

Events of Interest in Social - Musical Club - Circles

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Salem Folk Plan Labor Day Affairs

Labor day, the most eagerly awaited vacation period of the year, the time when young and old alike feel the urge to travel and find new surroundings; seek quiet and secluded places where the hurry and bustle of the city throngs may be forgotten; the quietude enjoyed beside dashing mountain streams or perhaps some place of a more lively nature, the ever popular, beach resort. Some of the more athletic minded youth of the city are planning interesting trips into the mountains and nearby lakes which will include, a trip arranged by the Jason Lee Hiking club, under the direction of Don Douris, who will take the group Monday, first to Jordan Creek, then to a ranch house five miles distant, where they will begin their long hard hike to Indian Prairie Lake, back into the wooded section of the surrounding mountains. Those who will make the trip will be, Mrs. Gordon Black, who will chaperone the group, Mr. Gordon Black, Eleanor Barth, Naomi Fleet, Vera Dark, Barbara Barham, Isobel Leeper, Myrtle Burke, Laverne Hewitt, Hazel Mason, Mary Lois Driggs, Helena Marcy, Betty Fouke, Harold Leeper, Gordon Black, Don Douris, Don Watson, Herman Raefuss, Myron Fouke, Paul Tennant, Paul Carpenter, Edgar Rodgers, Lawrence Baumgartner, Dewayne Duncan, and Loren Bannister. Boy Scout Troop No. 6 which will include about 15 of the younger boys, is arranging a hike to King Tut's Tomb, an old Indian gathering ground near Me-hama. This group will be led by Bill Towne.

Dr. and Mrs. John Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. John Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ross of Portland will be included in a group who will enjoy a fishing party over the Labor day holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Willett will be guests at Dearborn mountain cabin on the McKenzie river for the weekend.

Brettenbush Springs, a popular resort will be a favorite with Salem motorists during the vacation with some groups planning trips to Willhoit Springs, Silver Creek Falls and the Oregon beaches which are always a standby and favorite vacation spot.

Informal Affair Enjoyed Friday

The regular meeting of the Mary and Martha Circle of the First Christian church, was entertained Friday at the home of Mrs. B. E. Hollingsworth on North Capitol street.

The guests for the afternoon included, Mrs. C. E. Bowen, Mrs. A. B. Seeley, Mrs. K. Smith, Mrs. George Gibson and daughter Dorothy, Miss Anna Nissen, Mrs. E. J. Leepley, Mrs. D. A. Stover, Mrs. Arthur Flint, Mrs. J. D. Deans, Mrs. O. C. McDowell, Mrs. J. F. Rautenkranz, Mrs. D. H. Hickethier, Mrs. W. H. Gardner, Mrs. C. A. David, of Madison, Wisconsin, Mrs. D. P. Simpson, Mrs. A. D. Wagner, Mrs. C. A. Cole, Mrs. A. North, Miss Edith Harper, Mrs. Bert Macy and the hostess, Mrs. B. E. Hollingsworth.

Miss Ruth Tibbits Guest of Honor

An informal affair of the week was the evening arranged by Mrs. Ida L. Niles and her daughter, Miss Gussie Niles, in compliment to Miss Ruth Tibbits, who will be one of Salem's most charming brides of the late summer. The evening was spent pleasantly with conversation, after which Miss Tibbits was presented a lovely electrical gift from the group.

Those who enjoyed the evening were Mrs. F. J. Toose, Mrs. J. Tibbits, Miss Annie Toose, Mrs. C. Pierre Saucy, Mrs. Carrie G. Fowle, the Misses Lena and Mabel Dotson, Eva Walker, Thea Thompson, Christine Welns, Agnes Dick and the hostess, Mrs. Niles and Miss Gussie Niles.

Prominent Maids To Sail for New York

Two prominent Salem maids who are making extensive preparations to leave Salem within the next fortnight are Miss Josephine Albert and Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, who will leave September 5 for New York city, where Miss Van Winkle will study for her master's degree at Columbia university and Miss Albert will study voice in the Juillard Institute of musical art. They will take an Admiral line steamer from Portland, and will transfer to the Panama-Atlantic liner S. S. Virginia at San Francisco, arriving in New York September 28.

Both Miss Albert and Miss Van Winkle are members of Beta Chi sorority, a number of social affairs are being arranged in their honor, the first to be held Monday evening at the home of Miss Dorothy Dalk, who will entertain for the travelers.

Miss Mary Winchell spent Sunday at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Fred Erickson on State street, enroute from Santa Clara, Calif., where she has been vacationing for the past fortnight, to her home in Seattle. Miss Winchell is a missionary serving for the Methodist church, in the interests of the Japanese people of Seattle, of which she relates some interesting experiences.

Mrs. Jessie Robertson of Minneapolis, Minnesota, who has been visiting her many friends and relatives here since June, will soon be leaving Salem for Vancouver, B. C., and other Canadian points. She expects to return to her home in Minneapolis late in the fall.

HONORED AT TEA

Miss Roberta Smith, who will leave September 5, for Salt Lake City, was guest of honor Saturday at a large formal tea.—Kennell-Ellis.

Bridal Attendants Announced By Party

The first of the series of early fall weddings will be that of Miss Dorothy Gutekunst and Atwood Foster, which will be solemnized Tuesday evening, September 1, at 8 o'clock, in the Evangelistic tabernacle at Thirtieth and Ferry streets.

Miss Mildred Parsons of Moberly, Mo., will attend the bride as maid of honor, while the Misses Audrey and Cornelia Converse have been chosen as bridesmaids. Little Rena Coleen Skags has been selected as flower girl.

Albert Stange of San Francisco will serve as best man and the ushers will be Leonard Foster and David Converse.

Rev. Charles Weston, pastor at the tabernacle, will officiate in the presence of several hundred guests.

Miss Doris Clarke will sing preceding the ceremony, accompanied by Miss Hoehle Watanabe at the piano. Miss Agatha Doran will play the wedding marches.

A reception at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gutekunst, for members of the bridal party and invited friends and relatives will follow the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Gutekunst are entertaining for the bridal party with a dinner Monday evening at their home preceding the wedding rehearsal at the church. The dinner will be the final social event of a series of affairs honoring the attractive bride-elect.

Miss Martha Sprague Bridge Hostess Friday

One of the pleasant informal affairs of the week was the afternoon of bridge given Friday at the home of Miss Martha Sprague, who she entertained in compliment to a group of her intimate friends. Following several hours of bridge the guests were seated at a prettily appointed table centered with an attractive bouquet of peach-colored gladioli and garden greenery, where covers were marked for the Misses Edna and Margaret Savage, Rachael and Ruth Youcum, Eleanor and Helen Prindle, Margaret Doege, Julia Johnson and the hostess, Martha Sprague.

High score for the afternoon was won by Miss Rachael Youcum with consolation award going to Miss Margaret Doege.

MABEL S. POWERS TEACHER OF PIANO

Studio Opens Sept. 1st
1256 Court St.—Phone 7128

My course deals with the fundamental musical adjustments for playing octaves, chords, trills, double thirds, arpeggios and scales.

Dear Mrs. Powers: Your summer's work with me has been most gratifying. Your musical understanding and capacity for clean analysis make you a valuable member of the teaching profession. Most sincerely yours, Abby Whitton, 245 N. 75th, New York City.

-SPECIAL-
Permanent Wave
$3.00 COMPLETE
Genuine "Ringlette"
(LIMITED TIME)

OREGON BEAUTY SHOP
426-27-28 Oregon Bldg. Tel. 5784

Sylvia Thompson Bride of A. Knox

Coming as a surprise to their many friends is the announcement of the wedding Sunday morning of Miss Sylvia Thompson and Arthur W. Knox, which will be solemnized at 9 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Grover T. Birchett will read the impressive single ring service in the presence of the immediate members of the families of the bride and groom.

Miss Thompson has chosen for her wedding a modish fall ensemble of dark blue wool crepe with white trim, and close fitting hat of French felt, to match. Her accessories are of white and to complete her costume will wear a shoulder corsage of white gardenias.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony the young couple will leave by motor for a trip through southern Oregon, including Crater Lake and the Oregon caves before returning to Salem in a fortnight, where they will be "at home" after September 15, at 981 North 16th street.

Both Miss Thompson and Mr. Knox well known in Salem, having lived here for a number of years. They are both employed at the United States National bank. During her stay in Salem Miss Thompson has made her home with her brother-in-law and sister, Mrs. Ralph Thompson, on South Commercial street.

Josephine Rodgers Complimented Saturday

Another youthful local musician who is leaving Salem soon for New York City to take advanced work in piano study, is Miss Josephine Rodgers, daughter of Dr. Emma Rodgers, 2245 North Church street. Miss Rodgers will leave Monday evening for New York where she will attend the Cortland University of Music, specializing in advanced methods of piano interpretation. Miss Rodgers will accompany her aunt, Miss Harriette Rodgers, who has been spending the summer in Salem at the Rodgers' home.

Honoring Miss Josephine Rodgers, Miss Esther Black entertained Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Black on North Sumner street, with a surprise farewell party. The evening was spent informally at cards after which the hostess served a late supper. Those in the group included, the honor guest, Miss Josephine Rodgers, Miss Harriette Rodgers, Wilma Doady, Betty Fouke, Halie Chamberlain, Gatha Brossler, Thelma Hewitt, Eleanor Barth, Mary Lois Driggs, Myron Fouke, Stanley Wilkerson, Harold Leeper, Paul Carpenter, Paul Tennant, Donald Collis, Ezra Rodgers, Donald Couris, Victor Barth, Gerald Minton, and the hostess, Miss Esther Black.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prantl and family of Gervais, Mate Hermilo and children, Margaret and Tom, and Andy Hilger of Woodburn, motored to Portland recently where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. August Nerrick, Lynn Sorenson and Ardoth and Arlene Graham of Portland for a trip around Mt. Hood Loop. The party returned to their respective homes after a most enjoyable trip around the mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Young who make their home at 2155 Center street, were happily surprised Tuesday evening when their son, Elmer, came home for a few weeks' vacation. Mr. Elmer Young has been an instructor in the University of Minneapolis for the past nine years.

Mrs. Richard Newman (Jean Shipp) left Saturday evening for Hastings, Neb., where she and Mr. Newman will make their home. Mr. Newman is well known in athletic circles, having been affiliated with Oregon State college in that capacity for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Howe and young son Tommy, will leave late Sunday evening for their home in Hood River, after having spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Howe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wood.

Additional Society on Page 9

POPULAR PORTLAND VISITOR

Miss Barbara Whipp of Portland, house guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Dean Adams.—Kennell-Ellis.

Pauline Young Bride of L. White

An attractive home wedding took place Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Langren, when Mrs. Langren's sister, Miss Pauline Young, became the bride of Laverne White. The ceremony, simple though impressive, was read by Rev. H. C. Stover of Knight Memorial church in the presence of immediate relatives and intimate friends of the couple. Early fall flowers were combined and used in profusion about the rooms of the Langren home.

The bride was charming in a modish gown of brown satin with harmonizing hat and accessories and corsage of roses. Both she and Mr. White were unattended. Following a very informal reception, Mr. and Mrs. White left for Portland where they will spend the weekend. They have postponed their wedding trip until a later date when a two weeks tour of the Oregon beaches will be enjoyed. They will make their home at 340 North Liberty street.

Mrs. Young is the daughter of Mrs. A. D. Smith and Mr. White, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George White. They both attended Salem high school. Mr. White has been employed for several years at Hunt Brothers.

District Meeting Of Missionary Society

The Salem district meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church was held in the parlors of the First Methodist church of Salem August 27 from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m.

Three of the local churches, Jason Lee, Leslie and First church, acted as hosts to the visiting group of women.

Mrs. Orest Stratton of First Church, who is district president, presided throughout the day. Mrs. R. L. Reed of Portland, who is state president; Mrs. E. J. Maple of Forest Grove, conference corresponding secretary; Miss Mabel L. Keech, superintendent of the Helen Manley center of Portland; Mrs. D. G. Wilson of Portland, president of the society of the Rose City Park church, and Mrs. H. Peterson of Portland, corresponding secretary, were among the visiting members present.

Devotionals at the opening of both the morning and afternoon sessions were led by Mrs. Catherine Smylie and Mrs. B. Earle Parker. Interspersed with the reports of Mrs. A. F. Mack, P. J. Voth, Mason Bishop and E. C. Miller were musical numbers furnished by Miss Marjorie O'Dell and Mrs. Gilbert Wrenn, accomplished vocalists, and by Miss Eugenia Savage and Miss Mabel Keech, with instrumental music of a high order. The program was closed by a round-table discussion led by Mrs. E. J. Maple and Mrs. H. Peterson.

Luncheon was served to 135 ladies and the banquet room was decked in fall blossoms with zinnias predominating.

The address of the president and that of Miss Mabel Keech on "Our Plans at the Helen Manley Community Center" were the outstanding numbers on the day's program.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tightner left Friday by motor for Seattle, Washington, where they will visit friends for a short time.

Martha Dixon Bride of H. Adams

A pretty wedding at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Long took place recently when Miss Martha Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dixon of Portland, became the bride of William Hugh Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Adams of Salem. Rev. Long officiated at the ceremony and Mendocino's "Wedding March" was played by Miss Lita Watara.

The bride was attractive in a smart, tailored suit of imported tweed with stone martin neck piece and accessories to match. She was attended by Mrs. Carolyn Carroll. The groom was attended by his brother, Dwight Adams. Large baskets of flowers in pastel tints and a bouquet of white Japanese wind flowers on the mantel formed an attractive background for the bridal group. Following the ceremony a reception was held at which refreshments were served by Helen Dixon, sister of the bride, Miss Esther Long and Miss Bernice Blevins.

The guests, who were the immediate families and a few close friends of the bride and groom, were Mr. J. T. Dixon, Helen Dixon, Wilbur Dixon, Ralston Dixon, Mrs. L. W. Fantall, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Adams, Dwight Adams, Howard Adams, Dr. and Mrs. John Henry Wells, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Bailey, Miss Bernice Blevins, Mrs. Carolyn Carroll, Miss Lita Watara, Mr. Martin Redding, Mr. Charles Hageman, Mrs. Estelle Long and Mrs. S. E. Long.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Adams left for a wedding trip. After September 10 they will be at home at the Haseldorf Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Callison will motor to Portland Sunday to spend the day with friends at Jantzen Beach. They will be accompanied home by their daughter, Lora, who is spending the weekend with friends.

FERENZ STEINER cellist
Honor graduate, Royal Academy of Music, Budapest

ELIZABETH LEVY STEINER Mus.B. violinist
Teacher of prize winning soloists

STEINER STUDIOS
Ensemble, Chamber Music, Coaching
PRIVATE AND CLASS INSTRUCTION
BEGINNERS ADVANCED PROFESSIONAL

Salem Studio, 254 N. Church St. Phone 6040

Hurry Mothers! Not Many More Days in the Free Photographic Contest Free Photographic Contest

These are the facts: THE KENNEL-ELLIS Studios and THE STATESMAN are cooperatively staging this contest to determine the most attractive children in this section of the valley. You'll want to enter your child. Photographs only by appointment. There is no charge for a sitting.

Three Beautiful Prizes Given to Winners of Each Entry

- ENTRY A
Babies over 5 Months and Under 12 Months.
- ENTRY B
Girls From 1 to 5 Years.
- ENTRY C
Boys From 1 to 5 Years.
- Entry D
Twins Under 5 Years.

PRIZES TO BE AWARDED BY:

- Miller's Department Store
  - Buster Brown Shoe Co.
  - Imperial Furniture Co.
  - Producers Milk Co.
  - Atlas Book Store
  - The Spa
  - Central Pharmacy
  - C. J. Breier Co.
- Kennell-Ellis Studio

A DISPLAY OF ALL PRINTS TO BE EXHIBITED AT THE OREGON STATE FAIR SEPTEMBER 26 TO OCTOBER 4

KENNEL-ELLIS STUDIOS
429 Oregon Building, State and High Streets Phone 7830

Prize Recipe

A series of winning recipes submitted in a contest sponsored by the

CHERRY CITY BAKING CO.

Clip and paste them in your recipe book

"Quick Cinnamon Rolls"

- Mrs. R. A. Meyer Salem
- 1 loaf (day old) Snowflake Bread
  - 2 tablespoons melted butter
  - 1/2 cup sugar.
  - 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- Slice outside crusts from the bread and cut 3 or 4 lengthwise slices. On each spread melted butter, sprinkle on cinnamon and sugar mixed. Roll up tightly the long way. Cut in two-inch rolls, dip ends in melted butter. Place in moderate oven for 20 minutes.

READY TO SERVE