Bridge Luncheon Is Pretty Affair

A smart affair of Wednesday was the bridge luncheon for which Mrs. William Mott and Mrs. E. P. Thoms were hostesses at the Mott home in compliment to Mrs. Karl Becke.

The one o'clock luncheon table was centered with a brilliant arrangement of fall flowers. Mrs. Walter Kirk and Mrs. W. F. Poorman assisted the hostesses in receiving and serving.

The hours following the luncheon were spent playing bridge. Winning scores were held by Mrs. Walter Kirk and Mrs. W. F. Poorman.

Present in compliment to Mrs. Becke were Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Wayne Loder, Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. William Gosser, Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. W. F. Poorman, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. W. Grimm, Mrs. H. G. Malson, Mrs. Ronald Jones and little Miss Meriam Becke.

SURPRISE

Surprising her family and society, Mrs. Marie McCormick (above), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCormick and granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller, announced that she would marry Eliza D. Hubbard (lower), of Middletown, Conn. The announcement was made only the day before the wedding at Bar Harbor, Me.

Delphian Chapter Plans First Meet Monday

The Sigma Nu chapter of the Delphian society will hold its first meeting of the fall season at two o'clock Monday afternoon in the auditorium of the public library.

The subject of the study will be "Italian Art to the End of the Great Periods of Painting." Lessons will be given by Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. F. A. Erickson, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, and Mrs. Ronald Jones.

Current events will be discussed by Mrs. C. L. Newman, Mrs. Floyd White, and Mrs. C. H. Glenn.

The study of art is expected to be exceptionally interesting this fall because of the fact that the new supervisor, Miss Loretta Ford, has just returned from several months of travel in Europe where she made a personal study of many of the most famous galleries.

The president, Mrs. W. A. Merritt, will announce several new features of interest to members.

Federated Women Install Officers

Woodburn—About 35 members of the Federated Women of Woodburn Methodist Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. D. H. Hawley Thursday afternoon. Installation of the federation officers for the coming year was the main feature. Mrs. A. E. Austin was installed as president.

There are three vice-presidents for the federation, each vice-president being president of one of the separate organizations of the federation. They were Mrs. C. J. Rice, president of the Ladies Aid; Mrs. E. N. Hill, president of the Foreign Missionary society; and Mrs. J. H. Livesay, president of the Home Missionary society. Other officers are Mrs. Ivan C. Beers, treasurer and Mrs. Paul Pemberton, secretary.

Mrs. A. E. Austin had charge of the devotional services.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Fred S. Burya, Mrs. Oscar Allen, Mrs. Myrtle Cole, and Mrs. C. J. Rice.

The next meeting of the federation will be held at the home of Mrs. Ida Parr on the third Tuesday in October.

Star Reception Brilliant Affair

A brilliant event was the reception with which Chadwick chapter, order of the Eastern Star complimented Mrs. Paul Hauser, grand conductress, Tuesday evening in the Masonic lodge rooms.

Guests included grand chapter members and both worthy and associate matrons and patrons from Sheridan, Newberg, McMinnville, Astoria, Woodburn, Falls City, and Jefferson lodges. Mrs. Stella Henry, worthy associate matron, introduced to the line which included Mrs. Hauser, grand conductress of the Oregon chapter; V. E. Kuhn, her worthy patron during Mrs. Hauser's year as matron of Chadwick chapter; Mrs. Albert C. Smith, worthy matron; J. O. Russell, worthy patron; Miss Mary Chadwick, for whose father Chadwick chapter was named; Mrs. Maudie W. White of Portland, worthy grand matron of the Oregon grand chapter; Mrs. Theresa Castner of Portland, past worthy grand matron; C. A. Howard, formerly of Coos Bay, and Gilbert Charters of Portland, past grand patrons; Frank S. Baldwin of Newberg, grand associate patron; Mrs. Elene Lofgren of Portland, grand organizer; Mrs. Ida Willis of Portland, Grand Electa and Duncan Cameron of Cottage Grove, grand sentinel.

The program included brief talks by distinguished guests and the presentation of a floral arrangement upon Mrs. Hauser by officers who served with her when she was worthy matron of Chadwick chapter several years ago.

Beautiful decorative effects were achieved in the lodge rooms and reception room by the use of masses of brilliant fall flowers. Presiding at the coffee urns and those cutting ices were Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Ida Niles, and Mrs. M. Johnson.

Music played by Mrs. J. O. Russell and Mrs. Joy Turner Moses added charm to the reception hours.

Mrs. Pearl Pratt was in charge of the plans for the reception and she was assisted by Mabel McDonald, Grace Hussey, Jennie Breithaupt, Mildred Brooks, Clarabelle Hauser, Leah Clifton, Nell Coppock, Golda Frontross, Catherine Hewlett, Estella Lane, Gladys Mesch, Marjorie Merriott, Edna Ramp, Sarah Lloyd, Ida Olson, Alice Palmer, Caroline Nered and Agnes Bjornson.

Miss Young Honored On Birthday

Mrs. F. J. Gilbraith entertained in compliment to the 11th birthday of her daughter Janet Fryer Wednesday afternoon with an afternoon tea at the Gilbraith home on E street, and this followed with a line party.

The tea table was delightfully arranged with baskets of flowers in shades of yellow and green, and nine green tapers. Favors carried out the same color scheme.

Guests in compliment to Miss Janet were Mary Louise Ritter, Jean Probert, Betty Anunson, Barbara Saunders, Jess Saunders, Ruth Renner, Mary Ross, Gladys Ross, Dorothy McCully, and Eileen Aranson.
