

CARRIER IS BACK
FAIRFIELD, Sept. 14—Mike Mahoney, mail carrier on route one, Gervais, is back on the job after a week's vacation spent at Bayocean.

Tulsa, Okla., recently opened its first public golf course with grass putting greens.
 Ten inter-sectional games mark the 1931 football schedule of the Pacific coast conference.

CREDIT MEN TO CONVENE HERE

Annual Gathering of State Association Will be in Salem Next Autumn
 The annual convention of Oregon credit bureau managers will be held in Salem next fall, Roy H. Wassam, manager of the Salem bureau, reported yesterday to the Salem Retail Credit association, in regular luncheon meeting at the Gray Belle. Mr. Wassam and four other members of the local association attended the state bureau managers' meeting in Portland Monday. Wassam was elected president of the group.

 Possibility that the meeting here may be expanded to include managers of the entire northwest was told by Wassam, who reported a move on foot to that end.
 L. F. Schoettler also gave a brief report on the Portland meeting, telling especially of the advantages of the Salem rating system as compared to the one he found in operation at a luncheon of the Portland Credit association.
 He also deplored findings that Oregon tops the nation in business bankruptcies and rates about third in number per 100,000 population of wage earners who take bankruptcy.

Eakin Sees Prunes Off to Convention of Legion Members

DALLAS, Sept. 14 — Jack B. Eakin made a trip to Portland Saturday, taking down eight packing cases containing prunes to be sent to Detroit for the national American Legion convention. Prunes were furnished by the Dallas chamber of commerce and 3500 small bags were filled with the fruit. Cuts for a page in the special legionnaire edition of a magazine were furnished by the chamber of commerce. This magazine is a pictorial story of the various sections of Oregon.
 Mr. Eakin has been appointed as the state chairman of membership by Alex Barry, state commander. Last year Mr. Eakin served as district commander.

By the Clock--- News When It's Fresh:
 News is one of those commodities like a hot waffle. A few hours greatly effects its quality. That's the reason morning papers the country over, are sought by rural readers. Their press dispatches are the latest; their valley and city coverage encompass those late afternoon hours and the night period which cannot be covered in earlier editions. Here in the Salem territory, The Statesman is building consistently in the morning field because it is today's paper today!

TO DISPLAY BOOKS PRINTED IN OREGON

Not only Oregon writers, but books published in Oregon and written by Oregon writers, will be shown at the Oregon-state fair. A display is being arranged under the direction of Miss Harriett Long, state librarian, who has invited Oregon publishers to participate.

The Statesman Publishing company will display two books recently published in its plant, "The Enchanted Lake," by Stanton C. Lapham; and the fourth edition of Professor J. B. Hornor's text on "Oregon History."

The display of Oregon-made books will adjoin the display of photographs of living Oregon writers who have published one or more books. Miss Long left for the east a week ago but placed the direction of the exhibit in the hands of Miss Mirpah Blair, assistant state librarian.

Library Has New French Volumes

Fifty-seven new books written in French were received yesterday for the senior high school library by Miss A. H. Kirschner, librarian, as the gift of students of last year's French department. The money for purchasing these books was earned by the students from candy sales which they held in the high school.
