Recovery Started After all Offerings are Sold but It Fails to Last

By JOHN L. COOLEY NEW YORK, Oct. 28-(AP)-Btock market sentiment suffered another relapse today as Wall street digested the U.S. Steel report, the Pennsylvania dividend cut and the poor September earnings of carriers.

The morning saw a period of active selling, knocking many rails down 2 to 6 points and many industrials 2 to about 4. When losses when a late sinking spell salt of drought. interrupted. Final prices were around the lowest.

New York Central, Pennsylvania, Illinois Central, Louisville & Nashville, Atlantic Coast Line and Jersey Central, in the rails, and Bethlehem Steel, Johns-Manville and Western Union, eisewhere, reached new lows. Net losses in principal issues ranged from 1 to 4 points. Turnover increased to 1.775,186 shares, about 400,000 larger than yesterday's.

U. S. Steel was actively sold, for traders paid more attention to the third quarter results than to the dividend payment, and the stock closed about 3 points lower. American Can, American Telephone, American Tobacco "B", Case, Allied Chemical, Consolidated Gas, North American, Wrigley, Johns-Manville and Bethlehem flown 2 to 3.

New York Central touched 47 5-8, a record low and an extreme drop of 4 3-8. The net loss Pennsylvania, before the dividend meeting, reacted more than a point but firmed when a 50-cent quarterly payment, against 75 cents previously, was announced. Baltimore & Ohio preferred dropped 5 and Central of New Jersey was down 19. Union Pacific's net loss was 4 and Atchison's 2. Norfolk & Western rallied, closing 3 B, sold at the lowest in ten years.

PORTLAND, Oct. 28-(AP)-Cauliflower was firmer and fractionally higher for all offerings fluring today's session of the East Side farmers' wholesale market. Sales were generally pround 40c for B's.
