Enrollment Estimated Slightly Lower Than First Week Last Year

SILVERTON, Sept. 11 - SIIverton city schools will open next Monday morning and it is expected that 1,129 boys and girls from the district will take their places in the high school, junior high and Eugene Field grade school.

This number is expected to increase at the close of hoppicking easier in many instances, there and prune harvest. Last year the enrollment was 1,218. Robert weakness Buyers who waited for Goets, superintendent of schools, the usual late Saturday morning the first grade over 68 of last fall. less disappointed.

Classes Begin Fast The Eugene Field school will have a regular session Monday. beginning at 9 o'clock, throughout the regular day. This is made possible as there are no books to purchase, The senior high school will spend the morning completing registration and purchasing new textbooks and in the afternoon will go through a sample day's schedule. The five rural routes, served by school busses, remain the same as last year, William Garver has purchased C. J. Towe's Silver Creek falls bus route, and will be driver. Mr. Towe has purchased the Allen brothers Marqua-Silverton route and will drive for that district. Milton Thostrud will have the Victor Point bus as he did last year, and W. H. Binegar the Cen-

And Other Prices Hold up Well

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12 -AP) - There was more snap to trading on the East Side Farmers market Saturday, morning than there has been at any week-end session for a long time. There was a moderate amount of produce offered and buyers seemed in the mood to take on supplies. Although prices were a shade was nothing indicating a general weakness. Buyers who waited for the usual late Saturday morning semi-panic selling were more of less disappointed.

Peaches, for example, were fully steady with J. H. Hales selling for 80 and 85 cents, depending upon size. Elbertas were steady at 55 cents. estimates that 75 will enroll in semi-panic selling were more of steady at 55 cents. There was a fairly large supply of Cauliflower. Most of this was held for a dollar although some lb.

off-grade stuff moved lower. One truck load was in from Seattle. There was a fair call for corn at 50 cents. Egg plants moved at a fair pace at 50-60 cents. Green peppers were 25 cents a lug and prunes brought about the same price for a peach box full. A fair business was done in Oregon onions on the basis of 85 cents for a 50 pound sack. Sickel pears were represented by a few boxes. These moved at around 65 cents and under. Lettuce generally was a dollar. No. 2 grade Burbank potatoes

MONMOUTH, Sept. and Mrs. Ted Graham and son Jack of Dallas, Texas, are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Graham. They drove out. They have also been visiting Mrs. Dart of Rainler, Mrs. Graham's mother.

Ted, who is a well known Monmouth boy, formerly owned and operated a service station in Salem. For some months he has been head salesman for a cob pipe company in a Texas-Okla-homa territory, but plans to re-locate in the Willamette valley. He is temporarily replacing Miss Velma Strain in the office of the cooperative creamery association. Miss Velma Strain has resigned her position as stenograph-er for the Monmouth Cooperative creamery to accept a similar posi-tion in the office of the Steeves-Saurman clinic. She is a gradu-ate of all the local schools includ-ing the Oregon Normal school and is an ex-student of Oregon State college. She formerly taught school at Stayton, where she had charge of the commer-cial department in junior high Mrs. Dina Reed entertained her two sons and their families from Mitchell, Oregon, over Labor day. Miss Judith Severson who was graduated from te Oregon Normal school this summer, has gone to Los Angeles as planist for an evangelistic group that will tour the west for several months.
