

RUSH SEASON IS ON AT ROBERTS

Henningsen Starts Prune Pick; Start on Late Hops Thursday

ROBERTS, Aug. 24—Howard Henningsen started Saturday to pick his prunes. As he is selling them to be shipped green to eastern markets, it is necessary to pick them from the trees.

The other orchards around will probably start the last of this week or first of next. Carpenter brothers expect to have their dryer going full capacity by the first of the week.

The hop picking will soon be going at full speed. Some yards have been busy with early hops and after a few days' lay off will start on the late ones. The J. J. Roberts' yard expects to begin Thursday and will pick right through until late ones are done.

The Brown island yard has been busy with early fuggies but is now picking the late ones. The hops are looking good but are not quite as heavy as last year.

Mrs. Julia Henningsen with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Henningsen have left for eastern Oregon for a visit with her daughter, Julia. Miss Bonnie Davenport pleasantly surprised her parents by arriving for a visit from California.

Mrs. Alford Rose was taken to the Deaconess hospital Thursday. She was resting quite comfortable at last report.

Long Back on Job After Five-Weeks Vacation in South
HAZEL GREEN, Aug. 24—Rev. and Mrs. S. E. Long and daughter, Esther, returned Friday evening from their trip to California. Esther attended school there at Santa Cruz, while Rev. and Mrs. Long visited friends and relatives in Pasadena and San Diego. Rev. Blodgett of Salem had charge of the services at the Hazel Green United Brethren church during Rev. Long's absence of five weeks.

Katsumi Nakada of Portland has arrived here to spend two or three days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otsuki.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Massey moved Thursday evening to their new home on N. P. Williamson's farm. Masseys are renting the house in which Ralph Landers and family formerly lived. Mrs. Massey was a teacher in the school here several years ago.

ONE-MAN DIRIGIBLE DOES ITS STUFF

The "Helicosta," a one-man dirigible of 400 cubic meters capacity, capable of maneuvering in any direction, either forward, backward or sideways, is shown in full flight (left) over the airfield at Orly, France, (near Paris). A skeleton construction underneath the gas bag contains the motive power and seating arrangement. A 40-horsepower motor is the dirigible's only motive power and its pilot can control the landing of the ship so well that it can be set down on a handkerchief placed on the field. Or so says M. Oeschelien (shown at right seated at controls), who developed the "Helicosta."

CLUB MEMBERS GIVE HOUSEHOLD SHOWER

FAIRFIELD, Aug. 24—Members of the home economics club met Thursday afternoon at Grange hall. Mrs. Lawrence Ferschweiler of Gervais was the recipient of many useful household gifts which will replace some of the articles destroyed by fire two weeks ago, when their home burned to the ground.

At the business meeting a committee composed of Mrs. B. J. Miller, Mrs. T. A. Dittmars and Mrs. F. R. Nusom was selected to buy spoons and cups to be used by the grange.

The birthday committee appointed to serve at the regular meeting of the grange Wednesday, August 26, is Mrs. P. R. Nusom, Mrs. Henry C. Stafford, Frank Mahoney, D. Balwebber and Mr. Dunsey.

Those present Thursday afternoon were Mrs. Roy Pitzer, president, Mrs. T. A. Dittmars, secretary, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Mrs. Henry Stafford, Mrs. Frank Felton, Mrs. Du Rette, Mrs. B. J. Miller, Mrs. F. M. Hill, Mrs. Bon Hall, Mrs. Frank Mahoney, Mrs. F. R. Nusom, Mrs. Mike Mahoney and Mrs. Charles Allenback.

Crawford Purchases 40-acre Tract Held By J. Ammen Estate

TURNER, Aug. 24—The administration of the estate of John Ammen, deceased, has just sold the 40-acre farm lying in the Crawford district. H. R. Crawford of Salem purchased the land which joins his nut orchard and which lies across the road from his main farm land.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Standley have their oldest son, Glenn, with his wife and six children with them for a visit. They had not seen their son for 19 years. The family home has been at Jordan in the northeastern part of Montana, where the pinch of hard times is felt as it is in so many places. The new-comers will likely remain in Oregon if they find a suitable location.

VISITOR FROM IOWA

ELDRIDGE, Aug. 24—Mrs. Mary Sinclair and daughter Retta, of Chatham, Iowa, are the house guests of Miss Walker and Mrs. W. P. Palmer at the Palmer home. Mrs. Sinclair is a sister of Miss Walker and Mrs. Palmer. Miss Ruth Palmer who is in training for a nurse at the Multnomah hospital in Portland arrived home Sunday.

Week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Beaver were her mother, Mrs. Sarah Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Lewis and daughter Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lewis, all of Portland. The two men are brothers of Mrs. Beaver. Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Shelton of North Bend are making an extended visit at the Beaver home.

Trio Travels 8,820 Miles In 23 States

HAZEL GREEN, Aug. 24—Clifton Clemens, Guy Allen Looney, and Mrs. G. G. Looney returned Thursday afternoon from their trip to visit relatives in eastern and mid-western states. This trip which extended over a period of about six weeks and three days, took them through 8,820 miles in 23 of the states.

They visited relatives in South Dakota, Minnesota, Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and also in Washington D. C. They visited many historic and beautiful spots of the United States and only regret that they could not spend more time at the various places.

In Wyoming they visited the Yellowstone National park and climbed to the altitude of 9,666 feet while crossing the Big Horn mountains. In Ohio they saw some of the remains of the old mounds built by the mound builders. They saw Riley's famous "Ole Swimming Hole" near Indianapolis. They went through the Cumberland Gap and traveled for half a day on the Trail of the Lonesome Pine. They saw an old bridge in West Virginia built in 1857, which was used by both Confederate and Union armies in the Civil war. They visited the Vicksburg Memorial cemetery where Civil war veterans of both armies were buried.

They averaged over three hundred miles per day while traveling. While traveling through Texas, 600 miles was made one day.
