

REVIVAL MEET INTEREST KEEN

Workers and Mission Members Will Hold Big Rally Armistice Day

The revival crusade in the First Church of the Nazarenes, being conducted by Rev. D. S. Corlett of Kansas City is creating great interest according to Rev. Fletcher Galloway, pastor of the church. In every service the church auditorium has been well filled and the people are enthusiastic about the stirring messages given by the evangelist. Rev. Corlett is national secretary of the Nazarene Young People's society and editor of the N. Y. P. S. Journal.

Friday night was young people's night and Rev. Corlett spoke on "Modern Perils of Youth." Rev. Corlett, speaking Thursday on "Signs of the Times", referred to the unrest and disturbed conditions of the nations of the world and said "No man knows what is coming. We are waiting and lay for 22 hours in a shell hole in No-man's-land in France during the World war, and he said, "So far as I am concerned I have had all the war I want. But so long as we have greed, and jealousy, controlling the hearts of national leaders we will have war. The only hope is the coming of the 'Prince of Peace'."

He spoke of the lawlessness of the day, and he said "We cannot lay this at the door of prohibition. For instance," he said, "In Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, where I grew up, 20 years ago, there was a saloon for every 57 voters and besides these there were 1,500 'speak-easies'. A few months ago an editorial in one of the daily papers of Pittsburgh said there were 500 'speak-easies' in Allegheny county, and this was used to prove the need of prohibition. You can draw your own conclusions," he said. Sunday Rev. Corlett will speak at 11 a. m., from the subject, "Pentecost; God's Answer to Modern Problems," and at 7:30 p. m., from the subject, "Would This Generation Crucify Jesus?"

The revival services are to continue one more week, closing Sunday, November 15. A group rally of the young people's work, Sunday school leaders and Woman's Foreign Missionary society members will be held here in Salem Wednesday, Armistice day.

Novel Plan Started for Church Body

These are busy days at the First Congregational church. Hammer and lumber and nails, 90 yards of curtain material, and many yards of dressed goods are being used in preparation for the new type of night services to be presented at the church during the winter months. These will consist of dramatic worship services, book reviews and worship by means of art.

The first of these special evening services will be held this Sunday night and will be a dramatic worship service centered in the pageant "The Triumph of the Deafened" by Fred Eastman, produced by special arrangement with Samuel French and the author.

The committees appointed by the church to assist in the production of the services are as follows:

Committee on cast—Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCallister and F. E. Neer; costumes, Miss Constance Kantner, Miss Priscilla Fry, Mrs. M. E. F. Hulber and Miss Rhoda Chapman; properties, Wayne Barnham, Tyler Morley, Dick Upjohn, Edwin McReynolds, Mrs. W. E. Hanson and Mrs. F. E. Gunning will give a tenor solo.

The Brotherhood held a business meeting Monday night when H. S. Bond gave a talk on "Lay Evangelism." Ernest Robinson sang a solo; Paul Rowley suggested plans for the support of the special meetings which are to be held at the church during the latter part of the month.

The Brotherhood voted to sponsor two cottage prayer meetings in the next two weeks.

At the week's meeting of the Salem Ministerial association, two recommendations were made by the committee on unemployment cooperation. Both were accepted, and were: first, that there be complete and active cooperation with the Y. M. C. A. employment organization in charge of S. Phillips; and second, approval of action of Community service in naming the Red Cross as a clearing house for charity work.

The recommendation further urged that the churches report all cases for charity service direct to the Red Cross. This committee included Dr. B. Earle Parker, Rev. J. R. Simonds and Dr. Grover Birtcher.

Hanson Chooses Peace as Topic Sunday Morning

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 6.—"A Program for Peace" is the theme chosen by Rev. H. G. Hanson, pastor of Calvary Presbyterian church, at the special Armistice day program planned for the Sunday morning service.

Signs of America Are Evident to Missionary On Trip Through Japan

Traffic signs, both in English and Japanese, were reminders of this country to Violet Griebonow, Salem girl who writes to relatives here of her boat trip through Japan en route to the mission fields in Dutch East Indies.

Docked near Yokohama, Miss Griebonow says she and friends started a sight-seeing trip to Kamakura, a typical Japanese city. "We took taxis, as we found for a group that was cheaper than rickshas. Talk about speed and a nerve-racking ride; we surely got it. The automobiles take the left side of the street and honk their horns almost continually, because the streets are narrow and pedestrians and other vehicles also use the street. The speed our driver took was between 35 and 40 miles an hour, I'm sure. We arrived at our station, and were soon on the train, which reminded me of those in New York." She tells about the traffic signs, the fast-moving train and a visit to a Buddha and temple. "The people are extremely friendly. It is surely funny to hear the chatter, clatter of their wooden shoes when you get into a crowd and especially when they are in a hurry."

She writes of the boat docking at Kobe, "nested" at the foot of the mountains. "We went into one of the large department stores—and it was very American. We asked the Japanese girl who ran the elevator to take us to the floor where the silks are. She didn't understand and took us to the soaps."

Caution to travelers is contained in this word: "One certainly has to be careful about spending money here. Some of the girls lost because they were not used to the value of Japanese money, and of course they will take advantage of that. One yen is 50 cents in our money, which comes in bill form; a silver piece that looks about like 50 cents in our money is 50 sen in Japanese and 25 cents in American."

Miss Griebonow beheld an interesting sight as her boat reached Nakasaki, where it took on coal. She recounts: "I watched the proceedings. About 20 flat boats were lined up on either side of the ship, with approximately 40 Japanese men and women working in each little boat, loaded with soft coal. These Japs would shovel the coal into baskets—usually a man did the shoveling, a woman took the basket and handed it to the next person until it reached the person next to the board where it was dumped into the bin. How fast they worked! . . . they actually looked like a swarm of ants."

The letter was mailed from Victoria, B. C., October 25.

Trinity Society Will Name New Officers Sunday

SILVERTON, Nov. 6.—Trinity Young People's society will hold its November meeting with election of officers Sunday afternoon at the social rooms of Trinity church. The meeting will be called to order at 2 o'clock.

Following the business meeting, a program will be given consisting of a reading by Henry Torvond, a piano solo by Peggy Goplerud, a musical number of Charliott and Walter Goplerud, a talk by Mrs. M. G. Gunderson, Oscar Strum, a president of the society. Hostesses for the luncheon given before the meeting are Mrs. Andrew Haere and Mrs. Hans Hansen.

Quarter Meeting To be Thursday

The first quarterly conference of the Leslie Memorial church will be held at the church, Thursday night, with Dr. M. A. Marcy, district superintendent, in charge. The session will start promptly at 8:30 o'clock with a potluck dinner, and will be followed by a time of fellowship. All members and friends of the church are invited.

Darlow Johnson To Take Pulpit Sunday Morning

Rev. S. Darlow Johnson, pastor of the Leslie Memorial Methodist church, will occupy his pulpit Sunday morning for the first time in 11 weeks. Rev. Johnson was badly injured in an automobile accident which occurred nine weeks ago as he was driving to the coast to rejoin his family during their vacation period.

He has been able to be about for a little more than a week now, but still suffers considerably from injury sustained to a nerve in his thigh. His car left the road on the coast end of the Salton street cut-off.

Rev. Johnson will preach Sunday morning at 11 o'clock on "O for a Closer Walk with God." Sunday night Howard Teeple, one of three young Willamette students working under Rev. Johnson, will preach.
