

CORN SHOW IS GREAT SUCCESS

Prize Winners Listed; Albert Whiteaker Takes Fiddler's Contest

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 7.—The annual corn show and flower exhibit of Independence drew a large crowd to the armory Friday night. The exhibits were neatly arranged and made an exceptionally good showing. Prof. F. M. Brandt of the Oregon state college, the speaker of the evening, discussed the use of corn in dairying. He maintained that corn and alfalfa form the best basis for developing the dairy interest in the Willamette valley.

A feature of the program was the old-time fiddlers' contest which Albert Whiteaker, 63-year-old Monmouth resident, won first prize; Will Bressler of Monmouth 73, years of age, second; and W. M. O'Keefe of Independence, 80 years of age, third prize.

Miss Marjorie Wunder entertained with a burlesque of old-time music on the violin in which she represented an old man 90 years of age.

A door prize went to Mrs. Oberson. J. H. Hart, president of the Independence chamber of commerce, made all the announcements and was chairman for the evening.

The exhibits were judged Friday by the following judges: Miss Wright, supervisor of home economics in the Salem high school, culinary department; Prof. Bressman, farm crops department of the Oregon state college, corn and vegetables, and Edith Hazard, flowers.

The following prizes were awarded: corn—winner takes for the best single ear of corn, Thomas Paine, senior department—yellow dent, 50 ears, J. D. Story, first; M. W. WOODBURN GARDEN CLUB WILL HOLD FLOWER SALE

Annual Family Dinner of Rebekah Lodge Will be Held Tuesday

WOODBURN, Nov. 6.—The Woodburn Garden club has announced that organization will sponsor a shrub and flower sale, to be held in the Ogilvie building on Front street Saturday, November 14. Everyone who has extra shrubs and flowers is asked to contribute to the sale, as it is for the general benefit.

The time of the regular meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid has been changed to Tuesday of next week instead of Wednesday afternoon. The meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church. Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. W. P. Lassard, Mrs. R. L. Freeborn and Mrs. L. R. Tweedie. Mrs. Hiram Overton will have charge of devotions and Mrs. Henry Layman and Mrs. M. J. Miller will have charge of the program.

Mrs. Jennie Austin is visiting relatives at Galesburg this week. Plans for the annual family dinner, put on by members of the Woodburn Rebekah lodge, have been arranged. The dinner will be held in the O. O. F. hall.

Members of the committee on arrangements are Mrs. Gertrude Beach, Mrs. Mabel Wright and Mrs. James Livesey. Miss Mamie Lenhart has named chairs and the dining room committee. All Rebekahs of Woodburn and their families are invited to attend the dinner.

Sam Cairnes went to Salem Wednesday evening to bring home his mother, Mrs. Samuel Cairnes, who has been in the Salem General hospital for several weeks, recovering from a major operation. Mrs. Cairnes has improved rapidly the last few days and will soon be feeling well again.

Funeral services will be held Monday morning at 8:15 o'clock from the Catholic church in Mt. Angel of which she was a member. Father Murmaine will officiate.

TRAVEL TALK HEARD BY COLLEGE GRANGE

BRUSH COLLEGE, Nov. 7.—Between 60 and 70 members of the Brush College grange attended a rousing meeting held at the school house Friday night. Of special interest to the group was the travel talk given by Miss Lolla Johnson, Salem high school teacher who spent her summer vacation visiting Europe, Japan and China. Miss Johnson exhibited many lovely curios, embroidery made by natives of China and Japan and samples of art work.

Numbers preceding Miss Johnson's talks were a piano solo, Gladys Crawford, reading, Marjorie Matthews, and a humorous pantomime, "Romeo and Juliet" with 12 in the cast. Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, state grange lecturer, who was leaving enroute to Madison, Wis., Saturday told her recent 15-day trip to eastern Oregon granges. Mrs. McCall also gave a piano number.

The home economics committee comprising Mrs. A. E. Utley, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. John Schindler and Mrs. Ronald Lewis had charge of all program arrangements. A committee composed of Mrs. S. W. Henry, chairman, Mrs. S. D. Crawford, Mrs. Roy W. Barker, Mrs. L. Frank Matthews and Mrs. M. E. Bantson were in charge of the bounteous 7 o'clock supper.

HOPEWELL TO HEAR VISITING MINISTER

HOPEWELL, Nov. 7.—Rev. Carmichael of Madrasville will conduct the services at the United Brethren church next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephens, Mrs. I. Bantson and Mrs. Mary Eichen were business visitors in Salem Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Versteeg is spending the weekend at her home. Mrs. Versteeg is teaching in Gresham.

Recent reports of W. R. Stalcup, who underwent a major operation at a Salem hospital October 22, show some improvement. Mr. Stalcup of Norris, Mont., is visiting here with his daughter, Mrs. Ray Cowel, who is teaching in the Hopewell school.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Jantzen and family leave today for Montana, where they will visit with Mrs. Jantzen's parents near Haver.

72 PERSONS ATTEND LEGION GATHERING

Dallas Post Plans Open Meeting Soon for all Ex-Service men

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—The local American Legion post and the Legion auxiliary staged a special entertainment for the members and their friends at their meeting Thursday night. The evening began with a covered dish supper with 72 people attending.

An open meeting was held in the Legion rooms. Quincey Scott, cartoonist for the Oregonian, was the principal speaker. Mr. Scott spoke on "Relativity" and illustrated his talk with sketches. Earle Wilkinson assisted on the program with two vocal solos. Mr. Wilkinson was accompanied by Miss Virginia Lettich. Eugene Steiler concluded the program with a group of acordion solos.

After the opening meeting the members of the Legion and Auxiliary held business meetings.

The next meeting this month will be open to every ex-service man in the county whether connected with the American Legion or not. At the first meeting in December the state officers of both the Legion and the Legion Auxiliary will be guests of the members of Carl Fenton Post and the auxiliary. A turkey feed will be served at this meeting with the turkeys being donated by Waldo Finn, ex-commander of Carl Fenton post. The last meeting of the year will be in the nature of a father and son banquet with every member bringing either his own son or some other boy. The guests will attend the post meeting and then be given a party in the armory.

It was announced that the membership committee would meet Monday night at the armory. John Corney is chairman of this committee.
