

HOMECOMING DRAWS MANY

Callwell Oldest man Present At Falls City Event; 175 Attend

FALLS CITY, Nov. 3.—Many of the former members of the Methodist church from various parts of the state gathered in Falls City for the homecoming Sunday. Flowers were presented to Mr. Callwell of Falls City for being the oldest man present. Dr. M. A. Marcy's baby of Salem and Buel's baby of Monmouth tied for the youngest; Mrs. Moyer of Salem for the oldest lady, and the Buehl family of Springfield and the Woods family of Portland for coming the greatest distance. Dinner was served at the church to about 175 people. Visit at Lake Mr. and Mrs. Worthington of Falls City are pending the week with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Haine, at Lake Labish. Those attending the Christian Endeavor convention Saturday at Independence were: Ethel Goode, Lloyd Goode, Henrietta Jobs, Mrs. Jobs, Lawrence McCuston, Lavon Morgan, Ethyl Phillips, Eugene Russel, Hazel Word, Mrs. Bolles and Rev. Bolle. Falls City received the library book presented to the society having the largest percentage of the members present. The members of the Junior department of the Christian church enjoyed a Halloween party in the church basement. A Halloween party was given in the A. J. Bowman home Saturday night. About 40 young people were present.

Construction Goes Ahead on Building For J. R. Sturgeon

LINCOLN, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Bonnie Grimm, Auburn teacher, and two sons Robert and Joseph of Salem were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Grimm. Roy Sturgeon, carpenter of McMinnville and his brother, Tom Sturgeon of Lincoln, who are constructing a barn near McMinnville, were here Sunday working on the cottage which their father, J. R. Sturgeon is erecting. No serious Halloween damage to property has been reported. The windows of the Lincoln store were well soaped, a bicycle was found perched on the school house porch and numerous milk stands were overturned.

BREAKS HIP PLAYING MCCOY, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Stevenson is in the McMinnville hospital with a broken hip. She fell Sunday while playing with her grandson. She is the mother of Glen Stevenson. Mrs. Glen Stevenson is home from Tacoma where she visited relatives.

NUMEROUS PARTIES IN RICKEY SECTION

RICKEY, Nov. 3.—Halloween was the inspiration for a number of delightful weekend affairs Friday afternoon, the serious questions were forgotten at school. The history of the origin of Halloween was told by Mrs. Minnie Jodka, principal. Mrs. Treasie Carlson has charge of the primary room. Mr. and Mrs. W. Flood entertained a group of friends Friday. The R. Miller home was also the scene of a delightful affair Friday night.

A number of the older pupils were entertained by Dorothy, Alfred and Harvey McElroy at a Halloween party Friday night. Saturday night a group of the younger pupils were entertained at the Caruthers home. Saturday night as in former years, Jack Olanterns suddenly appeared and then as suddenly disappeared at windows. This custom was established several years ago by a group of girls, for the entertainment of children and shut-ins.

HONOR STUDENTS HAZEL GREEN, Nov. 3.—The honor roll for the advanced room has been announced. Pupils receiving this coveted honor had an average of 86 in all subjects. The pupils are: Melvin Lehman; Kimi Yada, Tom Mio, Bernice Lehrman, Kay Mio, Harriett Dun-

Oscar Koker Runs Nail Through Palm As Falls on Board

WILQUET DECISION DELAYED TO TODAY

Until 2 p. m. today, J. F. Wilquet, held in the Marion county court on charges of contempt, will not know whether or not his habeas corpus proceedings conducted before Circuit Judge Hill have been successful in effecting his release. Judge Hill told counsel for Wilquet and for Oscar D. Bower, cited in the case by Wilquet's lawyers, that he would be ready to make his decision this afternoon. Wilquet, 30 years of age, was named administrator of the estate of Mary F. Gregoire shortly after her death. Subsequently it was held by certain heirs that the estate was being diminished and that Wilquet was not making proper disposition of revenues on property he held in trust. After a hearing, Judge John Sigmond dismissed Wilquet as administrator and named the Ladd & Bush Trust company in his stead. Wilquet's attorneys claim that his action was improper and that the trust company is serving illegally. They also claim Wilquet met the court's requests for statements and is not under contempt of court. They demand he be released at once from the county jail.

COUNCIL ACCEPTS AMENDED BUDGET

WEST SALEM, Nov. 3.—The West Salem council held its regular meeting Monday night at the city hall with all members present except J. A. Gesser. The budget meeting was held before the regular meeting and the budget was accepted with one reservation, an addition being made. Reports from the various committees were heard. The sanitary committee reported several bad conditions prevailing and this matter was referred back to the committee. Report on the budget committee was given and a resolution accepting the budget was read. Motion prevailed that resolution be adopted. Building ordinance was given a third reading and accepted. Bad places in walks were reported on the Fourth street and gravel necessary in several places. This matter was referred back to the street committee. A proposition from an insurance company was read upon insuring the city truck and the motion was made and carried that truck be covered with liability insurance on a 20-40 basis. Mr. Jozep gave a talk on road graders and offered a second hand machine to the city for a reasonable amount. This was turned over to street committee for investigation. Taxpayers meeting on the budget will be November 23.

Coeds of Salem High Practicing At Bowling Art

Bowling practice was held by girls of Salem high Monday afternoon at the Capital bowling alleys. Willingness and enthusiasm were shown by the girls though a number had never had any previous experience on the elongated court.
