Salem Woman's Club Starts Season

The club season of Salem went into action Saturday afternoon with the first meeting of the Salem Woman's club in the clubhouse on North Cottage street. Following this meeting several other clubs, will begin the year's work, one of which will be the Elks club and its session Tuesday will be of general interest to the whole of the county for it will be hostess for the county federation meeting in October and at its meeting Tuesday the date will be set.

The Salem Woman's club was greeted with its new year books Saturday and also with some policies for discussion from the executive board meeting which took place Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse.

The year books are beautiful in appearance and represent such programs as inspired enthusiasm. The color scheme of the book is in two shades of green—dark imitation suede corse and light green leaves; the whole is suggested the green of Oregon's hills and in every place possible there are pictures used to suggest the scenery of Oregon. The whole effect is unique and beautifully effective.

In presenting the books to the club, Mrs. W. E. Feldman, chairman of the program committee, called attention to the "Emerson page" in the book, upon which appears a quotation which suggests the value of individual work in the scheme of organization. In speaking of this Mrs. Feldman said that the spirit of organization was so complete today that the committee felt it worthwhile to place this suggestion of personal worth in the book for reference for each member.

The need of the part that women can play in keeping up a cheerful attitude in both club work and in the home during the days of so-called "depression" was also mentioned by Mrs. Feldman, in presenting the program for the year.

Singing was enjoyed as a part of this first meeting and was led by Mrs. M. D. McCallister.

Consideration was made of the part Salem Woman's club should play in the celebration of the George Washington bicentennial program sent out by the national federation of the women's clubs and reported to the Saturday meeting from the executive board meeting Wednesday. No action was taken in this and the matter will come up for discussion at a later meeting of the club.

Petitions were signed which will be sent to the Oregon representatives in congress and to President Hoover asking every support be given the world peace movement.

Recommendations were endorsed also for Sadie-Orr Dunbar as

D.A.R. Second District Meet Thursday

The second annual meeting of the second district of the Daughters of the American Revolution will take place at Champeog in the Memorial cabin there, Thursday, with Chemeketa chapter of Salem as hostesses. The first meeting of this group was held in McMinnville last year. The meeting date is also the annual observation of "constitution day" by the Daughters and a part of the program will be given over to this celebration.

Mrs. Claude Ellison, Mrs. A. E. Austin, Mrs. Homer Goulet and Mrs. W. F. Fargo will motor to Champeog Monday where they will make the final arrangements for the efficient handling of the program and buffet luncheon for Thursday.

Mrs. Goulet has been in charge of the general arrangements and has been assisted by Mrs. Ellison and her committee for the social arrangements, and by Mrs. Austin and her committee, in charge of grounds and buildings.

One of the important events for the district meeting will be the election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. E. C. Apperson of McMinnville is now president of the district.

There will also be the invitation for the next annual meeting to be given and voted upon. Reports will be given by regents of the five chapters represented, Champeog, Chemeketa, Linn, Winona and Yamhill. These reports will be followed by round-table discussion in order to settle many questions pertinent only to this district and save general discussion of such matters in the state convention which will be held this year in March.

The program for the day will include music which has been worked out by Mrs. Herbert J. Nathan and Mrs. C. C. Clark will lead the group singing of patriotic songs.

Mrs. W. W. McCredie, state regent, will give a short address; Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Chemeketa regent, will read the address of welcome, and Mrs. Ward Wiscarver of McMinnville will give the response.

Greetings will be given from the state D. A. R. librarian and state historian and other matters of business will be brought up. Bert Haney of Portland will give the address of the day.

Lanish Center—Mrs. Harry Bennett entertained at her home from two to five o'clock Thursday honoring the 10th birthday anniversary of her daughter Anabelle, James C. Clark will give the address of welcome, and Mrs. Ward Wiscarver of McMinnville will give the response.

Monmouth—Guests this week at the J. W. Tilton home have been Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Buss of Morris, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Buss of Clark Rapids, Minn., who are on a motor trip through the west. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Buss are parents of Mrs. Tilton, this being their first meeting in seven years. They started west August 31, stopping at various points of interest on the way including Yellowstone Park, and visited relatives at Seattle and at Everett, Wash. They left Saturday for Los Angeles, and will make stops also in Denver and Salt Lake on their way home.

Monmouth—A group of faculty members of the Oregon Normal school gathered at the dormitory Friday evening to honor the birthday anniversary of Miss Maud McPherson, librarian. A delightful evening was enjoyed, with many felicitations extended to the honor guest.

The American Association of University Women will hold the first meeting of the year on Saturday, September 19, with one o'clock luncheon at the Elks club. The program will be announced later.

War Mothers Plan Social Meeting Tuesday

The Salem chapter of the American War Mothers will hold its first social meeting of the fall Tuesday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock in the American Lutheran church. This meeting will be the last one in which the delegates to the national convention of American War Mothers will be present before their departure for Long Beach to attend the meeting which begins September 21.

Those who are expected to attend the convention are Mrs. Mark Skiff, state president of the War Mothers; Mrs. Linnie Lee, local chapter president; and delegates, Mrs. Jennie Vincent, and Mrs. Mae Meyers. The alternates are Mrs. Minnie Humphreys, and Mrs. Mabel Lockwood.

A program has been prepared for Tuesday afternoon and all members of the chapter are urged to be present, and any mother of a soldier in service during the World war is invited to attend the meeting.

The program and social hour is in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. Jennie Vincent, Mrs. Elizabeth Waters, Mrs. Carrie Beecher, Mrs. Mary Sim, Mrs. Edmona Matthews, Mrs. Myrtle Littlefield, Mrs. Jane Evans.

Jefferson—The wedding of Miss Oma Emmons, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Emmons of Jefferson, and William Keith Mackie, son of William Mackie of Tangent, was a brilliant event of September 6. The ceremony was read by Dr. Carl Greig Doney of Willamette University at high noon in the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Harold Woodruff was matron of honor and Miss Lorna Emmons and Miss Twila Stockton were bridesmaids. George J. Mackie, cousin of the groom, acted as best man. The bride wore white chiffon made into a princess style gown. Her flowing veil was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet.

Following a wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Mackie left for a wedding trip after which they will be at home in Tangent.

Prominent Visitors at Jefferson Lodge

Jefferson—Mrs. Emma Plummer Chadwick, most worthy grand matron of the general grand chapter, and her husband, Judge Stephen Chadwick, past worthy grand patron of Washington, paid a visit to Euclid chapter No. 74 D. E. S. of Jefferson Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Chadwick gave an interesting talk, telling of her visits to the various chapters in her jurisdiction in North and South America, the United States and English possessions, Scotland and England. Many of them in remote places, and of the good work being done by the order in the way of education and welfare work. She urged the members to take their obligations seriously, and realize what they stood for in making the world better.

Judge Chadwick also gave an interesting talk, which was followed by short talks by visiting members from the Turner, Stayton, Mill City, Salem, Albany, and members of the local chapter.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was decorated in blue and yellow. Bouquets of summer flowers were elaborately placed about in the chapter room.

Following refreshments, a social time was enjoyed, when Shirley Roland, as toastmaster, called for short speeches from the guests and members.

Turner—Mrs. Ray Hatfield entertained with a children's surprise party, Wednesday afternoon for the pleasure of her young son Edward on his sixth birthday. The time was spent in playing games, and inspecting the birthday gifts. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was decorated in autumn flowers. The hostess was assisted by Lucile Bones in serving. The guest group included Stanford Frasier, Betty Foote, Melvin Baker, Fernal Gledrup, Ruth and Keith Bones, Arthur and Marion Parks, Edwin and Jean Ball, Aleta and Lucille Bones, Robert, Henry and Allene Hatfield; also the honor guest Edward and the hostess Mrs. Hatfield.

Mrs. Joy Turner Moses is expected to return to her home Monday from Seattle where she has been spending some time visiting friends and relatives.

There were about 60 in attendance.

Silverton—Miss Evelyn Solum was hostess at dinner Thursday night in honor of Miss Dorothy Thomson, who left Friday for Oakridge where she will teach during the winter. Covers at the dinner were placed for Miss Thomson, Miss Shirley Sylvester, Miss Eleanor Jane Ballantyne and Miss Solum. The girls are all sorority sisters at the University of Oregon. Miss Sylvester, Miss Ballantyne and Miss Solum will return to the university.

Moore Will Case Trial to Resume In Court Monday

Case of the three nieces of George Moore, deceased, against other alleged heirs of the estate, was held over yesterday in circuit court while Judge Gail S. Hill went to Albany to attend to judicial business there. The case will be resumed here Monday. Judged by the quantity of testimony taken from the first witnesses for the plaintiffs last week, the case will drag on through much of the coming week. Property valued at from $80,000 to $100,000 is involved.

An Italian five-lire coin dated 1898 was dug up recently in a river bank near Orange, Tex.

No. 7
"Honey Snowflake Hot Tuna Fish Luncheon Sandwich"

Mrs. Elizabeth Barham
Salem

- 4 Tablespoons butter
- 4 Tablespoons flour
- 1/2 Teaspoon salt
- 3/4 Teaspoon pepper
- 1 Cup milk
- 1 Egg well beaten
- 1 Cup fresh peas
- 1 Loaf Honey Snowflake Bread
- Butter
- 1 Large can Tuna Fish

Make a sauce of the first five ingredients, adding the well beaten egg and peas last. Slice the bread, remove crust. Spread with butter and place a generous quantity of the flaked tuna fish between each two slices. Cut the sandwiches diagonally, place on a hot plate and cover with the creamed peas which should be very hot. Garnish with parsley and serve at once. This recipe makes 6 generous servings. Time, 15 minutes.
