Becomes Bride at Pretty Garden Wedding

Miss Mildred Mills, member of the class of 1928 at Willamette university, and Roderick Blatchford, member of the class of 1927 at the university, were united in marriage last night at 6:30 o'clock in a ceremony performed on the beautiful lawn of the farm home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mills of Forest Grove. Rev. Jeffrey of the Methodist church at Forest Grove performed the ceremony. Nearly 100 friends were present at the marriage rites and at the reception which followed.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford, 1745 State street, Salem.

This fall Mr. Blatchford will resume his work in the Oregon Medical school at Portland where he is a junior. Mrs. Blatchford is a teacher in Forest Grove high school and will be in charge of the English department there this fall. Both Mr. and Mrs. Blatchford were prominent in the activities of the university while here.

Mrs. Alfred Laue Hostess Tuesday

Complimenting her husband on his birthday anniversary, Mrs. Alfred Laue entertained with a "500" party Tuesday evening, in her home on North Cottage street. High score at cards was won by Mrs. Elmer Klein with consolation award going to Mr. Lewis Coe. Following the evening of cards a late supper was served by the hostess, who arranged covers for the honor guest, Alfred Laue, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hostetter, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kilen, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Eckerson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coe and the hostess, Mrs. Alfred Laue.

Mixed bouquets of French margolds combined with gladiolas were used effectively throughout the Laue home.

Miss Doris Mackenzie of Seattle, who has been visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Mackenzie, for the past six weeks, returned to her home the first of the week in company with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Mackenzie, who were recent arrivals in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Mackenzie and daughter Doris and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Mackenzie enjoyed a pleasant vacation, part of which was spent at Breitenbusch springs, and the latter part at Ocean Lake, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Mackenzie have just returned from a week end spent in Kelso, Wash., where they were the guests of friends.

Contract Club Honored Thursday

Mrs. George K. Moorehead has invited members of her contract bridge club to her home Thursday afternoon. Garden flowers and summer foliage will be used throughout the living rooms of the Moorehead home.

The personnel of the group includes Mrs. Fred Duncan, Mrs. Keith Brown, Mrs. George Rhoten, Mrs. Max Rodgers, Mrs. Webster Ross, Mrs. Charles Layport, Mrs. Ruskin Blatchford and Miss Laura Irlay of Portland and the hostess, Mrs. Moorehead. Mrs. Layport will assist the hostess at the tea hour.

Youthful Maid is Honored on Birthday

Complimenting her daughter Barbara Jane, whose eighth birthday occurred Wednesday, Mrs. Henry Schmah entertained a group of playmates of the honor guest with an afternoon of games and fun. Jack Burris was awarded the prize for playing the tale on the donkey, while Neddy Burris won the honors for the peanut hunt.

The youthful guests and their mothers were seated at a large table attractively centered with a beautiful big pink and white birthday cake, bearing eight tall lighted tapers, while pink and yellow streamers centered in the chandelier above, reflected a soft glow about the room. Those chosen to help make merry the day were Mrs. Brasler Small and daughter, Suzanne, Mrs. Kenneth Bell and daughter, Barbara, Mrs. Edwin Viesko and daughters Barbara and Patsy, Mrs. Fred Viesko and daughter Betty, Mrs. Paul Burris and children, Jack and Neddy, Mrs. Newman and daughter Marie Ann.

Mrs. Schmah was assisted in the serving of the guests by Mrs. Edwin Viesko.

Both have lived in this city for many years. Mrs. Winn is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kurrie. Mr. Winn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Winn, hop growers of this place.

Relatives and friends of the couple came from Albany and Corvallis and gave the young couple a big charivari Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Winn will make their home in Independence.

Miss Marjorie Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Johnson returned home Wednesday morning from Portland where she has been visiting her cousin, Kathryn Johnson, for the past week.
