NACATION IS OVER

Participates in Excitement Of Explosion When he Arrives at N. Y.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24—(AP)— Home from Europe, Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W .Mellon brought his annual vacation to a close with participation in a minor explosion, a ride in a rum runner's automobile and a conference at the federal reserve bank. The financier, who is 71, was reported very much tired when he went away, but he seemed alert and much improved in health on his return. His appearance was that of a man keen to get back to his office.

Out early on deck, which stewards said was his custom, he found reporters and photographers awaiting him when the liner Conte Biancamano slowed down at quarantine.

As he turned to face the camera battery a flash light bulb blew up, the particles of glass showering the secretary.

The injury was a slight cut on the right hand which he minimized while photographers completed taking their pictures.

'Any questions you might ask me," he told would be interviewers "must have been answered from the other side. For ten days I have been on this ship doing nothing. Before that I was resting for ten days on the French Riviera. I have no news." Rides in Seized

Car of Rum Runner Secretary Mellon rode to the hattery on the coast guard cutter Manhattan. Whe it was found no automobile had been provided to take him uptown, government officials scurried around, one of them finally appearing with a dilapidated car, battered but ser-viceable. It had been seized for illegal transportation of liquor.

The secretary was driven to the federal reserve bank and there conferred with under-secretary of the treasury, Ogden L. Mills and with George L. Harrison, federal reserve governor of New York. The secretary declined to say what (AP)-Rewards totaling $10,500 have been offered by Mansfield's two newspapers, the Journal and the News, for the arrest and conviction of those involved in bombing plots against the papers.

A bomb tossed from an automobile into the basement of the Journal building Saturday morning, tore up the floor in the business office and injured the nightwatchman. Last night, employes of the News, attracted by burning rags in the building, called firemen who found a crudely made bomb which had burned out instead of exploding.

Today's dividend represents a disbursement of approximately $55,600 in the two departments.
