Young Woman Injured—Phyllis Farrell, 25, whose only address was given to police as 2260 Marshall Way, received injuries yesterday afternoon when a car driven by Marjorie Farrell was involved in an accident with a machine driven by Ralph Savage, 290 Rural avenue, on North Commercial street. Savage says the other car, from California, made a left turn in front of him. In another mishap, Catherine Skelton, route 4, cut a corner at High and Court streets, without any damage being done to the other car, unidentified. Automobiles driven by John Hughes and T. M. Gosser collided at the intersection of High and Perry streets, according to police reports, which stated that a switch engine was standing at the corner while both men started around it at the same time. Frank Mapes, 1325 Broadway, says his car, backing, was involved in an accident with that of Jim Patterson.

JUSTICE OF PEACE DOCKET IS HEAVY

Woodburn man Fined due to Wife-Beating Charge; Auto Theft Claimed

Miller R. Hayden, justice of the peace, was out of the city yesterday afternoon on business, but that did not deter him from getting through a busy docket earlier in the day. Matters ranging from moonshine drinking to wife beating came up for attention.

James Leith of Woodburn pleaded guilty to beating his wife and child. He admitted the offenses after Mrs. Leith had signed the complaint, and he was fined $5 and costs by Justice Hayden. Apparently satisfied with the punishment, Mrs. Leith got into their car with her husband and son and drove away to the family home near Woodburn.

Harold Mills got drunk in the hopyard of Sid Beck near Independence. He pleaded guilty before Justice Hayden and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

Schmoker Awards N. S. F. Hearing Clarence J. Schmoker, who lives in Portland, slept last night in the county jail awaiting a preliminary hearing on the charge of issuing checks without sufficient funds. His wife signed the complaint. One check was for $35 and was drawn to Emma Curtis. A second check for $20.26 was made to O. P. Driggs.

David Krier, 20, who lives at Silverton, was haled into court on the charge of stealing an auto. He will have a preliminary hearing today at 10 a. m. His bail was set at $500 but Krier was unable to furnish it and rested last night in the county jail. He is said to have taken the car from Joe Tricoli, a man of about 50 years of age, who lives near Silverton.

Alimony Sought In Divorce Plea Of Mary Frank

Five thousand dollars in general alimony, one-third interest in real property valued at $10,000, $50 a month support money during pendency of the divorce litigation, $40 suit money and $500 for attorney's fees is asked by Mary J. Frank, who yesterday brought suit for divorce from Albin Frank, whom she married in September, 1922.

Frank is cruel, morose, suspicious and cruel. The wife alleges. He has frequently accused her of being unfaithful. Life with him is held to be intolerable. She alleges he is worth $10,000 in real property and $6000 in personal property.

HENRY L. EBERHARD NOTED AS PIONEER

Henry L. Eberhard, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. N. Chambers, in Salem Wednesday, was a resident of Marion county for over 75 years. During his active years he was a prominent leader in farm and other affairs in the northern part of the county where he resided. The following is a sketch of his life. Henry Lafayette Eberhard was born at Collin, Mich., May 4, 1845.

He came to Oregon by way of the isthmus of Panama, arriving in June, 1863. The family settled in northern Marion county near Aurora. In 1867 they moved to the Champeo district, where Mr. Eberhard owned and operated a farm until he retired a few years ago. Mr. Eberhard was prominent in grange matters and helped to organize the Butteville grange. He maintained a life membership in the Good Templars. He was married to Miss Isabelle Neal of Salem in 1880. To this union five children were born: Mrs. W. C. Phillips of Alameda, Cal., Mrs. J. N. Chambers, Mrs. C. T. Curtis, Walter E. and Elda Eberhard, all of Salem. Also surviving are five grandchildren. Out of a family of 19 there is now but one sister surviving, Mrs. Elizabeth Ridgeway of San Jose, Cal., now in her 96th year. Senator Colin R. Eberhard of La-Grande is a nephew. Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Clough-Barrick company. Services will be held Monday, August 24, at 2 o'clock at their chapel.
