

LITERARY BAD BOY CAREER IS CLOSED

Biographer of Oscar Wilde And Self Dies at Nice Following Illness

NICE, France, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Frank Harris, 75, self-exiled from his adopted America because of his daring writings, died in his sleep early today at his villa here.

Critic, author, editor and playwright, intimate acquaintance of the great and near great at the turn of the century, he wrote to the last to earn his livelihood in the face of comparative poverty that came with judicial disapproval of his sensational "Life and Loves."

At his bedside when he died was his wife, Mrs. Nellie O'Hara Harris, the titan-haired Irish woman he met in a Paris art gallery and married 20 years ago, and whom he seemed to love devotedly.

His funeral will be held Friday morning at the Episcopal church in Nice, with burial in a nearby cemetery.

The iconoclast of Anglo-American letters, suffered a new attack of an ailment that had made his health poor, and his condition became alarming over the week-end.

He had completed the proof-reading of his "Life of George Bernard Shaw," long his friend, last week. The Shaw biography is to be published simultaneously in England and America in the autumn.

The fame of Frank Harris, literary "bad boy," largely rests on his biography of Oscar Wilde and his own "Life and Loves."

His "Life and Confessions of Oscar Wilde" brought him renown. His autobiography brought him notoriety.

Born St. Valentine's day, 1856, at Galway, Ireland, son of a British naval officer of Welsh blood, he ran away at 15 to America because he lost a scholarship to Cambridge university.

His trouble with Postal Authorities

Entering the social whirl of London in the nineties, he formed a friendship with Oscar Wilde and others of his group. Later, as editor of the London Evening News, the Fortnightly Review and the Saturday Review. On the latter paper he gave Shaw his first job as a music critic.

His last residence in America was during his editorship of Pearson's magazine, which he sold in 1922, after difficulties with the postal authorities.

FIGHT IS DELAYED

BAYONNE, N. J., Aug. 26.—(AP)—The fight in which Tony Cantorini was to defend his junior welterweight title against Henry Parlick of Kalamazoo, Mich., tonight was put over until tomorrow because of threatening weather.

MAIN ACTORS IN MYSTERY

MRS. MARY REISER

The latest mystery to perplex the combined brains of New York police and Federal authorities is the disappearance of Hisashi Fujimura, wealthy Japanese silk importer, from aboard the liner Beigneland, during a pleasure cruise from New York to Halifax and back.

OREGON LADS HELD FOR AUTO HOLDUP

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Two Oregon youths, Ed Westley, 20, and John Ryan, 16, were arrested here today after a several hours search following the holding up and theft of an automobile at gun-point near Montesano, 35 miles west of here.

Early in the day, K. Jensen was held up in his car and forced to drive his two captors to McCleary, on the highway to Olympia. He escaped from the car there and telephoned a description of the men on ahead.

ens said, having been involved in a holdup of a young couple near Aberdeen Saturday night. He is out on parole from the Oregon state penitentiary, the sheriff said.

Miss Davis Goes East For Study

Miss Thelma Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis, 230 South 24th street, left Salem by train last night with Philadelphia, Penn., her destination, where she will study music for the next two years. En route she plans to make stops at Belleville, N. D., Chicago, Ill., and Detroit, Mich., to visit with relatives. Her school opens October 4. Miss Davis has had charge of music for the Jason Lee Memorial Methodist church during the summer months. She is a graduate of Oregon State college where she was a leader in musical activities.

VINES AND GLEDHILL HAVE TOUGH BATTLE

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill, Californian favorites to capture the Golden Jubilee national doubles championship, today put on one of the bravest stands in lawn tennis, to overhaul the two-set lead of the Rhode Islanders, Arnold Jones and Jimmy Van Allen, and smash their way into the quarter final round.

The final score was: 6-6, 2-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Seven other seeded teams, including Johnny Doeg and George Lott, the defending champions, survived the other second round matches.

Frederick J. Perry and George Patrick Hughes, British Davis cup pair, won from Lester Stoeffen and Jack Tidball of Los Angeles, 3-6, 8-6, 6-3, 6-4, 8-6.

Doeg and Lott, although forced to go four sets, were never threatened as they plied up their 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2 victory over Jerry Sias and Bob McFarlane of Oklahoma City. Frank X. Shields and Sidney Wood emulated the champions' brand of play against Lloyd Nordstrom and Wallace Scott of Tacoma, Wash., for a 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3 win.

Whimer Allison and Johnny Van Ryn, last year runners-up, were down Edward Feibelman, New York, and J. Gilbert Hall, East Orange, N. J., for an 11-9, 3-6, 6-1, 6-2 victory.

Alp and Godfrey Are Now Barred In Pennsylvania

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 26.—(AP)—The state boxing commission today indefinitely suspended Primo Carnera and George Godfrey. The suspensions were a reversal of a decision August 5 when the boxers were unconditionally reinstated and their managers restored to good standing.

The suspensions came as a result of an attack on an inspector for the commission by Carnera's handlers after a recent Carnera-Godfrey bout in Philadelphia. Reinstatement was conditioned upon scheduling of another bout in this state between the two.

FAVORITES ADVANCE TO QUARTER FINALS

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill., Aug. 26.—(AP)—The defending titleholder, Mrs. George Tyson of Kansas City, and virtually all her serious rivals marched to the quarter-finals of the women's western golf championship over the fairways of the Exmoor country club today.

Mrs. Tyson hurled into the quarter final round by disposing of Ann Webster of Leavenworth, Kas., 3 and 1. Two former champions and at least three excellent golfers kept pace with her. The two former champions were Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City who crushed Rena Nelson of Chicago 6 and 4. In the most one sided match of the day and Mrs. Leona Prossler, San Gabriel, Cal., twice holder of the western crown, who was carried to the final green before she eliminated Mrs. Roy Green, Los Angeles, city champion, one up.

Mrs. Hill's easy victory in her first and second rounds was anything but good news for the champion as they meet in the feature tussle of the quarter finals tomorrow over 18 holes. For three years, Mrs. Hill has been Mrs. Tyson's outstanding golfing rival.

OIL MERGER PLANS MAKING PROGRESS

LAKE TAHOE, Cal., Aug. 26.—(AP)—President W. C. Teagle of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey and President H. R. Kingsbury of Standard Oil Co. of California today said they had agreed that a merger of their respective companies would be "logical and advantageous" and were "working toward a plan to this end."

In a statement issued at the conclusion of a series of conferences the executives said "no insurmountable obstacles to merger have developed during our discussions."

"However," the statement continued, "it must be appreciated that a merger of this importance involves many intricate questions requiring careful consideration, and that some of these questions could not have been anticipated prior to our meeting here. Arrangements have been made to carry on studies of these points and a resumption of the conferences has been agreed upon at a date not yet fixed."

"With respect of the two principal items of oil company operation, namely crude oil production and gasoline sales," the statement said, "the proposed merger on the basis of 1930 figures would involve ten per cent of the total crude oil production and about 18 per cent of the total gasoline business of the United States, domestic and export."

Political Row Shooting Cause

COLON, Panama, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Dr. Arnulfo Arias, brother of Harmodio Arias, minister at Washington, was shot twice in a fray in the city council room tonight by Ramon Ametiea. Dr. Arias was not seriously wounded.

MILLIONS FOR CANDLES WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite the widespread use of electricity, gas or kerosene as illuminants, the oldest of lighting devices, the candle, is an $18,000,000 item in the annual export trade of the world.

Thirty-five carloads of horses were shipped from Latonia, Ky., as the season ended, to Dade Park, Ky., where a new racing season opens August 15.
