CIRCUIT COURT AT DALLAS RESUMING

DALLAS, Oct. 12. — Circuit court will resume its sessions here Tuesday morning when Judge Walker returns to Dallas. There are several jury cases left on the court docket and also seven equity cases. This court session will probably close the first week in November.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of the state vs. John Nyland and Dan Edwards Saturday morning. This case was the result of a raid by prohibition officers last June.

Nyland, Dan Edwards and M. L. Edwards were arrested and were later indicted on a charge of setting up and operating an unlicensed still.

M. L. Edwards entered a plea of guilty soon after court convened in October and is now serving a one-year term in the penitentiary. The other two men were released after the jury returned the verdict of not guilty.

VELVET, OSTRICH PLUME FACTORS IN FASHIONS

The Autumn fashions for millinery and dresses constitute a great triumph for velvet. Not only in America is the popular material enjoying a vogue such as never before, but also in Paris is it extremely popular. The charming evening frock, above at left, is a Parisian model of dark transparent velvet. It is fashioned on graceful form-fitting lines, opening to a wide flair at the skirts. The coat dress at right is also a Paris creation, with dark velvet again the medium. This model has a detachable collar, the removal of which transforms the coat into a dress. Upper center is a typical example of the Autumn style in millinery. It is an American creation of black velvet, simply trimmed with a white feather in the new headline brim. The lower model is of felt, featuring the white ostrich spray. The addition of a necklace of black and white beads greatly enhances the charm of the hat.

AND NOW IT'S OLYMPIAD HATS

Here's the latest, girls. The California Olympiad hat. Cute, huh? With the traditional laural wreath of the famous games around the crown the little bonnet was designed by Anita R. Kellogg, of Los Angeles, and to judge by its success when introduced there the timely novelty promises to become one of the popular 1932 styles. Ethel Wade is shown wearing one of the new Olympiad hats.
