Carriers Like Convention—Two Salem letter carriers, James Arnold and Frank Baker, who returned Sunday from attending their national convention at Oakland, Calif., last week, said they had a splendid time and that if there was anything the hosts did not do for the delegates' entertainment, it was only because of shortage of time. The carriers were guests for a boat tour of San Francisco bay, for a grand tour of the city, for a flower show at San Leandro, at the beaches and numerous other festivities. There were 3061 official delegates registered. Over 200 resolutions were passed at the convention relative to desired improvements of carriers' working conditions. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. William O'Neil, who also attended the convention, are expected to return Sunday. They have been driving through southern California and the Garretts through Yosemite national park.

Russ Smith, Center and Church, for the bargains.

Howe Case Dismissed—Motion to dismiss the divorce suit of Margaret Howe vs. Ben H. Howe was sustained by Judge Gale S. Hill here yesterday when the defendant showed that he had introduced a divorce action in Astoria, Clatsop county, before the plaintiff introduced her action here. In the suit here Mrs. Howe alleged cruel and inhuman treatment.

Silverton Man Injured—His hand was cut as the result of an auto accident which occurred at the intersection of Liberty and Division streets Monday. V. W. Walford, Silverton, reported to police yesterday. Walford states that he was speeding and claims that the driver of the other machine did not have the right of way.

Mrs. Pierce Here Today—Mrs. Walter M. Pierce of La Grande is expected here today preparatory to the start Thursday of the formal hearing of charges against President J. S. Landers of the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth. She is chairman of the committee of investigation. Mrs. Pierce is well known in Salem as Cornelia Marvin, having served many years as state librarian.

Non-Support Leads to Jail—To answer a charge of non-support, Harley Feller, resident of the north end of the county was taken to Portland yesterday by a constable. On instructions from Portland, he was held in jail here over night. John Tanner was taken to Oregon City yesterday to answer a similar charge.

HOUSE MOTHER AT Y. W. C. A. RESIGNS

Mrs. Vincent Leaving; Task Of Girls' Work Leader Is Also Vacated

Resignations of Mrs. Jennie C. Vincent as house mother and Mrs. J. E. Binkhorn as chairman of the girls' work committee were announced at the first fall meeting of the official board of the Y. W. C. A., held Tuesday morning at the association building. The board expressed regret at both resignations, but particularly that of Mrs. Vincent, who has served as house mother for more than two years. She will remain on until the executive committee finds a suitable successor. Names of two new members were presented by Mrs. W. D.

Five Acres Burned—Five acres of grass were burned over by a fire on the Liberty road near the entrance to Belcrest Memorial park yesterday afternoon. The Salem fire department dispatched a chemical truck to the scene when it was reported that three houses were endangered. The firemen reported that the houses were not menaced and that no serious damage was done. A few walnut trees were singed.

Mothers to Entertain—The mothers of Y. M. C. A. junior board members will prepare a dinner for boys of the Cadet group, nine to 10 years old, at the "Y" on Thursday evening, September 24. It is planned to have the mothers put on these dinners for the other "Y" groups at their fall get-together meetings.

Masons Celebrate—The 65th anniversary of the Masonic lodge at Jefferson was celebrated last Saturday said H. D. Mars, editor of the Jefferson Review, when he was in town this week. One of his tasks in conjunction with the anniversary was to go over the records and to invite to the affair many of the old-time members.

Wallace Entertain Board—Members of the Y. M. C. A. board of directors and their wives will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace at their farm on Wallace road next Sunday afternoon. They will hold a conference to plan for the coming fall and winter activities of the association.

Will Case is on Again Thursday

Case of the three nieces of George J. Moore, deceased, against other alleged heirs of the eccentric old widower will be re-

ing. Preceding Dana's address at night, the W. W. G. will give a pageant and a short concert will be offered by the McMinnville choir.

An outstanding feature of the associational gathering will be the presence of the "covered wagon," a vehicle which is traveling over the country and which is attending all association meetings in Oregon this fall. The "covered wagon" is in observance of the hundredth anniversary of the missionary society of the Baptist church.

Delegates from the Calvary church are W. T. Jenks, Miss Mina Cline, Mrs. K. H. Picketts, Mrs. Ilda Bingenheimer, Mrs. E. G. Ross and Miss Eva Cochran, the latter representing the young people.

Mrs. O. H. Picketts of Salem is director of women's work for the association.

Dairymen Will Gather Monday

The regular monthly meeting of the members of the Dairy Cooperative association will be held next Monday evening in the rooms of the Salem chamber of commerce, according to notice sent out by R. W. Clarke, fieldman for the Marion and Polk county districts. All members of the association in the Salem district are urged to attend as several points of interest to dairymen will be passed on and may have a bearing on the price situation. The meetings are held regularly the third Monday of each month.
