Joint Benefit Charming Affair

One of the smart affairs of the fall will be the joint benefit bridge tea which will be an event of this afternoon at the Masonic temple. Members of the Eastern Star lodge and of the Salem Woman's club will be hostess for the affair.

The committee in charge includes: Hattie Bean, Lucille Browning, Veda Carson, Jessie Crawford, Dena Jennings, Lillian King, Fannie Millard, Addy M. Pettes, Winnie Lewis, Gladys Mesch, Alice Myers, Carah Rise, Bertha McManhan, Emma Pearce, Dorothy Pope, Hazel Piekens, Lella Riedon and Rosie Linfoot, and from the Woman's club, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. J. O. Tibbets, Mrs. W. L. Staley, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. G. L. Forge and Mrs. Harry Weldmer.

For those who do not play cards special invitations are issued to come in for the tea hour at 4 o'clock. Cards will begin at 2 o'clock.

One of the interesting things about this benefit is that so many matrons are entertaining card clubs and special parties. Several matrons have taken two, three and four tables to be reserved for their own parties.

Among those who will entertain in this manner is Mrs. Fred Duncan, who will entertain Mrs. George Rhoten, Mrs. Keith Brown, Mrs. Webster Ross, Mrs. Ruskin Blanchford, Mrs. George Moorhead and Mrs. Alex Jones.

Mrs. Ted Mesch will entertain Mrs. Frank Halik, Mrs. Emil Halik, Mrs. L. D. Lambeth, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Hans Seitz, Mrs. Romeo Gouley, Mrs. Leon Davidson and Mrs. L. B. Gilbertson.

Other reservations which have been made include Mrs. F. G. Bowersox, Mrs. I. W. Lewis, Mrs. Charles Cone, Mrs. Glenn McKee, Mrs. Lrs. Darby, Mrs. Floyd Siegmund, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. Frank Reeves, Mrs. L. A. Grote, Mrs. Ed Wood, Mrs. Glenn Niles, Mrs. Miller Hayden, Mrs. W. H. Liljequist, who has three tables; Mrs. Ben Wells, Mrs. Walker Spaulding, with three tables reserved; Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mrs. J. A. Brownson, Miss Eula McCully, two tables; Mrs. Earl Dae, Mrs. Ivan Martin, Mrs. M. B. Wagstaff, who reserved seven tables for the Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Herbert Hauser, Mrs. H. White, Mrs. Fred Crosby, who reserved two tables; Mrs. William McGilchrist, with three tables reserved; Mrs. J. M. Devers, Mrs. Harold Hughes, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. J. C. Tibbets, Mrs. H. O. White, two tables; Mrs. Tom Wood, four tables; Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., three tables; Mrs. V. E. McMechan, two tables; Mrs. Roy Hurst, two tables; Mrs. G. L. Forge, Mrs. Charles Strickland, Mrs. Rue Drager, Mrs. Mike Pan-

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
The popular alliance of two colors, and the very smart new puffed sleeves, are exemplified in this delightful daytime frock of black and green canton crepe. The deep, slender pointed vestee, slightly draped at the neck-line gives a decided slender effect and the upward curve of the skirt seam joining it, simulates the lovely jacket mode. You'll like, too, brown with rust or green, and wine red with pink.

Pattern 2203 may be ordered only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34. Size 16 requires 3 7/8 yards of 39 inch fabric, 5-8 yard of 2 1/2 inch contrasting yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given. No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern.

Send fifteen cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new fall catalog is now ready. It features the latest in afternoon sports and house dresses, lingerie, pajamas and children's clothes. Also delightful gift suggestions in accessory and transfer patterns. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalogs sent post-free, twenty-five cents. Address all mail and orders to The Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

Williames Hosts at Bridge Party

Independence—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williams was the scene of a delightful bridge party Friday night with Mrs. Williams and Mrs. George Knott the hostesses. The rooms were attractively decorated in autumn leaves and chrysanthemums and a charm was added to the affair by the use of Halloween motifs for light shades and also by the red candles in black holders. Cards were in play at 16 tables with high scores held by Mrs. H. Keeney and A. E. Horton.

Guests present included: Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Mix, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mrs. J. D. Taylor is hostess

One of the recent attractive Halloween parties was that for which Mrs. J. D. Taylor and Mrs. A. E. Wickert were hostesses at the Taylor home. Halloween decorations were used about the guest rooms and were predominant in the arrangement of the menu.

Those who held winning scores for cards were Mrs. Frank Mathes, Mrs. R. Varley, Earl Andersen and Ed Blessing.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones, Mr. and Mrs. George Grey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilerson, Mr. and Mrs. R. Varley, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blessing, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Andersen, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ringwald, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinzer, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wickert and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

Council of Church Women to Convene

One of the most important meetings of the year for the church women of the Willamette valley is the council of church women of Salem and vicinity, the fall meeting for which will be held Friday in the First Baptist church. The morning session will open at 11 o'clock. Miss Hoshie Watanabe will give a special report of unusual interest to the women gathered concerning the Japanese work accomplished this year. This project is one of the most important of the council's activities.

Special music and special program numbers in addition to business reports and brief talks will add much to the interest of the meeting. A noon luncheon will be served at the church.

Mrs. Charles Pratt Honors Mother

Mrs. Charles S. Pratt entertained in compliment to her mother, Mrs. E. S. Lipp, Sunday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock. Guests were received at the door by Mrs. H. I. Stokes and small Charlotte Stokes. Mrs. E. J. Ross and Mrs. Mary Johnson presided at the table.

Mrs. Leon Barriek, Mrs. L. C. Marshall, Mrs. M. P. Adams, Mrs. Margaret Montgomery Shafer, and Mrs. G. A. Ericson assisted about the rooms.

In the course of the afternoon Mrs. F. Utley accompanied by Joy Turner Moses sang a group of solos. A large number of guests called to compliment Mrs. Lipp.

Miss Savilla Phelps recently entertained with a shower for Miss Kathryn Rowe, bride-elect for October 28. Bridge was in play and refreshments were served after the gifts were presented to Miss Rowe. Miss Ruth Pick held high score for bridge. Guests in compliment to Miss Rowe were Ruth Gillette, Sylvia DuBois, Marie Thatcher, Yvonne Smith, Marie Fustman, Dorothy Dalk, Ruth Fek, Roberta Varley, Constance Krebs, Evelyn Casey and Miss Phelps.

Bethel—Mrs. J. M. Nichols and her son, Cass A. Nichols, celebrated their joint birthday anniversary Sunday.

Nichols entertained at Sunday dinner for their son and his family and Viola Vandervort.

Miss Eloise Wright will be a guest at the home of her parents for a few hours this weekend when she comes to attend the Oregon State and Washington State football game in Portland.

Dancing Party Halloween Affair

One of the charming social affairs of the week among the younger crowd will be the dancing party for which Miss Roberta Varley will be hostess at her home tonight. She will be assisted by Miss Eva Kerber.

The guests will be entertained in the large basement of the home. Here all manner of Halloween symbols will decorate the walls and give a mystic color to the evening. Cards will be in play and dancing will be enjoyed.

Among those invited are Miss Georgia Nash, Miss Lottie Nash, Miss Dorothy Krebs, Miss Margaret Burdette, Miss Dorothy Cannon, Miss Dolores Mills, Miss Harriett Beal, Miss Nellie Propp, Miss Jane Harblson, Miss Adell Amort, Miss Jewell Fitzpatrick, Miss June Fitzpatrick, Miss Wilma King, Miss Kathryn Rowe, Miss Ruth Gillette, Paul Todd, Edwin Johnson, Fred Wolfe, Dick Devers, Glen Wilbur, Lowell Gribble, Charles Welton, Tim White, Virgil DeVoe, Bruce Barrington, Long Grier, Dwight Adams, Louis Satchler, Mark Satchler, Darwin Calfee and Gerald Simpson.

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. George Weber entertained a party of house guests over the week end, including Mrs. Roy Keith of Salinas, Cal., Marlan Wger of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. William Lambert of Jamesburg, Cal., and Carl Weber of Bremerton, Wash. Mrs. L. L. Jensen was made a member of the group at this meeting.

Mrs. John Beakley was hostess to members of the Bono Tempo bridge club Friday afternoon. Mrs. Carl Davidson and Mrs. Marvina Roth were additional guests, and Mrs. Carl Emmons received high score for cards. Mrs. L. L. Jensen was made a member of the group at this meeting.

Shower Compliments Mrs. Albert Given

Turner—Mrs. Albert Given, a bride of a few weeks, was complimented with a surprise miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Barber.

Mrs. Barber had a quilt for the bride, on which each guest was requested to write and embroider her name. Dainty gift packages were cleverly concealed in articles of laundry in two big tubs, the disclosing of which caused much merriment. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Barber, assisted by Misses Leone Cook and Gladys Given. Those present were Mrs. S. E. Given, Mrs. Lawrence Edwards and young daughter, Jacqueline, Mrs. O. P. Given, Mrs. R. O. Witzell, Mrs. Clinton Tracy, Mrs. Fanny Ball, Mrs. Geo. Haines, Mrs. Coman Tracy, Mrs. L. C. Ball, Mrs. E. E. Ball, Mrs. W. J. Dehnen, Mrs. S. A. Richee, Mrs. M. O.
