Popula-Maids Honored At Tea

Probably the most outstanding social affair of the summer among the college and high school set was the beautifully appointed formal tea given Friday afternoon from three till six at the Delta Phi sorority house, by a group of intimate friends of the honor guests, complimenting jointly, the Misses Mildred Roberts and Roberta Smith, who are leaving Salem within the week.

Miss Roberts, in company with her mother, Mrs. John J. Roberts, will sail from New York September 10th for Dresden, Germany, and Miss Smith will accompany her mother, Mrs. Dean Adams to Salt Lake City, Utah, where they will make their future home. Both young ladies are popular maids of the city and have been the inspiration for numerous delightful affairs since their announcement of their departures.

The guests will be greeted at the door by Miss Hazel Johnson who will introduce to the line including the honor guests, Mildred Roberts and Roberta Smith, Cynthia Delano and Francis Martin.

At the tea table which will be lovely with its all over lace cloth, centered with a large bouquet of pale pink and white mixed garden flowers artistically arranged in a sparkling bowl, guarded on either side by pink and blue lighted tapers, the Misses Esther Wood, Margaret Corey, Isobel George and Maxine Myers, smartly dressed in pink and blue evening dress, will alternate with the pouring and cutting of the ices. Serving from the table will be the Misses Lorraine Kinzer, Claudine Gueffroy, Francis Marie Cupper and Margaret Engel.

Assisting about the living rooms of the Delta Phi chapter house will be the Misses Margaret Evans, Margaret Burdette, Betty Read, Dorothea Corey, Jean Eastridge, Lois Wilkes, Viola Crosier, Gwendolyn Stolker, Phyllis Day, Ruth Briedwell and Beulah Bailey.

During the afternoon a group of piano numbers were given by Miss Ruth Briedwell.

Those chosen to bid adieu to the honor guests, Mildred Roberts and Roberta Smith, are Nancy Thielsen, Rovena Eyre, Helen Darby, Dorothy Bell, Margaret Bell, Margaret Drager, Dorothy White, Margaret Wagner, Catherine Corey, Helga Olsen, Augusta Gerlinger of Dallas, Mira Bell, Ruthita Hoffnell, Dorothy Moore, Yvonne Smith, Harriette Beal, Helen Engel, Wilma Wirtz, Grace Holman, Velma Mae, Rose Fitz Sawyer, Fern Harris, June Fitzpatrick, Jewel Fitzpatrick, Dor-

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Saturday, August 29
G. A. R. and W. R. C. annual picnic, Saturday, August 29, at Fairgrounds. Picnic dinner at noon.

Surprise Shower At Edwards Home

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards, who have recently returned from their wedding trip, the Salem Lodge No. 19, Degree of Honor, entertained a few days ago with a surprise miscellaneous shower, at their new home at 1082 Fir street. The evening was spent informally with "500" and bridge, after which a late supper was served.

Those in the group who enjoyed the evening were Mr. and Mrs. William Hagendorf, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kerton, Mr. and Mrs. George Schulz, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McKennie, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Zell, Mr. and Mrs. Peter McMurtry, Mrs. Ruby Poudjag, Mrs. Anna Barkman, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Morley, Miss Lola Schulz, Miss Vida Menon.

Large Number Attend Reception

Nearly 60 friends and members of the congregation of the Jason Lee Memorial church, attended the informal reception honoring Rev. and Mrs. S. Darlow Johnson, pastor of the Jason Lee church. Mr. E. A. Rhoten as president of the Brotherhood was general chairman for the affair. An interesting program composed of musical numbers, readings and informal talks was enjoyed by the group. The program as it was presented included:

Address of Welcome, Rev. H. C. Loewenworth.

Response, Rev. S. Darlow Johnson.

Reading, Mrs. Clyde French.

Cornet solo, Mrs. Clark Will, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Mason Bishop.

Zylophone solo, Mrs. Wayne Greenwood, accompanied by Mrs. Bishop.

Reading, Mrs. A. R. Ferguson.

At the close of the program, Rev. Johnson was presented with a letter by A. C. Bohrnstedt, in behalf of the members of the church, urging Dr. Johnson and his family to enjoy a two weeks vacation, at will. This being the first real recreational vacation Dr. Johnson has taken in the past three years. A gift of appreciation was also presented Dr. Johnson, by Clark Will at the close of the program.

The program closed by a song in unison "I'll Meet Again," with Mrs. Orwig at the organ and Mrs. W. R. Bush at the piano.

The Misses Hazel and Isobel George motored to Portland Friday morning to spend the day shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wheaton entertained informally at dinner Friday evening at their home on the past three years. A gift of appreciation was also presented Dr. Johnson, by Clark Will at the close of the program.

Miss Alvis Love Dinner Hostess

An interesting informal no-host dinner was given Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock, at the home of Miss Alvis Love in the Roberts apartment, by the members of the junior class of Delta Phi sorority, complimenting the birthday anniversary of Miss Pauline Lislay of Woodburn.

The table was attractively centered with a mixed bouquet of late summer flowers, whose covers were placed for the honor guest, Miss Pauline Lislay of Woodburn, Miss Elizabeth Clemens, Cynthia Delano, Lois Wilkes, Brenda Savage, Sylvia Dubois and Beulah Cramer. Mrs. Howard Miller of Woodburn was a special guest for the evening, which was spent informally in conversation and cards.

Edith Brotherton Becomes Bride Friday

At a simple but impressive home wedding, solemnized Friday at 12:00 o'clock, high noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hutchinson, 1419 South Commercial street, Miss Edith Brotherton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brotherton, became the bride of Fred Bryant, of Seaside, son of Mrs. E. Bryant of Vancouver, B. C.

The bridal party took their places before the fireplace, banked with pink and white asters, where Rev. W. C. Kantner read the single ring services in the presence of only the immediate members of the bride and groom's families.

The bride, petite blond, was attractive in a modish frock of Alice blue organdie and large pointed hat to match, with arm bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. Mrs. W. R. Kane, aunt of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a light flowered georgette model with white soft lace hat. She also played the processional and recessional marches.

Following the reading of the vows, an informal reception was held, during which time the bride cut the first slice of the lovely white bride's cake.

Immediately following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Bryant left for a motor trip to Seaside and other Oregon beaches, after which they will return to Seattle where they will make their home.

Mrs. Bryant is well known in Salem, having attended Salem schools and later becoming affiliated with the state engineering department, where she was employed for several years.

BIDDLE, LONG TO TAKE PART

In Program for Annual Conference of United Brethren Churches

The 78th session Oregon annual conference of the United Brethren church and auxiliary groups will be held at Portland Second church beginning next Tuesday and continuing through Sunday. Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Biddle of the Englewood church here will be attending, as will Mrs. O. A. Chase, 1560 Market street, official delegate from this church.

Rev. S. E. Long, also of Salem and pastor of the church at Hazel Green, will attend. A group of the members of the Hazel Green church plan also to go, including the delegates listed in this paper yesterday morning.

Rev. and Mrs. Biddle both have placed on the conference program, Mrs. Biddle being leader for the conference on children's workers, which group will meet for study and discussion once each day.

Rev. Biddle is a member of the conference administration council, on which he is director of Christian education. He is also chairman for Oregon of the anti-saloon league committee, member of the conference relations and classification committee and chairman of the second year study course committee. Rev. Long is on the fourth year study course committee and the ministry classification committee also, in addition to being on the conference board, court of appeals.

Rev. Long will lead the Wednesday afternoon adult division group conference and will give report on group conference Friday afternoon. Rev. Biddle will report for the committees of which he is chairman, will report on the summer training camps and will assist with the Saturday evening service.

Dr. Deever is one of the two officers who will be present from Dayton, Ohio, to represent the general church interests. He is secretary of the board of Christian education. Miss Janet Gilbert, secretary of the Otterbein Guild, and Miss Gladys Ward, missionary from China, will attend from Dayton.

The Women's Missionary association, the Otterbein Guild, and Christian education groups are those which will meet at the same time as the ministers.

Dresses

Start your Fall wardrobe with one of these new Dresses!

$10⁰⁰ to $39⁵⁰

Of course the important fall fashions are those you can wear right now. And there is nothing like a new fall frock to revive a languishing wardrobe. You'll feel new and alive as soon as you wear one. The sheer black wool dress is one of the smartest, trimmed with lingerie details or touches of color contrast. The dress of nubbed woolen with matching jacket is a close competitor. But if you want something cool and comfortable with just a suggestion of Fall, you'll choose the sheer wool dress of dark tones.

---2nd Floor

BACK TO SCHOOL IN THESE NEW KNIT SUITS AND DRESSES!

These new wool knitted dresses are so dashing and youthful that you'll want two or more when you see them. Knitted of finest wools... plain with novel contrasts of plaid or stripe designs. Lively color schemes dominate the showing. Kiltie green, wine, guardsman blue, cadet blue, navy, black and brown.

2nd Floor $3.95 and $5.95

Coats

That achieve slender lines!

$17⁵⁰ and Up

Coats for the more mature woman of larger size are skillfully designed to achieve that slender look. Fur collars of short-haired flat furs are placed just right — wrap-around lines disguise the hips, and colors are most becoming. The prices are appealing, too. Women who take sizes 42 to 50 usually have to pay much more for coats of such excellence.

It's High Time You Bought Yourself SOME NEW KNITWEAR

Three-piece Suits $10⁰⁰ to $22⁵⁰

Three-piece knitted suits arrived for this early Fall showing, and everyone a smart fashion. Fine jersey-like textures or rough and ready knits that serve for golf and other outdoor sports. You'll adore these little outfits that seem to take the autumn season by storm.

Choose dark red wines, navy blue, Casals brown, Kiltie green, all enlivened with bright trims in novel design.
