

TREND OF BUTTER MARKET UNCHANGED

Butter Also Steady; Cheese Shows Weakening Signs But not Definite

PORTLAND, Oct. 26—(AP)—There was practically no change in the general trend of the butter market situation for the week's initial session.

There was no change at all in the market for eggs for the week's opening. Prices were held intact by the local co-ops and while there has been much talk of higher prices by outsiders and private firms, no confirmation is available.

While there was no general price change in cheese in the west during the last few days, and especially so at Tillamook, reports in the trade indicate here and there a fractional price loss.

In general there is a very good demand ruling in the market for live chickens. Practically all lines show the improved call and some late betterment in the price.

There is a weaker tone generally in the market for rather good quality hogs as a result of additional price declines for livestock at north Portland. Veal and lambs are unchanged.

PORTLAND, Oct. 26—(AP)—Trading was a little more active in spots during today's session of the East Side Farmers' wholesale market.

A few boxes of selected quality and sized tomatoes sold up to $0.50 but the general top was $0.50 with most of the stock of small size and just fair quality.

Potatoes were weak with 60-65c the extreme top for local stock in orange boxes and 50c taking the bulb. Yakima No. 1 stock was dull at not above $1 sack.

Apple market continued its previous dullness with most locals at $5-40c but a few as high as $0.50 box. Yakima face and fill Spitz were offered at 60c and Delicious wrapped and packed $1 with an extremely limited call.

Yakima Spanish type onions were offered at $1.75 and the same price was asked for locals. Lettuce sold principally 75c crate with a few at $1. Cabbage market was a trifle weaker at 80-85c crate.

Spinach held unchanged at 50-60c orange box. Green broccolis sold 20-25c lug. Cauliflower sold 30-35c for No. 1 B and the former for 2s. Last of the peaches were offered at 65-75c box.

Corn sold again up to $1 sack. Bell peppers were in fair call at 60c orange box. Limited offerings of beans found a fair call at a nickle and a half. Pumpkins and squash were held generally around a cent.

Some Hood River face and fill Anjou pears were sold 85c box. DIKE ON SANTIAM BEING REPLACED

JEFFERSON, Oct. 26 — E. M. Nash of the state highway department and his crew of ten men have begun the work of replacing the dike along the west bank of the Santiam river on the Clause Thissen farm near Jefferson.

Several years ago, this dike was built by the Southern Pacific company and the state highway department to prevent the river from cutting a new channel through the Thissen farm southwest of town, and also to protect the small bridges on the highway just south of the Santiam bridge.

They expect to use about 1,000 yards of concrete material in rebuilding the dike.

Airmail Service To be Extended The special 1 p. m. airmail service here will be expanded on November 1 to a daily except Sunday delivery.

Under the new service, a mail pouch from the California mail plane will be delivered here on all regular business days.

PROFIT TAKING WEAKENS GRAINS HOGS SLIDE 35 CENTS DOWNWARD

Denial is Made France And Germany Will Buy Quantity

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Acting in unison with the stock market and burdened by heavy profit taking sales of wheat, all grains showed a downward trend today. Notable reluctance which European importers displayed in following wheat prices advanced on this side of the Atlantic had a bearish effect. A further drag on grain values came from denials that any concrete proposals were pending for extensive French or German purchases of United States government sponsored wheat holdings.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1/4 to 1 1/2 cents lower, corn 1/4 to 1 1/2 cents down, oats 1/4 to 1/2 cent off. Today's closing quotations: Wheat: December .55 1/4 - 1/4, March .58 1/4, May .60 1/4 - 1/4, July .60 1/4 - 1/4. Corn: December .37 1/4 - 1/4, March .39 1/4 - 1/4, May .41 1/4, July .43 1/4. Oats: December .23 1/4 - 1/4, May .26 1/4, July .28.

SECURITIES WEAK IN DULL SEASON

Commodities and Stocks go Down Also but Reason For Slump Obscure

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—(AP)—Securities and commodities reacted in dull markets today. Stocks, lacking any incentive to do otherwise, declined slowly. Bonds averaged lower, although the list was somewhat spotty. Wheat, corn and cotton gave up part of last week's gains and rubber futures made new lows.

Two or three attempts were made at a rally, but none got beyond the fractional stage and trading only became duller on these moves. Rail, utility and chemical groups displayed considerable heaviness. The general industry division found buyers in a very cautious frame of mind.

At the close, U. S. Steel was off nearly 3 points. Case, American Telephone, New York Central, Union Pacific, Atchafson, Western Union and Allied Chemical closed with roughly the same loss. American Can, Westinghouse, Anaconda, Consolidated Gas, North American, Southern Pacific and Bethlehem were down about 1/2 to slightly more than 1/2. General Electric, Union Carbide, National Biscuit, Montgomery Ward, International Telephone, Pennsylvania and General Motors lost in the neighborhood of a point, the turnover was 1,193,118 shares.

Foreign exchanges were irregular. French francs eased after early firmness and Sterling, after crossing $3.93, reacted to $3.90, off 1/4 cent.

Hollywood—The regular meeting of the 'Same Over Here' club was held Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kleeman.
