

Sunnyside Juniors Play Marion County Lads Here Today

SLUGGING TEAM WILL BE FACED

Johnson Probably to Hurt Against Zimmerman And Perrine

Sunnyside, not a large city but rather an athletic center up in the Yakima valley, is sending its American Legion junior baseball team to Salem today. It will play the Marion Juniors on Olinger field at 5:15 o'clock this afternoon in a game which will probably be the last for the local team.

The Sunnyside community holds credit for developing a number of noted athletes, those best known here being the Zeller brothers, who romped on the gridiron for Willamette university in past seasons. The first of the Zellers, to play here, Waldo, who was better known as "Fat," was regarded as one of the outstanding half-backs of the northwest.

Team Features
Real sluggers
This year's Sunnyside Junior ball team upholds the community's reputation, winning the eastern Washington Junior ball championship and taking one game from the Seattle team, western Washington champions, in the state title series.

It is a team of sluggers, as is evidenced by the 10-to-3 victory scored over Seattle in the second game of the series at Sunnyside, and the fact that it out-hit Seattle in the first game, which it lost 8 to 5. One of the heavy hitters is Portch, leadoff man.

Johnson is reported to be Sunnyside's best pitcher and he will probably start today's game against the Marion Juniors. He held Seattle to eight hits in the first game of the Washington series, and then was called upon to hurl the third with one day's rest, but proved unequal to the occasion.

The Marion Juniors will be at full strength with possibly both Johnny Perrine and Harvey Zimmerman taking a share of the mound honors.

The Sunnyside team will arrive in Salem about noon today, coming in automobiles, with a considerable following of fans. The party including the players will number about 25.

Eugene May See Dempsey Scrap

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Herb Owen, local promoter, announced today he expected to bring Jack Dempsey, ex-heavyweight champion, here to meet some good heavyweight September 3 or 4. While negotiations were not completed, he said he was quite certain the bout would be staged. If the match materializes it will be staged in McArthur Court, basketball pavilion on the University of Oregon campus he said.

The New York Yankees made efforts to secure Monte Weaver, righthanded hurler of the Baltimore Orioles, recently traded to Washington.

150 Pheasants Distributed In Marion County

One hundred and fifty young pheasant roosters, raised under the sponsorship of local members of the Marion County Game Protective association in the pens on the state hospital grounds, were liberated in various parts of the county Monday by Ben Claggett, former deputy state game warden.

The birds were half-grown. Two hundred and fifty more young "chicks," which will be placed in the pens, will be released after the hunting season closes, along with 400 half-grown hens. Russ Smith, president of the Marion county game group is given much credit for his work in developing the feeding pen idea.

Ten Days Jail Is Penalty For Wrong License

Ten days in the county jail was the sentence meted out yesterday to Charles McEwen of Woodburn who pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Hayden to driving an auto with improper license plates. McEwen was arrested in Silverton about 2 a. m., Sunday morning, after trying to evade the arresting officer. The latter party fired a gun at McEwen before he would stop.

McEwen is about 20 years of age. The car he drove belonged to one Wockersham, a Silverton man. The latter party was not brought into court.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Portland beat a tie with the Seals for league leadership. Jack Fenton's home run in the second, the only hit of the inning, brought in four runs which gave the Beavers an edge most of which they managed to maintain. Two walks and an error had filled the bases for Fenton.

The ninth was a narrow squeeze for the Seals, having already pounded Killen off the mound, almost tied the score off Junk Walters when Sullik's homer scored three runs.

Although leading by one run at the beginning of the ninth Oakland combined two walks with two doubles to score a pair of runs and clinch the game. Craghead held the Missions scoreless.

Manager Joe Devine protested the game in the first inning claiming that Dalgren failed to touch first base after hitting a three bagger.

FAVORITES WIN IN DOUBLES TOURNEY

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Opening play in the national doubles tennis tournament today ran on in an even and enjoyable course for the favorites. The nine seeded teams, including one foreign pair, were safely berthed in the second round.

The draw for this golden jubilee team play was so lacking in dynamic that the first round matches were nothing more than brisk workouts to fit the favorites for the stiffer competition ahead. Most of them, including the defending champions, Johnny Doeg and George Lott, used their opponents for experimental purposes.

Doeg and Lott drew J. Brooks Fenno and Henry R. Gault, Boston and blasted them off the courts for a 10-5, 9-7, 6-2 victory. Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill, the second seeded Californians and favorites to annex the title which Doeg and Lott have held for two years, wop from Edward Yeomans, Washington and Elmer Rudy, Baltimore, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2.

The showing of Frederick J. Perry and George Patrick Hughes, British Davis cup doubles team, against Carl Kamrath of Austin, Texas, and Caltoun Burwell of Charlotte, N. C., failed to impress the slim gallery. It was an 8-6, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2 victory.

Independent Grid Team is Announced With Big Stars Billed to Show in Salem

Salem will be represented by an independent football team this fall, and through its activities many of the outstanding college football stars of recent years will be brought here, according to an announcement made Tuesday by S. L. Swegle, who will be business manager of the local team, to be known as the Oregon Mohawks.

The opening game will be with the Oregon City Buckaroos here September 20, followed the next weekend by a return contest at the paper city. The St. Johns Bachelors will come a little later but this date has not been set pending the working out of their league schedule.

The West Seattle Athletic club team will come here November 22, and George Wilson's Everett Wildcats probably October 18. Ted Shipley's Sacramento All Stars will be played at Sacramento November 3.

Swegle declares that plenty of material is available here for a first class team, and that in addition the management hopes to sign up "Rowdy" Kerr, Jerry Lillie and Cecil Sherwood, well known figures in northwest college football in recent seasons.

MATCH PLAY ON IN WESTERN TOURNEY

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Mrs. George W. Tyson, Kansas City, defending champion, led the favorites in the opening match play skirmishes for the women's western golf championship over the Exmoor country club course.

The champion shot the best golf of the fast field today, chipping three shots off par and crushing her first round rival Mary Elizabeth Ford of Kansas City, 7 and 6.

With exception of Mrs. Gregg Lufur of Los Angeles, finalist in 1929, all the favorites crowded into the second round with fairly easy conquests. Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City, champion in 1929 and medalist for two years, has a tight struggle for nine holes and then defeated Mrs. Lee Mida, Chicago, 4 and 3. Mrs. Leona Pressler of Los Angeles, winner of the medal yesterday with a pair 79, crushed Mrs. A. E. Shiel, Chicago, 6 and 4.

Virginia Van Wie, Chicago's first ranking woman star and twice a finalist in the national, shot shaky golf but emerged victorious by a 3 and 2 margin over Priscilla Carver, Chicago, while Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, Wis., sailed in with a 3 and 2 conquest over Mrs. Melvin Jones, Chicago. Mrs. Lufur's conqueror today was 18 year old Rena Nelson, a star of the championship Exmoor course.

The oddest juggling of names in baseball this year was the deal in which Detroit sent Doljack to Reading for Quellich.

CURT COMMENTS

See you all at Olinger field this afternoon at 5:15.

Looks like a great series in Portland this week with the Ducks and the Seals fighting for top place—only look out or those Oaks will get in there ahead of both of them. The Stars have been climbing rapidly of late too. Anything can happen.

We hear various reports on Jack Dempsey's showing at Portland. The Under the Dome man thinks the old man isn't what he used to be. Others say they can't see any difference. Sorry we couldn't go down and settle the thing and stop all this discussion.

Little Aubrey breaks into verse this morning, and we don't know exactly why. It isn't spring.

LITTLE AUBREY

This "Little Aubrey" line of bunk grows more insane each day. But don't let Little Aubrey drop until we've had our say:

It seems that little Aubrey once was playing with a dog; The muzzled beast lay in the yard 'Twas sleeping like a log. And Little Aubrey's fond mama said, "Aubrey's like all babies, Watch him take the muzzie off, he ha!" She knew that dog had rabies.

KARL MAUST IS TRAP CHAMPION

Tied with Troeh, 2 Others At 199, Then Smashes 150 Without Miss

VANDALIA, Ohio, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Karl Maust, an automobile salesman from Detroit, today captured the North American clay target championship by outclassing a field of more than 500 in the feature event of the second day's program of the 32nd annual grand American handicap tournament.

Maust replaces Gus Payne, former Oklahoma City Indian, as the king of amateur shooters on the North American continent. Payne, who won the title for the last two years, did not defend his crown this year.

The Detroit sniper gave one of the most remarkable exhibitions of shooting ever witnessed on the Vandalia traps in a shootoff with three other men.

The quartet was tied at the end of the regulation 200 targets with 199 each. They were Frank Troeh, Portland, Ore.; George Slaughter, Benton Harbor, Mich.; Dr. E. L. Botts, Waverly, Ohio, and Maust.

Troeh drops out at 134th target. In the shootoff Maust broke 150 straight to give him a score of 249 out of a possible 350 for the day. Troeh dropped out on the 134th target of the shootoff to take second place; Botts won third position and Slaughter missed his 50th clay.

To 18-year old Jeanette Jay of Waverly, Iowa, went the North American women's crown. Miss Jay, a student at Wartburg college, and Iowa state champion, annexed her title in a shootoff with Mrs. H. E. Grisby of Oklahoma City. The two tied by shattering 151 targets out of a possible 200. In the shootoff Miss Jay broke 25 straight to Mrs. Grisby's 24, the latter missing the fifteenth clay.
