D.A.R. Official is Delayed - Plans Changed

Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo, regent of Chemeketa chapter, daughters of the American Revolution, received a telegram late Wednesday afternoon, stating that Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart, president-general of the Daughters, who was to have been in Portland Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week on her annual official visit, has been delayed for two days and will not appear as scheduled.

All members of the local organization are asked to watch the papers for further announcements regarding Mrs. Hobart's change in plans. All convention plans which were to have begun Thursday noon with a luncheon at the Multnomah hotel, has been temporarily cancelled and will await further word from Mrs. Hobart.

Mrs. T. Gilbert is Complimented At Tea

Complimenting Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert, Mrs. Vernon Douglas and Mrs. J. E. Blunkhorn entertained a group of intimate friends of the honor guest at an informal tea in the Douglas home, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. William Wright presided at the beautifully appointed tea table which was centered with a low bouquet of pastel colored gladioli and zinnias combined with baby breath and ferns, flanked on either side with tall pink tapers. Baskets of mixed garden flowers were used effectively throughout the living rooms of the Douglas home.

The guest list for the afternoon included, the honor guest, Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert, Mrs. William Wright, Mrs. Arthur Bates, Mrs. Charles Layport, Mrs. George R. K. Moorehead, Mrs. George Rhoten, Mrs. James Humphreys, Mrs. Burton Myers, Mrs. Grover Birchett, Mrs. William Jones, Mrs. Sam Gillette, Mrs. S. M. Laws of Woodburn and the hostesses, Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Tinkhorn.

Surprise Party at Oscar Dencer Home

In compliment to the birthday anniversary of Mr. Oscar Dencer, a group of friends motored Tuesday evening to the Dencer home in the Rosedale district and surprised the honor guest with an informal dinner and evening of cards.

Those enjoying the occasion were the honor guest, Mr. Oscar Dencer and Mrs. Dencer, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. William Follis, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bensen, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Moses, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kresel, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Laird, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Follis, Mrs. Hattie Busick and Mrs. Jessie Follis.

High honors at "500" were awarded Mrs. R. C. Kresel and L. A. Williamson, with second prizes being won by Mrs. E. A. Pruitt and William E. Moses.

Smart Rush Affair Sponsored by Delta Phi

One of the loveliest of mid-summer social events of particular interest to the younger set of the city, is the affair being held Thursday evening by the alumni and active chapter members of Delta Phi sorority, at Ilabeo Country club, honoring prospective students of Willamette university. Amid the atmosphere of the club surroundings, the "sports idea" will be carried out in a clever and unusual way. As a feature number during the evening, Miss Ruth Gillette will give a novelty "sports dance."

Chaperones for the evening will include Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoten and Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Delano. Miss Elizabeth Clement, who is serving as "trunk captain" during the summer season is in charge of the arrangements. This smart affair will bring to a close the summer's rushing activities which will again be resumed following the opening of the fall term of school.

Mrs. Otto K. Paulus Compliments Guest

One of the smart informal affairs of the week was the English tea given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Otto K. Paulus, honoring her house guest, Mrs. Lorelei Blatchford Gillette of Berkeley, Calif., who is spending the week in Salem. Mrs. Gillette will return to Berkeley where she will take additional work for her Masters degree in English, for the winter, after which she will go to Texas to be with her small son, Billie.

A group of very intimate friends called during the afternoon to renew friendships with the honor guest, Mrs. Gillette. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Gillette was complimented with a pretty luncheon at the home of Mrs. Thelma Mills of Forest Grove.

A number of interesting motor trips have been arranged for the pleasure of the California visitor.

Miss Carrie Hurst left Tuesday evening for Hot Lake Sanatorium, where she will undergo a minor operation. Miss Hurst will be away from Salem for about two weeks.

Mrs. Clifford Farmer and Mrs. Linn Smith motored to Portland Tuesday for a day of shopping.

Delegates Named For War Mothers Convention

At a called meeting of the War Mothers held Tuesday afternoon in the Y. W. O. A. rooms, Mrs. Minnedahl Baker was elected first delegate and Mrs. Jennie Vincent was named second delegate from the local chapter, to the national convention which is to be held at Long Beach, Calif., in September. Mrs. Mabel Lockwood was appointed as first alternate and Mrs. May Meyers second alternate. In addition to the two delegates, three members of the local chapter will represent the group at the national meeting. Mrs. Mark Skiff, state president of the War Mothers, Mrs. A. A. Lee, local chapter president and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, past president of the local chapter.

The regular routine business which included general plans for the opening of the fall season's work brought the meeting to a close.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hull have as their house guests, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Hull, who have just returned from the Philippine islands. Mr. Hull was representative for an American publishing company in Manila where they have made their home for the past four years. They left Manila June 15, stopping enroute at various points of interest in China and Japan. They arrived in Seattle Tuesday on the steamship, Kiwawa Maru, and came immediately to Salem where they will visit for an indefinite stay.

The sewing club of the Sons of Veterans Auxiliary will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. R. McWhorter, 590 North Summer street.

No-Host Banquet Planned by Maids

An interesting no-host banquet has been arranged for 7:30 Saturday evening by a group of high school and college maids who will meet in the Green Gate room at the Spa, which will be in the form of a "get together" before the fall season and the opening of the various schools will take the group into different sections of the country. Miss Mildred Roberts, a special guest for the evening will leave September 10 for Dresden, Germany, where she will resume her studies in violin interpretation. Miss Frances Marie Kupper recently returned from Chicago and St. Louis, will also be a special guest.

Those included in the no-host group will be: Mrs. Roberts, Miss Kupper, Mrs. Gwendolyn Stoller, Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Ruth Briedwell, Miss Phyllis Day, Miss Margaret Engel, Miss Maxine Myers, Miss Isabel George, Miss Margaret Burdette, Miss Lorraine Kinzer, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Cynthia Delano, Miss Lois Wilkes, Miss Viola Crozier, Miss Claudine Gueffroy, Miss Esther Wood, Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Betty Reed, Miss Dorothea Corey, Miss Hazel Johnson, Miss Jean Eastridge, Miss Eva Bailey, Miss Roberta Smith, and Miss Kathryn Hayward of Eugene.

Francisco, California, is expected to arrive in Salem Thursday evening for a week's stay with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Miles McKay.

Mrs. Ella B. McDowell, formerly of Salem, but now living in San Jose, Calif., arrived in Salem today to visit at the home of her nephew, Otto Wilson, for a few days. Mrs. F. T. Garrigue of Portland, also an aunt of Mr. Wilson's, will be a guest over the weekend at the Wilson home.

Mrs. Lester Sande and daughter, Patsy Erlsen, are recent arrivals visiting at the home of Mrs. Sande's mother, Mrs. Arthur Edwards of Turner. Lester Sande is the brother of Earl Sande, the jockey.

HAVE A COOL SWEET DRINK WHEN TIRED AND HOT

A fine way to keep cool and comfortable in summer is to drink cool drinks at the soda fountain or at home, sweetened to taste with sugar.

There is nothing like sugar to sweeten home-made drinks such as lemonade, iced tea, coffee, chocolate and fruit punches. And there is no better sugar than refined cane sugar—it is acknowledged everywhere as the standard.

Refresh yourself with a sweetened drink. The Sugar Institute.
