

Local News Briefs

Rein not Cause—Of the nine auto accidents reported to police over the weekend, only two occurred on wet pavement. No injuries to persons and serious damage to cars were reported. The drivers involved were as follows: A. Ver Bert Moe, and M. Johnson, on State near Front street; Roy Brothers, Linton, and B. W. Walcher, 1570 South Commercial street, at Center and Liberty; J. F. Malone, Antelope, Ore., and Deryl Myers, on State street; E. A. Bennet, 2233 Fairground road, and C. J. Lewis, Stayton, at end of Center street; Lewis C. Prober, Stayton, Morton Redding, Corvallis, and unidentified milk truck, on Center street between 12th and 13th; D. W. Conway, 295 North Front street, and Theodore Muller, Independence route 1, at Front and Center; Darwin Calfee, 545 Court street, and Ross Freeman, on Commercial; and Floyd Douglas, route 3, and unnamed driver.

Trespass notices that will stand the weather, 15c, 2 for 25c. Statesman office.

Traffic Violators Arrested—A. W. Dumler, 610 Chemeketa street, Henry, on Center street, South 13th street, and Virgil C. Riding, Alessandro, Calif., were arrested over the weekend on charges of violating traffic regulations. Dumler is cited to answer in municipal court today in charge of speeding. Riding, charged with operating his machine after his permit had expired, left his machine with the police in lieu of $25 bail. Riding is alleged to have failed to stop and to have been speeding.

Millie in Accident—Henry J. Millie, local attorney, filed notice with Sheriff Oscar Bower yesterday concerning an auto accident in which he was a participant. Millie reported that he was driving north on the Pacific highway Saturday afternoon near Sunnyside when Ted R. Jones, New Salem hotel, attempted to drive his 1928 Buick into the rear of Millie's car. Jones adroitly swerved the Buick and the front wheel and left fender of the machine were torn off. Neither driver was injured.

Huddleston Estate Settled—U. G. Holt as executor of the estate of Eleanor Huddleston, deceased, was authorized yesterday to distribute $734 among the heirs. Huddleston is reported to receive a bequest of $200. Ten other heirs will receive sums ranging from $19.08 to $76.33 each.

Sophomores Organize—Sophomores at the senior high school met on Monday during the home room period to organize their class. They will meet again next week to elect officers and class representatives on the student council. A general assembly for the whole school is scheduled for Thursday.

The prevailing depression brings home to many the necessity to do something exceedingly well. It matters not whether a college graduate, a school teacher, a graduate of high school, or even the Capital Business College can help you. Call, let us prove it.

Eena Company Bidders—The Eena company, plaintiff against W. P. George and Laura A. George, was the high bidder at sheriff's sale of real and personal property belonging to the Georges. Personal property brought $2600 and real property $12,000, leaving a deficiency of $14,302 on a judgment of $23,902 awarded in circuit court.

Shauble has $3705—The estate of Frank Shauble, adjudged an incompetent person, has an appraised value of $3748. It was reported yesterday in probate court. Appraisers were Roy Burton, Joseph Wirth and J. P. Zielinski. Of the estate, $2456 is cash.

Missionary to Speak—Rev. Joseph Resnick, missionary from India, will speak Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the Full Gospel church, 17th and Chemeketa, announces the pastor, Rev. Thomas Baird. The missionary will be dressed in full Indian costume and will speak on his experiences in that land.

"Y" Tournaments Planned—R. B. Boardman, Y. M. C. A. physical director, was in Portland over the weekend to meet with district "Y" representatives from over the northwest to arrange schedules for volleyball, basketball, boxing, wrestling, swimming, handball and golf tournaments. The games committee, of which he is a member, will meet in Salem to complete the plans, sometime before October 15.

Dairy Safe Tampered With—Would-be safe crackers attempted to break into the safe in the office of Carley's dairy, 645 Hood street, early Sunday morning. They succeeded only in sawing off the combination. Entrance was gained by forcing the office door open with an ax. Elmer Kline, dairy driver, arrived at the plant about 4 a. m. and half an hour later discovered a hack saw and drill left by the men who had fled.

Entertain Teachers—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pope will open their home Thursday night for a party for teachers at McKinley school. The party, sponsored by the McKinley Parent-Teacher association, will be in the nature of an informal reception. Mrs. J. H. Scott is president of the McKinley association and Mrs. Curtis Johnson, chairman of the committee in charge of the party.

Health Certificate Received—The county health department Monday received an engraved certificate from the national chamber of commerce signifying that Salem received first honorable mention in its class in the inter-chamber health conservation contest for 1930. The certificate will be framed and put on display at the health center, 434 North High street.

Receiving station for Peary's walrus drier will be open at 545 Chemeketa st. Monday, Sept. 28. Sacks and tags furnished. First class drying on cash or share basis. Don't let your crop spoil for lack of good drying.

Dr. Douglas is Judge—Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, county health officer, will judge 4-H club boys and girls at the state fair on Wednesday as to which is the best physically. The most physically perfect and healthy boy and girl will compete with other youths chosen at fairs in other states.

Obituary

Engdahl
At the residence 2595 E. Nob Hill, Sept. 28, Emma Christina Engdahl age 65 years. Survived by three sons: A. J. Engdahl of Los Angeles; E. J. of Portland; and Otto M. of Salem. One daughter Mrs. W. C. Casserdy. Funeral announcements later by Rigdon and Son.

Potter
At the residence, route 3, Sept. 28, J. W. Potter age 73 years. Survived by grandchildren, Carl A. Fisher and Mrs. J. H. Plank. Funeral announcements by Rigdon and Son.

Boehringer
At the residence, 2210 North Fourth street, Sept. 27, John Conrad Boehringer, 83. Survived by widow, Louise; two sisters, Mrs. John Nelling of Waterloo, Iowa, and Mrs. G. Lang of Laporte City, Iowa; three daughters Anna M. of Salem, Mrs. E. Riensche and Mrs. Dorothy Mitchell of Eugene; two sons, Carl J. of Eugene and Frank J. A. of Salem; two nephews, Will and Edwin Wint of Portland; and nine grandchildren. Funeral services Tuesday, Sept. 29 at 2 p. m. from the Clough-Barrick chapel. Rev. Amos Minneman of the Christ Lutheran church officiating. Interment Cityview cemetery.

Clough-Barrick Co. MORTUARY
A. M. Clough
Dr. L. E. Barrick
V. T. Golden
Phone 5151
Church at Ferry St.

Belcrest Memorial Park
Moderately Priced
A Park Cemetery With Perpetual Care
Just ten minutes from the heart of town

CITY VIEW CEMETERY
Established 1893 Tel. 8652
Conveniently Accessible
Perpetual care provided for
Prices Reasonable

TERWILLIGER'S
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
770 Chemeketa Tel. 4928
Our Service is Personal
Our Prices are Reasonable
Our Home is Modern
Licensed Lady Embalmer

Dr. Chan Lam
Chinese Medicine
180 N. Commercial
St. Sal. 313
Office hours
Tuesday and Saturday
2 to 5:30

Mills Quarantine Lifted—After a week's quarantine on account of a case of infantile paralysis suffered by one of the pupils, Nobis school in the district above Scott Mills is now open. Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, county health officer, visited the patient, a 17-year old boy, on Monday and found the disease of a very light type. He did not discover the source of the disease and found no one else in that neighborhood who had any symptoms of it. The teachers of the school stayed with the family of the boy who was ill.

Woman Injured—When she was thrown from the automobile in which she was riding with her husband on Saturday night at 17th and D streets, Mrs. R. G. Miller, 492 Union street, was severely bruised. The Miller machine was struck by another driven by Virgil McGahan, 1205 North 17th street. The impact opened a door on the Miller car and Mrs. Miller plunged through it to the pavement.

Russ Smith, Center and Church, for fire bargains.

House Entered—Two purses, one of them containing four dollars, the other nothing, were stolen from the home of Mrs. Hattie Page, 246 North 17th street, she reported to the police Sunday morning. She said a young man was standing in front of the house and continued to stand there as long as she was in sight. The thief entered the place by use of a pass key on the front door.

Trespass notices, 15c, 2 for 25c. Printed on canvas. Statesman office.

To Greet Kiwanis—President James Nicholson of the Salem Kiwanis club is to appoint a committee today to welcome the Gresham and Portland Kiwanis clubs to Salem. Both organizations are sending a number of representatives to the fair here Friday. The Rosarians of Portland are coming down in a body, arriving with a caravan at 11 a. m.

University Clubs—Meetings of the following Willamette university clubs and societies are scheduled for this week: Science club, Monday night; Frolic club, Tuesday at 4:30 in Music hall; Men's Glee club, Monday afternoon; Classical club, Tuesday after chapel; Women's Athletic association, Tuesday after chapel.

Trespass notices, 15c, 2 for 25c. Printed on canvas. Statesman office.

Homecoming Play—Announcement was made Monday by Miss Helen Stiles that the Willamette university homecoming play for this year will be "Skidding." A play in the University library for inspection by tryout prospects before the tryouts which will be held soon.

Women's Classes Postponed—Because tomorrow is Salem day at the state fair, the regular classes for women at the Y. M. C. A. will not be held. It was announced yesterday.

Ask Mortgage Foreclosure—H. P. Jensen asks foreclosure of a mortgage of $1090 against H. W. McNeal and Lucretia E. McNeal, in an action filed in circuit court yesterday. Taxes of $340 and interest in addition to the principal is sought in the suit.

Auto Bumps man—An unidentified man who ran out from behind a car on North Commercial street was struck by a machine driven by L. W. Slocom, 1485 Oak street, the latter reported to the police yesterday. The man apparently was uninjured.

Wicker Broke Ankle—N. F. Wicker is confined to his home, 1805 South Church street, with a broken ankle. The fracture occurred in Astoria last week. Mr. Wicker travels for the Morton Salt company in this territory.

Willson Estate Closed—The estate of Leon Willson, deceased, was ordered closed yesterday in probate court. James G. Helzel was administrator. Frank J. Willson, father of the deceased man, was the sole heir. He resides in Clinton, Wisconsin.

Health Posters Displayed—Billboard posters bought by the Marion county public health association and advocating the immunization of children against diphtheria have been received and placed about the county, six in rural districts and four in Salem.

Vazakas to Speak—Situations observed in Mexico by Professor Alex A. Vazakas will be discussed by him at the Kiwanis club luncheon this noon. Professor Vazakas teaches foreign languages in Willamette university.

To Salt Lake—Robert H. Baldock, maintenance engineer with the state highway department, left the city Sunday night to go to Salt Lake City, Utah, to attend a convention. He is expected to return in a week.

Those big black grapes at Fiala vineyards. Cheaper than ever before. Bring boxes.

Barry Held—Donaly Barry, 16-year old Salem lad, was held in the county jail last night awaiting a hearing at 3 p. m. today in juvenile court on the charge of stealing a bicycle. He was arrested by city officers.

Will Probated—The will of Mary E. Greenwood, deceased, was admitted to probate yesterday in court here. John L. Greenwood is named executor. There are four heirs to real property valued at $7500.

Boys' Books, Subject—Boys of the Chemawa Indian school gathered at the institution's Y. M. C. A. building Sunday night were addressed by R. R. Boardman of the Salem "Y" on the subject of "Books for boys."

Krebs Estate Closed—The estate of John Krebs, deceased, has been closed according to articles filed in probate court here by Lizzie Krebs, administratrix.

4-H STOCK JUDGES OPEN COMPETITION

Yamhill Wins in Livestock Division, Wasco Crops, Clackamas Poultry

Competition in three judging events, livestock, crops and poultry, featured Monday for the 4-H clubbers at the state fair, but no teams from Marion county received places. Polk county placed 10th in livestock judging, in which Yamhill was first. Wasco took honors in crops and Clackamas was first in poultry judging. Judging of cattle raised by the 4-H club members got under way in the afternoon, and three classes were run off at once, but no announcement of awards was ready last night, as clerks' records must be checked with those of the state club leader.

Members of the Yamhill livestock judging team were Ohlin Starr, Chris Starr and Jacob Tompkins; they made a score of 2550 points. Klamath took second, Jackson county third, Multnomah fourth and Gilliam fifth. George McCracken of Jackson county was individual high scorer, with 830 points.

Harold John, Harold Boehi and Richard Bailey took the poultry judging honors for Clackamas county. Portland placed second, and Linn county third. Harold Boehi was high scorer, with 325 points.

Theodore and Ernest Kirsch and Harry Rutherford of Wasco county won crops judging contest honors; Theodore Kirsch won individual honors, score 767. Clackamas was second and Lane third.

JAMES RIDDELL IS WINNER ON GOATS

James Riddell of Monmouth took champion buck and doe on long-haired goats at the state fair. The score card showed seven firsts on goats for Riddell; four seconds for Guthrie Brothers of Dallas; a second for McCrae Brothers of Monmouth, and two seconds for Riddell and Son, Monmouth.

On Milch goats, pure bred Saenens, champion doe was won by Peter J. Hillesland, Portland. In Toggenburghs and Nubians, purebred milch goats, Lois H. Sherman, Portland, took champion doe.

Dick Kiser, Corvallis, took champion ram in Suffelks and Floyd Fox, Silverton had champion ram in dorsets. E. A. Gambe, British Columbia, took champion ewe, Dorsets.

BOY SUFFERS CUT; STORE BOARDED UP

Cobbs and Mitchell Retail Business at Valsez Shut Indefinitely

VALSEZ, Sept. 28.—Little Lewis Hampton, age eight years, was badly cut over his left eye Friday at school while playing on the rings on the school grounds. His glasses were broken and a large quantity of blood was lost. The janitor, Charlie Berg, took him to his home and gave him first aid.

Mrs. D. A. Grout presented the school with a lovely fern as a farewell gift, as the Grouts are leaving soon.

The store of Cobbs & Mitchell was closed this week indefinitely. All glass doors and windows were boarded up and all merchandise has been sold. The pool hall has also been boarded up for an indefinite time.

The school finished the first three weeks Friday with two new pupils, Lewis and Jase Hampton, making 23 in all. Beginning Monday a new teacher will have the four grades above the fourth, Mrs. March keeping the lower grades.

Two Banks Are Closed, Report To State Chief

Both the Joseph State bank and the Moro State bank failed to open their doors for business Saturday morning, and have been taken over for liquidation by A.

Schaefer's DRUG STORE
185 N. Com'l Dial 5197
The Original Yellow Front Store
Fenster Agency

You Can't Be Happy If Your Feet Hurt
Schaefer's Corn Remover
Does the Trick
You can't have corns aching and keep your mind on your work. A few applications and corn loosens. Directions on each bottle. No cure, no pay — it's the Schaefer way. Price 25c.

A. Schramm, state superintendent of banks. A statement showing the resources and deposits of the Joseph State bank was not available in the state banking department Monday. This bank was capitalized for $25,000, with a surplus of $5000. Edgar Marvin was president of this bank, and Cecil Childers, cashier.

New Arrivals

SCARFS
See lined this year—and the beautiful new shades for fall include black and white combinations.
95c
1.75
1.95

FALL GLOVES
featuring the extra loose cuff in brown, capelin to go with the new browns and reds.
1.95, 2.95

Jewelry takes to "Empress Eugenie" effects in bizarre metals sparkling with semi-precious stones.

HOSIERY
The new full fashioned silk mesh hose by Phoenix has created much excitement in our hosiery department, and sells at 1.65, 1.95

SHIPLEY'S
QUALITY MERCHANDISE — POPULAR PRICES

City Walnut Drying
Bring in your walnuts daily—Small lots handled. Let us wash and dry your home nut crop. Why bother with moldy, rancid home-dried nuts.
We furnish sacks and tags.
PEARCY & LONG
545 Chemeketa St.

-- BISHOP'S STATE STREET --

A NEW STORE WITH ONE GREAT PURPOSE...

To give the men and young men of this community the finest suits and o'coats at the lowest prices in Oregon -- and at these most amazing prices you cannot afford to pass up a new suit or coat for fall --

200 SUITS-COATS 200

Every one the newest . . smart Fall styles . . in every popular color . . fine wearing fabrics . . tweeds - twists - cassimeres - worsteds, and many of Bishop's famous Oregon virgin wool fabrics . . conservative and young men's . . peaked and notch lapels . . and would have sold a few months ago up to $40.00 . . now here they are in our great feature price . .

19.50

IF IT'S A SAVING YOU WANT IT'S HERE

BISHOP'S STATE ST.

456 STATE

Remember We Are Never Undersold. Quality considered

Births

Gilmer—To J. W. Gilmer of 570 North 21st st., a 5 1/2 lb. boy born Sept. 28, at Bungalow Maternity home.

Hutt—To C. H. Hutt of Route 3, an eight and one-half pound boy, born Sept. 27, at the Bungalow Maternity home.

Sparks—To Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Sparks, a seven pound boy, born Friday Sept. 25, at the Bungalow Maternity home.

PILES CURED
Without operation or loss of time
DR. MARSHALL
829 Oregon Bldg. Phone 5409

Salem To Portland 55c
To Eugene 75c
Depot, Bligh Hotel
Independent Stage Co.
Tel. 9121

Hospital Beds to Rent
W. L. Furniture Co.
COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHING
Call 9610, Used Furniture Department
151 North High