Benefit Bridge Tea Smart Affair

Color and unusually smart effects from decorative motifs made the annual Unitarian Alliance bridge tea for Friday afternoon one of the brilliant affairs of the fall.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Fred Alban Well and Mrs. C. S. Hamilton. When all had arrived cards were in play at 20 tables in the Emerson room. A merry fire blazed in the fireplace and about the rooms were many baskets of flaming red salvia, other baskets of deep yellow marigolds, and still other baskets of button zinnias in pastel shades.

All the card tables were covered with white linen covers and the complete effect under the soft lights of the room was quite charming.

Mrs. Rex Davis and Mrs. Henry Polais held high scores for the afternoon of cards.

At the tea hour a beautifully appointed table was placed before the fireplace. It was centered with a basket of fruit, flowers and tall yellow tapers. Here Mrs. Well and Mrs. Hamilton presided.

Guests were served at the card tables which were covered with colorful linch cloths, and centered with candles set in tiny yellow pumpkins. These little pumpkins were used effectively about the rooms as candle lighters. Candle light and the light from shaded lights gave a beautiful effect to the room.

Mrs. Milton Meyers had charge of the announcements. Assisting in serving were Mrs. L. C. Marshall and Mrs. F. E. Feld who were also in general charge of the affair, and Mrs. Truma Huston, Mrs. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. George Troit, Mrs. M. B. Wagstaff.

Sigma Nu Delphians Will Meet

The Sigma Nu chapter of the Delphian society will meet in the auditorium of the public library, Monday afternoon. Seventeenth century painters of Flanders and Holland will be studied.

Reports will be given by Mrs. C. G. Spaulding, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. I. L. Darby, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, and Mrs. H. O. White.

Miss Loretta Ford will tell about the pictures she brought home from Europe which will be shown with the use of a stereopticon machine. The same group will meet for conversational study, Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Russell Catlin.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Contrast is introduced in this cunning dress with piping, an effective and simple method of finishing edges. The straight bodice and adorable flared skirt are details borrowed from the adult mode. Long sleeves to be gathered into narrow wrist bands are given with the pattern and perforations show where to cut them if short ones are desired. Frock and bloomers are lovely made of challis, jersey, broadcloth, linen or percale.

Pattern 2145 may be ordered only in sizes 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12. Size 6 with long sleeves requires 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. Yardage for every size and simple, exact instructions are given. No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern.

Send fifteen cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and state wanted. Be sure to state size wanted.

New Musical Club Is Formed For Study

One of the most interesting clubs to be formed in Salem for some time is the Salem Piano Ensemble club, organized recently for the purpose of study and programs.

This group played together last winter as a piano ensemble under the direction of Miss Elma Weller and presented one program late in the spring as a part of the Better Music week program.

The group is again playing this fall under the direction of Miss Weller and in addition will study "From Song to Symphony" by Mason, noted pianist and composer. With the completion of this study they plan to take up a historical study of American music.

The group meets for study once a month at a morning session. The next meeting will be November 18 in the residence studio of Miss Weller.

Officers of the club are Miss Weller, president and director; Bertha Junk Darby, secretary and treasurer, and Jessie Bush and Dorothy Pearce, librarians.

Members of the club are Mrs. Frank Churchill, Mrs. Henry Lee, Joy Turner Moses, Bertha Junk Darby, Jessie Bush, Dorothy Pearce, Elma Weller, Irma Keefe, Mrs. Stephen Stone, Lois Plummer, Ethel Poling Phelps and Berrice East.

Mrs. Alfred H. Turner, nee Helen Dunning, was complimented with a kitchen shower with Miss Lougine Brietzke as hostess. Mrs. Turner is a recent bride.

Guests in compliment to Mrs. Turner were Olive Shurtz, Arlene Timm, Olga Gath, Charlotte Lindquist, Mabel Lindquist, Dorothy Rogen, Clara Momyer, Iola Bieddi, Hattie Bratzel, Victoria Schneider, Flora Wirth, Martha Wirth.

Monmouth—The high school Sunday school class of young folk of the Christian church entertained with a Halloween party Tuesday evening. Miss Lora Parker, class teacher, directed the evening's entertainment which consisted of games and stunts of a seasonal variety.

Refreshments were served by a committee, to a large group of members and invited guests.

At the Evangelical church Tuesday evening the high school Sunday school class enjoyed a Halloween frolic. Each member brought a guest, and Rev. and Mrs. A. G. Lonsberry and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sellers shared the good time. Mrs. Sellers is the class teacher. Games were followed by refreshments suggestive of the season.

Mrs. S. B. Dodge of Newberg will be a guest for the next week at the home of her son, S. B. Dodge.

Bethel—Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fuestman were dinner hosts recently. The rooms were bright with autumn flowers and Halloween decorations. Covers were

THOSE EYES

While beautiful feminine faces and figures have been judged many times in contests to determine championship pulchritude, Paris has just completed a successful "Most Beautiful Eyes of Paris" competition. Nobody can deny that Mlle. Nine Robert (above) has orbs that ought to win any contest in which they're entered—and they did win!

UNION HIGH VOTE WILL BE MONDAY

GRAND ISLAND, Oct. 30.—Next Monday, November 2, between the hour of 2 and 3 o'clock the tale will be told as to whether this district will be one to help form the proposed union high school in Amity. Should five of the six districts included in the petition vote favorably the union will be formed thus forcing the sixth district to enter.

The school children of the district greatly enjoyed a vacation from school duties Thursday and Friday while their instructors attended the annual Yamhill county teachers' institute held in the McMinnville senior high school building.
