Oregon."

They were accompanied to Corvallis by Mr. and Mrs. David Smith. Mrs. Smith played the piano accompaniments for both youngsters.

Mrs. Clayton Bernhard, 239 North 14th street, is spending the week at Seaside, together with her two small children, Sally and Jimmie. They are occupying the cottage owned by Major-General and Mrs. George A. White. Mr. Bernhard, who is resident manager for the Associated Press, went there last weekend with them and will motor to Seaside this weekend to bring them back to Salem.

Thursday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman, were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Earl Flegal and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gerlinger of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor McKenzie accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Brady left Thursday morning for Portland where they will be the guests of friends for several days.

Salem Motorists Enjoy Outings

Mr. and Mrs. Will May accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Al Eueling of Seaside, arrived home recently from an interesting motor trip through Oregon. The party left Salem going by way of Drains, south to Crescent City, California, returning by way of Ashland to Klamath Falls where they visited relatives. While in Klamath Falls the Mays were guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, the last member of the Campbell family, one whom they have not seen for many years. Mrs. Campbell was a former resident of Salt Creek, Polk County, who came to Oregon by ox team 53 years ago, and who but recently has made her home in Oregon.

On the return trip the party made brief stops with friends in Prineville, coming by way of the McKenzie pass. Breitenbush Springs and Cascade claimed the attention of the group for a week-end before the Seaside travellers returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. May are now making plans to leave Salem Thursday morning for Elma, Washington, where they will visit at the home of Mr. May's daughter, Mrs. W. T. McBride, who with Mr. McBride have arranged a vacation at their summer home on Hood's Canal. Mr. and Mrs. May plan to be away from the city for several weeks.

Pretty Garden Tea Compliments Guest

One of the loveliest of informal affairs of the mid-summer season was the garden tea given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. H. T. Love in compliment to a former friend and classmate, Mrs. Frances Carroll, who is a guest at the home of Mrs. B. E. Carrier on Court street.

During the tea hour Mrs. Seymour Jones presided at a charmingly appointed table which was placed beneath the cool of the grape arbor. Mrs. A. R. Hunter and Mrs. E. M. Hoffnail assisted the hostess with the serving of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brady had as their house guests during the week Mr. and Mrs. Robert Massey of Los Angeles, Calif. They are now visiting with friends in Portland and will return to Salem before leaving for their California home.

Mrs. John Roberts who has been spending the past few days in Salem will return Saturday to Agate beach where she and her daughter, Mildred, are spending the summer season. They plan to return to Salem during the latter part of next week to remain until their departure for Dresden, Germany about September 1.

Miss Hazel Fahay of Bandon arrived in Salem Tuesday to spend a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. McNamara in their home on Fairmount hill.

DON'T LET YOUR FAVORITE fruit GO BY... preserve some

WITH refined cane sugar

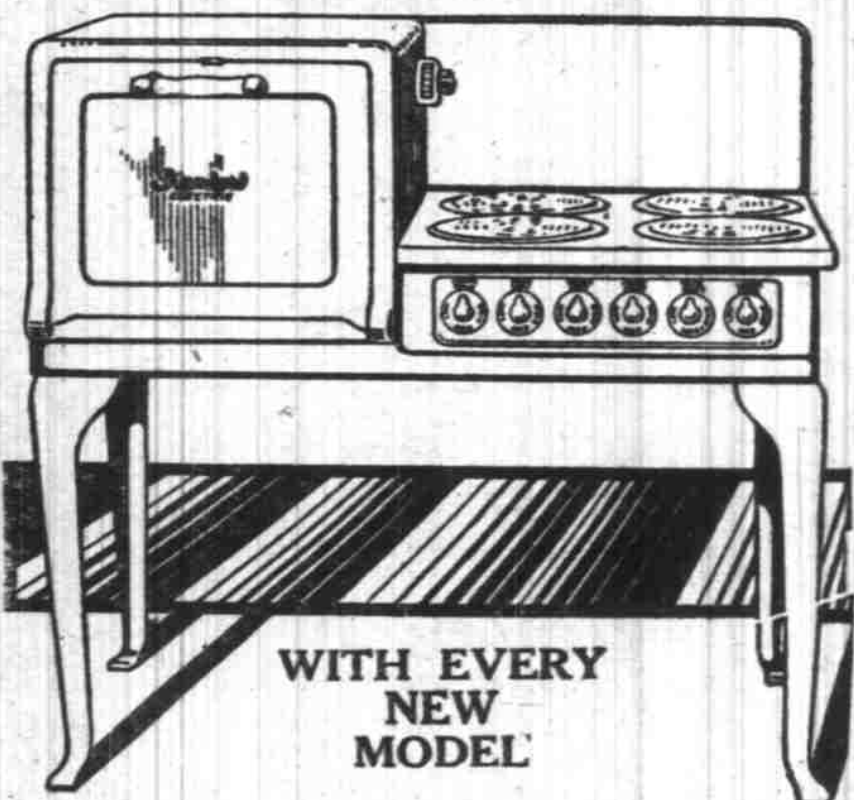

Every few days throughout the summer, a different variety of fruit reaches its peak of goodness. Not only is this fruit in the right condition for canning, but its price is low enough to make it profitable to preserve some. And you find the price of sugar extremely low, also.

Watch your markets so you can take advantage of these bargains in your favorite fruits. And as you make your choice, remember that refined cane sugar is the recognized standard of home canners everywhere. It insures ideal results in jellies, preserves, relishes and all kinds of canned products.

Don't let your favorite fruit "go by" this summer. Preserve with refined cane sugar. The Sugar Institute.
