Nancy Thielsen To Be Quartet Soloist

Neal-Kah-Nie string quartet will play one program this season in Salem thus allowing Salem audience the benefit of one artistic program of chamber music in addition to the programs which will be presented this winter and spring by the local symphony orchestra. Thus an excellent balance of symphonic music will be possible for music lovers without having to leave the city.

The Neal-Kah-Nie quartet program will be outstanding for two reasons, first it will be a memorial program to Martha Burghardt, who played with them as soloist last fall in the most beautiful program to be presented by the quartet in Salem. Mrs. Burghardt was instrumental also in assisting in bringing the quartet to Salem in its first appearance here, thus the memorial becomes doubly sincere.

The second outstanding part of the program and a part which will make it unique is that Miss Nancy Thielsen, soprano, will sing two numbers as a guest artist.

The appearance of a vocalist with a quartet is not often accomplished. The voice takes the place of a fifth instrument in the quartet in the same manner that a piano may be used. It is not used as a solo with the quartet playing an accompaniment. The songs which Miss Thielsen will sing are written for a string quartet and voice or for a voice and quartet. The effect will be ensemble and promises to be thrillingly beautiful.

Miss Thielsen will sing "Je Tramonte" by Respighi, and "La Posa dell' Anello" by Pizzetti. Both songs are by modern Italian composers, the later an interesting folk song.

Great interest is being shown in this program for it combines sentiment precious to the heart of most of Salem, and also gives opportunity to aid in expressing that sentiment through the unusually beautiful voice of Miss Thielsen and the splendid artistry of the quartet.

A partial list of those who have already signified their intention to hear this program by buying tickets are Miss Sally Bush, Miss Alice Cray Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Addie Curtis, Mrs. V. E. Griggs, Mrs. Monroe Hillbert, Mrs. Clarence Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Poise, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. Walter A. Denton, Mrs. E. C. Dallas Woman's Club Makes Plans for Year

Dallas — The Dallas Woman's club held its first meeting of the season Tuesday afternoon, October 6, in the auditorium of the Hartley. Oscar Hayer presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Roy Donahue.

It was decided to appoint a committee to meet with the local group of Camp Fire girls and cooperate with them, in their work.

The benefit card party planned for Friday afternoon was postponed due to other events being held on that day. It will be held at a date to be announced later.

Dean Roy Hewitt of Willamette university was the speaker on the program, and he told of events during his recent visit to Japan.

Members will go to Independence for the November meeting as guests of the Independence Woman's club who are having Jeannette Cramer as speaker for that day.

Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. V. C. Staats, Mrs. C. L. Foster, Mrs. R. R. Imbier, Mrs. Vern Smith and Miss Caroline Burch.

Sunbeam Circle Has Busy Meeting

Mrs. L. H. Sunbeam circle members of Woodcraft, met Tuesday night with a large attendance of members and friends, including some from Salem, Corvallis and Oak Grove.

District organizer, Mrs. Lulu V. Wood of Salem, and special organizer, Mrs. Beatrice Shadowin of Corvallis, gave inspirational talks.

Two new members were initiated: Mrs. Letta Petrie of Monmouth; and Mrs. Harold Withrow of Saver. The circle presented Mrs. Bernice Winegar Cody, a long-time member and recent bride with a handsome gift.

Following the business session, these program numbers were given: piano solos by John Murdock; a humorous reading by Mrs. W. L. Mason; and instrumental music by the "Wranglers," Vera White, Louis Poole, Chester and Harry Chamberlin.

An amusing final feature was a mock wedding with Mrs. D. A. Hoag as the bride; Mrs. Hattie Winegar, as the groom; Mrs. W. L. Mason, minister; Winifred Ebert and Lillian Hamar as veil bearers.

Mrs. Susan Stanton played the wedding marches. Refreshments were served in the dining room to climax the affair.
