Salem Interested In String Concert

Salem is giving excellent support to the one concert which will be played by the Neah-Kah-Nie string quartet according to the members of the Salem Chamber Music who have been most closely in touch with the quartet.

The program which will be given Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the Woman's clubhouse, is delightfully interesting. In addition to the beauty of the quartet itself, there is also the appearance of Miss Nancy Thiesen, soprano, a young artist of whom Salem is proud.

The combination of voice and strings is one not often heard and there is not a little attention being centered on the numbers in which the combination is made.

The program which is primarily a memorial offering, is being given in the Woman's clubhouse in order that a larger number of people may hear it than would have an opportunity to hear it if it were given in a private home. Although the club room is large it is felt by the members of the chamber music society who have been arranging details that it will afford an attractive room for the large number who wish to attend this concert of Pacific coast artists. The concert has been made possible through the efforts of society members who have given their service gratis in the cause of better music.
