Webfoots Have bad Breaks Up to Last Period; Chances Missed

MULTNOMAH STADIUM, Portland, Ore., Oct. 3-(AP)-A fast bunch of University of Oregon sophomores, aided and abetted by a few of last year's veterans, scored a 9 to 0 victory over the University of Idaho football team here today. Idaho slightly outweighed the Webfoots but lacked their speed and stamina. .

Big Joe Lillard, the negro star of the Oregon backfield, was the chap who brought the spectators to their feet in the last period with a thrilling touchdown after he had fumbled a few minutes before just one foot from the Idaho goal line.

In the second period Oregon scored a safety when Spaugy, Vandal center, slipped a bad pass to Berg, who recovered it over his goal line and was promptly and definitely downed by three Oregonians.

With less than ten minutes to play in the last period, Oregon worked the ball from Idaho's 33yard line to the 2-foot line, mainly through the efforts of Lillard. The "midnight express" then took the ball with a terrific lunge, was stopped by Idaho, one foot from himself over, fumbled. Idaho recovered and kicked.

We always like to receive letters especially if they "call" us for something we have said, because we like to be set right on any mistake and dislike to persist in an error. "I should also like to point out that every member of my football squad last year finished the semester in which they participated in athletics and all but one member of my entire squad registered for the following semester when they did not turn out for athletics. With one exception, all of these boys passed eleven or more hours."

We are glad to get that explanation from Mr. Wolfe and thus correct any injustice we may have done, but it may interest him to learn that we really did him a service by making the remark about his team, because it gave him an opportunity to reply not only to our statement but to many others that he couldn't hearbecause there has been much talk in Salem about those transferred players, particularly the four-year men.
