

LABOR'S HOSTS TO COME HERE

About 130 Delegates due to Arrive Monday Morn For Convention

(Continued from page 1) principal speaker at this banquet. Secretary Fere To Arrange Plans Officers of the State Federation of Labor are: William Cooper, streetcar workers' union, Portland, president; and Ben T. Osborne, Portland, executive secretary.

Osborne arrived in the city yesterday to supervise final preparations for the convention. He will meet Sunday night with members of the executive board from the eight state districts.

Members of the local convention committee are: Clifford Morahan, member of the journeymen barbers' local, chairman; Frank Marshall; Clarence Townsend, barbers; Roy Glover, cultivator workers, and William Entness, engineers.

The Hotel Senator is designated as the official convention headquarters.

JUDGE RAMSEY IS HONORED, BANQUET

(Continued from page 1) comprises Yamhill and Polk counties, and served until 1927. While he was circuit judge, only one of his cases was reversed by the supreme court.

Despite his advanced age, Judge Ramsey is still active in the practice of law and maintains regular hours at his office each day. He has a remarkable memory and frequently regales his friends with stories of his career and work, covering the 63 years of his practice in Oregon, of which he has spent 57 in Yamhill county. He is often called in to confer with his brother lawyers on the fine points of law on which he is well informed. On each Christmas day he and his family gather at the home where they quietly celebrate his birthday anniversary. This Christmas Judge Ramsey will celebrate his 85th birthday anniversary.

Judge Ramsey has been married twice. His first wife died in 1892. He married Julia L. Snyder in 1896. He has five children, two sons and three daughters. The eldest son is Col. P. A. Ramsey of the United States marines, of Washington, D. C. and the other is the Very Rev. Horace M. Ramsey, M.A.D.D., dean of St. Stephen's pro-Cathedral, Portland.

The eldest daughter, Miss Nellie Ramsey, has been matron of the state hospital here for nearly 30 years, and the youngest, Miss Margaret Ramsey, M.A., is professor of mathematics at Albany college. Another daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Crowe, resides at Dos Palos, Cal.

OPPOSITION VOICED TO CUTS IN WAGES

(Continued from page 1) fees and consideration of the Klamath Falls resolution. Today's morning and afternoon sessions will be given over to discussion of ways to better the status of carpenters of Oregon and to election and installation of officers.

F. H. Allen, Portland carpenters' local No. 1198, is president of the state council. Other officers are: D. Long, Klamath Falls No. 196, vice-president; David Duff, Portland No. 11-266, secretary-treasurer; and district representatives: A. L. Endrissi, Portland; L. Peterson, Astoria; Edward Keener, Corvallis; G. H. Baker, Bend, and Alex Manning, Pendleton.

Osborne Trial Set Wednesday In Local Court

Everett Osborne, 26-year old boy held worker held in justice court on the charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, is to stand trial next Wednesday at 2 p. m. Martin Ferrey, named as counsel by Justice Hayden, will defend Osborne. The lateness was unable yesterday to raise $750 bail and thus is being held in jail.

Building Total Makes Further Gain on Friday

The building permit total for the month was jumped up $1375 yesterday, when three permits were issued. The city building inspector's office. The largest job allowed was for repairing the warehouse of the Oregon Electric railway located at Front and Center streets. The cost was estimated at $10,000. C. M. Roberts was granted permission to make alterations on a dwelling at 815 Shipping street, costing $250. Mrs. Belle DuRette will have a dwelling located at 2611 South Church street reworked at a cost of $75.

LINDBERGH'S ARRIVE IN JAPAN

The above photo was taken upon the arrival of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and his wife in Japan. Colonel Lindbergh is shown in the above photo with the Japanese premier.

MOORE WILL TRIAL STILL DRAGGING ON

Letters Written Years ago By Deceased Brought Up as Evidence

(Continued from page 1) lawyers whom he characterized as "liars and thieves." He indicated that he was extremely money-minded, thinking continuously of safeguarding the property he had accumulated and being penurious to the extent of protesting a 50 cent charge made for a notary's seal.

At the trial Moore's aged brother is an interested onlooker as is the wife of Berry, the insurance salesman who was named by Moore, three months before the latter's death, as one of the heirs. Concerning the case, the Banner-Courier Oregonian and Judge Latourette heard different aspects last fall, says:

"All the court records in the case tried in Oregon City are in Salem. These included letters written by Moore to Mrs. Ennis D. Wait of Salem, in which he stated that she would inherit his fortune. The wills leaving the estate to the Waits and to Jack Berry, dapper young insurance agent of Portland, are included.

PERMANENT CAMP CHEMEKETAN PLAN

With the idea of locating a permanent camp site for the Chemeketans, the local walks committee of the hiker's organization is arranging for a scouting trip over the Columbia day holiday, October 12, into the Mt. Jefferson district. Breitenbush Hot Springs will be used as the base for the exploring. Cora Randle will be leader for the trip.

HURRICANE DEATH TOLL AROUND 400

(Continued from page 1) ing that several hundred were in-blow down, was cleared here before use of the company's radio facilities was turned-over to the colonial government of British Honduras for solicitation of assistance in relief work.

Supply Company Opens Display Rooms Tonight

A new retail business will be formally opened tonight from 8 to 10 o'clock when the Williamette Valley Supply company will open its new display room at 549 Perry street. The company has been in business in Salem for past five years and spent its efforts in the wholesale electric fixture and supply business. This marks his first move toward the retail field. "Bob" Summerfield, owner and manager of the firm, has devised a system by which he can display each light fixture in an individual panel, just as it would be in the home. The entire sales room has been designed so that it can be seen from the street, thus the sales room has eliminated the window displays.

LAD SAWS HIS WAY OUT OF CITY'S JAIL

(Continued from page 1) in the cell. The police described him as follows: weight 142 pounds, height, five feet, eight inches; build medium; complexion, fair; eyes, brown; hair, red; clothes, dark suit.

Five-Year-Olds Are Tested For School Entrance

Tests to determine the ability of kiddies slightly under six years of age to do school work this fall are being conducted by Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county school superintendent, when parents request them. When the youngsters are found capable of doing the work, Mrs. Fulkerson is admitting the students to first grades in rural schools in the county. The children however must reach their sixth birthday by February 1, 1932, also Mrs. Fulkerson will not permit the test to be interpreted, the state law does not permit youngsters to start to school until six years of age. Mrs. Fulkerson announced yesterday that parents should make appointments at her office for a near panic.

Policeman Kills One Bandit But Other Slays Him

RENO, Nev., Sept. 11—(AP)—Rosa Peterson, 60-year-old policeman, shot and killed George Welch during an attempted robbery of the Reno high school late last night and was himself slain by a second robber who escaped wounded. Peterson had been stationed in the high school in anticipation of a burglary.

AFTER PEERING THROUGH ACRES OF FOG BANKS

A general view of the crowd which lined the shores of Nemuro bay, Japan, to welcome the Lindberghs upon their arrival. Their low winged monoplane may be seen in the foreground of the picture. They are just embarking in the official launch.

LARGE CROWD OUT TO AIRPORT EVENT

(Continued from page 1) All told when the drum corps goes east, as it now seems assured it will, it will go with the cooperative support of Salem.

Smith Revives Laffar Action; Files New Suit

George Smith renewed his suit against G. W. Laffar, both of Salem, here yesterday when he filed a new action in circuit court asking damages of $7323 from Laffar. The litigation grows out of an accident on the south Pacific highway November 27, 1929.

The Call Board

By OLIVE M. DOAK

Democrats Will Be Invited For Mrs. Ross Talk

August Huckestein, central committeeman of the democratic party in Oregon, and William Dezell, erstwhile and prospective candidate for the democratic nomination for congress, were busy yesterday afternoon checking registration rolls of democrats in the county, preparatory to sending invitations to the rally to be held here September 23 when Mrs. Nellie Ross, former governor of Wyoming, comes to Salem.

Intrepid Hunter Aged Nine is on Trip to States

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Sept. 11 (AP)—Moose and the feared Alaskan brown bear hold no terror for the mighty hunter, nine-year-old Harry H. Webb, son of James Watson Webb, nationally known American polo player.

Ex-Ball Player Takes Own Life

VALDOSTA, Ga., Sept. 11. —(AP)—C. V. Sitton, of Brunswick, Ga., former major league baseball pitcher, was found shot through the heart near here today. A coroner's jury said it was suicide.

Meion Watcher Loses Gun But Thieves Caught

A Polk county farmer living near West Salem, lay in wait last night with a shotgun watching for watermelon thieves who have been active in his patch recently and as a result he was pined upon by a group of five fellows who took his gun away. Later the young men were cornered by J. F. Simpson, West Salem constable.

MELOON WATCHER Loses Gun But Thieves Caught

Two of the men who were over 21 were lodged in the Dallas jail and the other three, residents of Salem, were cited to appear in court at Dallas today, and allowed to go home after the officers had consulted with John Carson, Marion county district attorney.

HOPES RAISED FOR SAFETY OF FLIERS

SEWARD, Alaska, Sept. 11. —(AP)—Captain H. Hansen of the passenger steamer Alaska, here from Seattle, said today he heard the motor of an eastward bound plane over his ship at 11 p. m. Tuesday about 30 miles offshore near Lituya bay, southeastern Alaska.

The plane in which Don Mayle and Cecil Allen were attempting non-stop flight from Seward, Alaska, to Seattle would have been in that region at that time. The captain's statement was confirmed by others on the ship. It was dark and misty and the sea was fairly calm when they said they heard the hum of a plane overhead. It was considered improbable any Alaskan commercial plane or other plane was in the vicinity at that time.

MELOON WATCHER Loses Gun But Thieves Caught

Two of the men who were over 21 were lodged in the Dallas jail and the other three, residents of Salem, were cited to appear in court at Dallas today, and allowed to go home after the officers had consulted with John Carson, Marion county district attorney.

MELOON WATCHER Loses Gun But Thieves Caught

Two of the men who were over 21 were lodged in the Dallas jail and the other three, residents of Salem, were cited to appear in court at Dallas today, and allowed to go home after the officers had consulted with John Carson, Marion county district attorney.

Help, Mothers' PLEASE.....

In these closing days of the free photograph contest which this studio has conducted, we need your help in returning proofs of the boys and girls to the studio.

We've been very well pleased with your cooperation . . . and the children, they're lovely—but to get the pictures all finished and in the judge's hands by State Fair time—well, it's a big job and we need help.

So—please—at once—bring—or send—PROOFS BACK TO OUR STUDIO. And thanks, of course.

KENNEL-ELLIS STUDIOS

429 Oregon Building Phone 7830

Your Money

which you have worked hard for, and saved for old age—Is it safe?
A Living Trust will provide safe investment and transfer the burden of responsibility to us, yet is revocable at your pleasure.

Ladd & Bush Trust Company
WE DO TRUST WORK EXCLUSIVELY

WARNER BROS. Elsinore

LAST TIMES TODAY

Richard Arlen, Peggy Shannon, "The Secret Call"

---

Starts Tomorrow "Tom Sawyer loves Becky!"

C O N T I N U O U S

2-11 P.M.

Huckleberry Finn

Jackie COOGAN Junior DURKIN
Mitzi GREEN Jackie SEARLE
Eugene PALLETT featured by

Grand

Ronald COLMAN in "THE DEVIL TO PAY" with LOUISE BRIDGES and LLOYD YOUNG TODAY

Another Charlie Chan Thriller "THE BLACK CAMEL" with WARNER OLAND

HOLLYWOOD THEATRE

Home of 25c Talks A HOME OWNED THEATRE

LAST TIMES TODAY Continuous Performance 2 to 11 P.M.

'FORBIDDEN ADVENTURE'

A Quantum Picture With Louise Fazenda, Edna May Oliver, Mitzi Green and Jackie Searl

COMING SUNDAY

NORMA SHEARER in "Strangers May Kiss"

We wish our friends and patrons a happy and prosperous New Year.

We will be closed for business Saturday and Sunday.

H. Steinbock

Capitol Bargain House
145 Center Street

Special Plate LUNCH

35¢

Soup or Salad Vegetables Meat or Fish Bread and Butter or Rolls Potatoes

STATE CAFETERIA

481 State Street Near High St.