According to E. J. Dixon, general manager of the Pacific coops there are today plenty of fresh eggs available here for all needs of the trade. Reports indicate that some interests are underselling the market with storage goods.

While no general weakness is reflected, market for heavy weight live hens is not quite so good along the wholesale way. Most purchases are reported at 190 lb., although 20c is still shown in a limited way.

Prices continue to show more or less sagging tendency in the market for potatoes with sales of Deschutes stock here showing a spread of 90c to $1 for No. 1 grade. Different freight charges is one factor.
