A communication from the Salem Ad. Club, expressing disapproval on the part of that organization of a pending ordinance to license circular and bill distributors in the city, was read. The club feels, it said, that such an ordinance will not be of much avail in curbing the littering of yards and porches with advertising matter. The letter was referred to the ordinance committee.

Alderman O'Hara announced to the council that the ways and means committee would meet Wednesday night at 7:30 p. m. at the city hall to consider the 1932 budget. The meeting of the committee and its advisory committees will be Monday night, October 19. O'Hara asked the aldermen to name last night the advisory member each would choose for the budget meeting but only six aldermen were ready to announce their selections. These councilmen and the men named for the budget committee, were: Walter Evans, Dr. H. H. Olinger, David O'Hara, F. H. Paulus, Hal D. Fanning, C. Buren, W. H. Townsend, E. B. Millard, Henry Vandevort, Sam Elliott; Mayor P. M. Gregory, W. H. Henderson.

The council approved resolutions providing for the construction of 40 new sidewalks in the city. It delayed passage of an ordinance relating to billboards.

members of the craft used it as a stepping stone to other jobs. He said prejudice against married teachers was not justified in instances and declared that the married teacher often provided the most sympathetic understanding of children's problems.

Curtis warned against the use of teacher tenure laws to keep incompetent teachers in positions and to promote failure on the part of teachers to grow professionally.

Quincy Scott, Oregonian cartoonist, drew a large audience to his departmental appearance Monday afternoon when he gave an informal address and illustrated, with rapid sketches in which he secured participation from a number of his listeners.

Departmental leaders at the morning session Monday included: Dr. C. C. Dauer, W. A. Dole, Mrs. D. A. Hoag, R. W. Tavenner, Mrs. Ellen Fisher, Dean Collins, Beryl Holt, Frances Wright, Laura V. Hale, Merritt Davis, V. D. Bain.

FRENCH-GERMAN JOINT DELEGATION MAY COME

The unusual spectacle of German and French statesmen acting in concert for the common good may be witnessed in Washington, D. C., this month, if there is any truth in the rumor now going the rounds in Berlin. Premier Pierre Laval of France, who is visiting Germany with Foreign Minister Aristide Briand, is said to have communicated with Paul Claudel, French Ambassador to the United States, asking him to sound out the United States Government on its willingness to include Chancellor Heinrich Brüning and other German statesmen in the invitation which it sent to Laval to visit Washington this month to confer with President Hoover on international financial problems. This gesture may be another step towards cementing the two—believed irreconcilable—nations in a bond of friendship. Laval and his conferees received a tremendous ovation when they arrived in Berlin. They were the first French statesmen to be received by President Van Hinderburg since the war and the friendly treatment accorded them in the German capital may have been the cause of the reported gesture of amity offered by France. Plans for the rumored joint delegation to the United States are believed to have been discussed at a dinner in honor of the French visitors given by Dr. Julius Curtius, Germany's Foreign Minister.

Discipline, Mrs. D. A. Hoag, Junior High School—"Some Practical Techniques of Directed Study", High school, English—Coaching the High School Play, Margaret Burroughs, Social Science—How We Teachers May Interest Pupils in Modern Problems—Round Table, James D. Miller, leader. Science and Mathematics—Teacher Problems—Discussions led by Dr. A. E. Caswell, Home Economics—The Use of Problems in Teaching Home Economics—(continued), Helen M. Gulse, Foreign Languages—Round Table—Discussion led by Ethel Hickey, Commercial Teachers' Association, Merritt Davis, chairman, Principals' association, V. D. Bain, president, Health Education Conference, Nursing District No. 5, Assembly Room—Rural School Conference, led by Superintendent Fulkerson.
2:40—Recess.
2:50—General assembly—Music—Vocal solo—Do Not Go My Love—Hagenann, Bernice Rickman. Address—Some Criteria of a Good Class. Period—Dr. Francis D. Curtius. Attendance certificates. Adjournment.

will be an all-comedy program with Laurel and Hardy in "Paradise" and several other shorter films of comedy nature.

A dislike of the grocery business brought John Arledge to the screen.

The youthful actor, who plays the part of Warner Baxter's collegiate rival for Janet Gaynor's affections, in "Daddy Long Legs," which opened Sunday at the Grand theatre, was born in Crockett, Texas, and was attending the University of Texas when his father's death recalled him to take charge of the latter's wholesale grocery.

The business did not appeal to young Arledge, however, and being a vanguard company, went into legitimate drama, and was on the stage in Los Angeles when Director Alfred Santell, then casting for "Daddy Long Legs," saw his performance. A test for the role soon followed, along with a Fox Films contract, and the critics are now hailing John Arledge as one of the most promising "finds" of the year.

The cast which supports Miss Gaynor and Warner Baxter in "Daddy Long Legs" is an important one. Una Merkel last seen in "Don't Bet On Women" and "Six Cylinder Love" has a featured role with such celebrities as Claude Gillingwater, Kathryn Williams, of "silent serial fame," Louise Closser Hale, Elizabeth Patterson, Sheila Mannors in prominent parts, to name but a few.

The film play was adapted in continuity and dialog by Sonya Levien from the famous stage play of the same name by Jean Webster.

STATE FAIR RODEO IS PAYING FEATURE

Horseshow, Races, Premium List all in the red, Gehlhar Reports

The state fair rodeo, an attraction for the first time this year, was the best paying event of the entire program, according to a financial statement released yesterday by Max Gehlhar, head of the state fair by virtue of his office as head of the department of agriculture.

Receipts for the nine days this year were about 5 per cent short of those for last year, with total paid admissions $62,542, as against $66,368.15 a year ago. Last year the fair was open only six days. Sunday's continual rains held paid admissions down to $574.25, as compared to $2886.25 taken in the last day in 1930.

The premium list, fixed by the old state fair board, will show a deficit of around $10,000, the director says. Last year premiums brought a $16,000 deficit.

Rodeo Aids Races
To Get Out of Red
Rodeo receipts will take care of deficits recorded by the horseshow and the races and will also provide funds for the new barns and other construction including monkey island and canoe canal. Deficits of the horseshow, and races had not been figured exactly.

Despite the deficits, Gehlhar said receipts were satisfactory, conditions considered. He expressed opinion that a six-day fair would be a $16,000 deficit.

Sunday's chief attraction was the sacred music concert given in the horse show stadium by 150 members of church choirs from Portland and Salem, with William H. Boyer, Portland, directing, and Prof. T. S. Roberts and Miss Betty Bedford, both Salem, acting as accompanists.

About 1000 persons heard the sacred music, which was preceded by a 15-minute concert by the Hood River band.

Exhibitors started removing their displays Sunday afternoon, and by yesterday things were pretty well cleared out. Some of the horses will be kept at the grounds until the Pacific International opens.

BELIEVED LOST IN ATLANTIC

Setting sail from Barcelona, Spain, on May 25, in a 36-foot boat, Professor Blanca Alferich, former Spanish teacher at the University of Idaho, and his wife and daughter are feared lost in the Atlantic. It is believed that the family had intended to make a world tour, but no news has been received of them since their start from the Spanish port. Top photo shows Professor Alferich, his daughter, Evalin, for whom the boat was named, and Mrs. Alferich. Lower panel shows the little craft in which they braved the Atlantic.

Sunday night
H. K. Mondel of Indian will be the other main speaker. A mass meeting will follow the dinner, beginning at 8 o'clock. Methodists from about 40 churches in this district will attend.

CHURCH CAFETERIA SERVES OVER 5000

The cafeteria at the fairgrounds operated by the Jason Lee church served 5300 meals, with receipts of about $2500, during the seven days it was open during the fair, Rev. Hugh B. Fouke, pastor, said yesterday. The place was not open Sundays.

Receipts this year fell nearly a thousand dollars short of last year, when the cafeteria fed 6000 persons in five days. Meals were served to the public cheaper this year, as supply costs were lower.

More than 100 members of the church volunteered their services during the week. Mrs. F. I. Frazier was in general charge of the cafeteria and its organization.

This is the 13th year Jason Lee church has served meals at the grounds, each year the money being used for some special enterprise of the congregation. At first, a large church debt was paid off, the parsonage was built with fair earnings, the final payment on this to be made with the profit of this year. Profit will probably run close to $1000.

Conference is Asked to Back Silver Parley

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5—(AP)—The Pan American commercial conference which opened here today will be asked to go on record in favor of an international silver conference.

A resolution favoring such a meeting to study the depressed price of silver and its remedies was being drafted tonight by delegates of the conference in collaboration with Senator King, democrat, Utah.

Byers Requests Rehearing Upon Ouster Decision

Hearing of the appeal of David Lee Byers, Sutherlin school principal, whose certificate to teach in Oregon was recently revoked by C. A. Howard, state superintendent of schools, will not be set until Governor Meier returns to Salem. Governor Meier is a member of the state board of education.

Byers was charged by Mrs. Edith Ackert, Douglas county school superintendent, of being "too friendly" with some of his teachers. It was alleged by a number of witnesses at the previous hearing held by Mr. Howard that Byers had padded the teachers on the knees and had taken other liberties with them unbecoming a man at the head of a public school.

Tariff Problem Looming Before Pan-Americans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5—(AP)—Tariffs, a subject packed with high explosives, today engrossed delegates from 21 American republics, meeting here to discuss the economic situation.

Even before the conference formally convened the Cubans served notice they would propose a two years truce in import duties. They contended high and increasing tariffs were a principal obstacle to business recovery.

Cancellation of All War Debts Urged by Party

SCARBOROUGH, Eng., Oct. 5—(AP)—The annual conference of the labor party today urged that new international negotiations be started immediately to cancel all war debts and reparations.

This position was expressed in a resolution presented by Arthur Henderson foreign secretary in the recent labor government and now leader of the party in place of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald.

The resolution was one of several that form the platform on which the anti-MacDonald labor forces will stand in the next election.

District Meet Of Methodists Slated Tonight

A district convention of the Methodist ministers is to be held this evening at the First Methodist church. A banquet will be served at 6:30 in the church dining room. Bishop Titus Lova, Portland, may not be able to deliver one of the principal addresses, as scheduled. He was forced to cancel all engagements yesterday as result of an attack of ptomaine poisoning suffered

People Who do Things Scarcer, Morrow Quoted

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5—(AP)—From Dwight W. Morrow, New Jersey senator who died today, to Dwight W. Morrow, Jr., his son, went the following advice of a father to a son entering Amherst college:

"Two kinds of public make up this world; one kind does things; the other kind claims credit for doing things. The second class is pretty well crowded, but there's plenty of room for you in the first class."

Rev. York Ends Revival Series In Wheat Belt

Rev. Ray E. York, D. D., of the Temple Baptist church closed a series of evangelistic meetings last Friday at Grass Valley, Oregon. The meetings lasted ten days. The impressions made upon the community were deep, and the church was greatly revived.

One of the special features of the campaign was a Bible class of high school young people which met at 7:00 each evening. Dr. York led them through a study of "What is My Soul?" and "Why Does My Soul Need to Be Saved?" He returned to Salem Saturday night.

Life Insurance Slayers Guilty Jurors Decide

DETROIT, Oct. 5—(AP)—Mrs. Rose Veres, 48, and her 18-year-old son, William, were found guilty of first degree murder tonight by a jury which tried them for the death of Steve Mak, a roofer at Mrs. Veres' home, on whose life she carried insurance policies amounting to about $4000.

The verdict, which carries a life imprisonment sentence, was returned after three hours deliberation.

If you have not seen Chic Sales in his first screen picture, "The Star Witness," don't cheat yourself any longer for the picture is one of the best to appear for a long time in the estimation of myself.

The theme is one to be bravely applauded. It has to do with gangs but from the angle of going about to systematically get rid of them rather than to show them in a romantic light.

The acting is splendid; there is humor as well as tense situations, and there is action. You will like it and call it "different," I am sure.

The club women of Salem are expressing their satisfaction over the two shows which will be given as weekend performances in connection with the Mickey Mouse programs. A remonstrance was made concerning some of the shows presented in connection with this program heretofore, and now pleasure is being expressed by the club women concerning the manner in which Manager Earl Rice is cooperating in getting in the sort of shows that has been requested.

This next weekend will be "Penrod and Sam," an unusually fine picture for both adults and children and the next weekend
