ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

O. D. O. Club Has First Meeting Of Season

Mrs. Rue Drager entertained with a bridge tea at her home Thursday afternoon complimenting members of the O. D. O. club. This social afternoon marked the first meeting of the season for the club, which will continue to meet regularly the remainder of the fall and winter season.

A lovely arrangement of fall flowers in large baskets made an effective background for the card tables and for the tea service later in the afternoon. Mrs. E. S. Preville won high score for cards. At the tea hour Mrs. Drager was assisted in serving by Miss Margaret Drager and Miss Pauline Patterson.

Guests were Mrs. Eugene Eckert, Sr., Mrs. Adam Engel, Mrs. E. J. Anderson, Mrs. T. A. Windshar, Mrs. Frank Boshinger, Mrs. George Nobbenfeld, Mrs. C. A. Johnson, Mrs. J. J. Karst, Mrs. George Patterson, Mrs. E. S. Preville and Mrs. Drager.

Former Willamette Student Weds

Miss Carol Rahskops became the bride of Louis Grant Petree at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Rahskops of Portland, Wednesday evening in a quiet home wedding. Rev. J. C. Harrison of the Centenary Wilbur church of Portland read the service.

The bride was unattended. She wore a gown of ivory chiffon and carried Ophelia roses. Miss Carolyn Wilson of Salem, played the wedding march.

Mrs. Petree was a member of the graduating class of 1923 from Willamette university. Since that time she has been teaching. She taught last year in Walla Walla, Wash. Mr. Petree is a research chemist, with a large California company and after a short wedding trip by motor, Mr. and Mrs. Petree will be at home in Alameda, Cal. Mr. Petree is a graduate of William Jewell college and took post graduate work at Stanford. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Petree of Kidder, Missouri.

Mrs. Paul Ellis of Salem was among the out-of-town guests for the wedding.

Mrs. John Caughell is Club Hostess

A 1 o'clock luncheon followed by an afternoon of cards complimented the members of the bridge club of Mrs. John Caughell Thursday afternoon at her home. Autumn flowers and fruit made attractive decorative pieces for the luncheon table and guest rooms.

Covers were placed by Mrs. Vern Miller, Mrs. Jack Stump of Monmouth, Mrs. A. U. Hewitt and Mrs. Richard Stolz, special guests, and for the club group, Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. George Weller, Mrs. William Marshall, Mrs. Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Jerald Backstrand, Mrs. Alex Adolph, Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mrs. Wolcott Buren, Mrs. Don Pritchett and Mrs. Caughell.

McCormick Class Entertained

Mrs. Harry W. Scott was hostess to members of the McCormick class of the First Methodist church at her home Wednesday afternoon.

At the business meeting presided over by Mrs. John Marr, president, several plans of importance were developed. A nursery was planned to be arranged in the church for the convenience of mothers with restless youngsters. Plans were also made for guest days for the class November 10 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Kietzing.

An evening party at which time husbands of members of the class will be invited was planned for October 20 at which time Mr. and
