

M'KILLOP HURT IN BASKET-TILT

R. N. Club Meets; Potato Crop Pleases Farmers; Boy Breaks arm

SCOTTS MILLS, Nov. 9.—John McKillop received a very painful injury Friday night while playing basketball with the Scotts Mills town team at Bethel. One of the players accidentally hit him just below the left eye, it was necessary to have five stitches taken to close the wound.

The Royal Neighbor club met in a crocheting building Friday for an all day meeting. Two quilts were tied for Mrs. Bess Shepherd. The business meeting was held in the afternoon.

Mrs. J. N. Amundson, Mrs. George Woodson and Mrs. Ella Carpenter will be hostess for the next meeting, Dec. 4. Hostesses Friday were Mrs. J. E. Sanders, Mrs. Cora Whitlock and Mrs. Blondina Sanders.

Basketball Tonight
The Hubbard town basketball team will play the Scotts Mills team here in the gymnasium Tuesday night, November 10. Anton Ettlin has been appointed district deputy of the Modern Woodmen of America to take effect November 1.

J. E. Saueressig is confined to his home with inflammatory rheumatism.

Ettlin in Portland
A. J. Ettlin was in Portland Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haynes visited in Silverton Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Taylor visited relatives in Portland over the weekend.

Misses Elsie Wagini, Ruth Boyce, Hilda Foster visited relatives in Portland over the weekend.

The Parent-Teachers association met at the school house Thursday night, November 12. Part of the time will be spent in the community singing.

Mrs. H. Y. Magee is quite ill at her home.

Attend Funeral
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brougher and son Ira, attended the funeral of A. F. Davis in Vancouver Sunday. Mr. Brougher is a cousin of Mr. Davis. Mrs. Mulvihill and daughter Ruby Harriet of Portland accompanied them to Vancouver.

LaVerne Cully had his left arm broken while playing at the school the first of the week.

Some of the farmers in this vicinity are busily engaged digging their potatoes. All are having very satisfactory crops.

Woman's Club Meet Is Thursday; Vote On Direction Soon
AUBURN, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Mike Lucas will be hostess to the Auburn Woman's club November 12, at her home on the Auburn road. All women of the community are invited to be present.

The Boatwright family has moved to Alsea. This takes three children out of the Auburn school.

There will be a special school election at the school house November 14, to elect a director to fill the unexpired term of Bryan Conley, who has moved from the district.

MARTINS RETURN
MONMOUTH, Nov. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Martin of Payallup, Wash., left yesterday for their home after a visit at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Belle McKnight and other relatives.

JURIST WOULD HANG BOY SLAYER

Hubert Nicolls, 12-year-old boy who killed John Wormley as the latter surprised him in the act of holding up a store, may consider himself lucky that Kenneth MacIntosh was not his judge. Mr. MacIntosh, a jurist and member of the famous Wickham Commission, is emphatically of the opinion that the lad should have been hanged, reasoning that he will always be a criminal and a menace to society. On the other hand, Warden Lewis H. Lawes, of Sing Sing prison, New York, considers the verdict a just one, holding the belief that the boy's execution would not deter other potential murderers. Mr. Lawes is of the opinion that it is not necessary to keep the boy in prison for life, as there is a possibility of making him a good citizen.

Hubert Nicolls, 12-year-old boy who killed John Wormley as the latter surprised him in the act of holding up a store, may consider himself lucky that Kenneth MacIntosh was not his judge. Mr. MacIntosh, a jurist and member of the famous Wickham Commission, is emphatically of the opinion that the lad should have been hanged, reasoning that he will always be a criminal and a menace to society. On the other hand, Warden Lewis H. Lawes, of Sing Sing prison, New York, considers the verdict a just one, holding the belief that the boy's execution would not deter other potential murderers. Mr. Lawes is of the opinion that it is not necessary to keep the boy in prison for life, as there is a possibility of making him a good citizen.

Hubert Nicolls, 12-year-old boy who killed John Wormley as the latter surprised him in the act of holding up a store, may consider himself lucky that Kenneth MacIntosh was not his judge. Mr. MacIntosh, a jurist and member of the famous Wickham Commission, is emphatically of the opinion that the lad should have been hanged, reasoning that he will always be a criminal and a menace to society. On the other hand, Warden Lewis H. Lawes, of Sing Sing prison, New York, considers the verdict a just one, holding the belief that the boy's execution would not deter other potential murderers. Mr. Lawes is of the opinion that it is not necessary to keep the boy in prison for life, as there is a possibility of making him a good citizen.

Hubert Nicolls, 12-year-old boy who killed John Wormley as the latter surprised him in the act of holding up a store, may consider himself lucky that Kenneth MacIntosh was not his judge. Mr. MacIntosh, a jurist and member of the famous Wickham Commission, is emphatically of the opinion that the lad should have been hanged, reasoning that he will always be a criminal and a menace to society. On the other hand, Warden Lewis H. Lawes, of Sing Sing prison, New York, considers the verdict a just one, holding the belief that the boy's execution would not deter other potential murderers. Mr. Lawes is of the opinion that it is not necessary to keep the boy in prison for life, as there is a possibility of making him a good citizen.

Hubert Nicolls, 12-year-old boy who killed John Wormley as the latter surprised him in the act of holding up a store, may consider himself lucky that Kenneth MacIntosh was not his judge. Mr. MacIntosh, a jurist and member of the famous Wickham Commission, is emphatically of the opinion that the lad should have been hanged, reasoning that he will always be a criminal and a menace to society. On the other hand, Warden Lewis H. Lawes, of Sing Sing prison, New York, considers the verdict a just one, holding the belief that the boy's execution would not deter other potential murderers. Mr. Lawes is of the opinion that it is not necessary to keep the boy in prison for life, as there is a possibility of making him a good citizen.

Hubert Nicolls, 12-year-old boy who killed John Wormley as the latter surprised him in the act of holding up a store, may consider himself lucky that Kenneth MacIntosh was not his judge. Mr. MacIntosh, a jurist and member of the famous Wickham Commission, is emphatically of the opinion that the lad should have been hanged, reasoning that he will always be a criminal and a menace to society. On the other hand, Warden Lewis H. Lawes, of Sing Sing prison, New York, considers the verdict a just one, holding the belief that the boy's execution would not deter other potential murderers. Mr. Lawes is of the opinion that it is not necessary to keep the boy in prison for life, as there is a possibility of making him a good citizen.

Hubert Nicolls, 12-year-old boy who killed John Wormley as the latter surprised him in the act of holding up a store, may consider himself lucky that Kenneth MacIntosh was not his judge. Mr. MacIntosh, a jurist and member of the famous Wickham Commission, is emphatically of the opinion that the lad should have been hanged, reasoning that he will always be a criminal and a menace to society. On the other hand, Warden Lewis H. Lawes, of Sing Sing prison, New York, considers the verdict a just one, holding the belief that the boy's execution would not deter other potential murderers. Mr. Lawes is of the opinion that it is not necessary to keep the boy in prison for life, as there is a possibility of making him a good citizen.

Hubert Nicolls, 12-year-old boy who killed John Wormley as the latter surprised him in the act of holding up a store, may consider himself lucky that Kenneth MacIntosh was not his judge. Mr. MacIntosh, a jurist and member of the famous Wickham Commission, is emphatically of the opinion that the lad should have been hanged, reasoning that he will always be a criminal and a menace to society. On the other hand, Warden Lewis H. Lawes, of Sing Sing prison, New York, considers the verdict a just one, holding the belief that the boy's execution would not deter other potential murderers. Mr. Lawes is of the opinion that it is not necessary to keep the boy in prison for life, as there is a possibility of making him a good citizen.

Hubert Nicolls, 12-year-old boy who killed John Wormley as the latter surprised him in the act of holding up a store, may consider himself lucky that Kenneth MacIntosh was not his judge. Mr. MacIntosh, a jurist and member of the famous Wickham Commission, is emphatically of the opinion that the lad should have been hanged, reasoning that he will always be a criminal and a menace to society. On the other hand, Warden Lewis H. Lawes, of Sing Sing prison, New York, considers the verdict a just one, holding the belief that the boy's execution would not deter other potential murderers. Mr. Lawes is of the opinion that it is not necessary to keep the boy in prison for life, as there is a possibility of making him a good citizen.

EX-FILM STARS HAPPY IN RETIREMENT

When Lillian Walker, whose dimpled beauty and talent were the toast of movie enthusiasts back in the old Vitaphone days, recently appeared in the divorce court spotlight, many a film fan asked himself the question, "What has become of the stars we used to know?" Not all of the abdicated screen queens have been as unfortunate as Lillian. She made an unhappy marriage and in her recent suit for divorce it was disclosed that she has been fighting poverty for years on her dairy farm at Saratoga, N. Y. In contrast to her fate there are the happy endings of Corinne Griffith, the "Orchid Lady," now living happily with her husband in her beautiful French chateau; Alice Terry, who also lives in the eternal sunshine of Southern France with her film director husband, Rex Ingram; and Anita Stewart, who is now the wife of multi-millionaire George Peabody Converse. Then there is Pearl White, whose adventures made our spines tingle, running a gambling palace at Biarritz; and Ruth Roland, another stunt serial queen, who piled up a huge fortune in real estate. Nita Naldi has also found happiness in retirement and is living in Paris. Thus, it may be seen that although glory in the films is short-lived, the harvest is beautiful while fame is at its height and the majority of bygone stars looked well to the harvest and have no cause for regret now.

Soup for Rich and Poor Served by Mrs. C. Davis At Kitchen for Children

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Crosby Davis opened her soup kitchen in the Independence training school Wednesday. For 16 consecutive years she has served hot soup to children of the local school, serving on an average of 11 bowls of soup daily, which is made of a whole milk foundation. Those children whose parents are able to pay receive their bowl of soup and crackers for three cents, but the ones financially embarrassed, according to Mrs. Davis, get their bowl of hot soup and crackers just the same. A group of 16 girls wash the bowls and spoons for Mrs. Davis. The girls are volunteers from the advanced classes who request the privilege of assisting the "soup-lady," as Mrs. Davis is affectionately called. They are organized for team work and lose no school work in performing their soup kitchen tasks. All the bowls and spoons are washed through two waters then scalded and each one dried separately. Mrs. Davis says that at no time in the history of her soup kitchen has a single bowl had to be re-washed for the girls make them shine like crystal. The girls have a good time and a spirit of fellowship exists between them.

The Parent-Teacher association is in sympathy with Mrs. Davis in her project and is always ready to help in any way possible. For the past 16 years the P. T. A. has bought tomatoes and a group of interested women have met and canned them for the soup. Seventeen years ago Joe Hirschberg, who was the Independence banker, conceived the idea that the school children of his home town should be served hot soup. He talked the project over with Mrs. Davis and between them they formulated a plan to serve the soup. Mr. Hirschberg furnished a small room in the east end of the upper hall in the old public school building and Mrs. Davis made the soup for a month as a trial. She says that at the end of the first month there was such a demand for the soup that she continued and then as now every child that wanted soup got it. Mrs. Davis says that Mr. Hirschberg took a great delight in visiting the soup kitchen at the noon hour and pouring soup for the children. After about two years the school board made a special room in the basement for the soup kitchen, which was used until the present training school building was erected five years ago. In the present building the soup kitchen is recognized as one of the necessary equipments for the school year.

WEATHER SLOWS UP POTATO HARVESTING

JEFFERSON, Nov. 9.—Although the rain of the past few days has been beneficial for the fall sown grain, it has interfered somewhat with potato digging in this vicinity. C. V. Clodfelter and Hugh Bilyeu have finished digging, and other growers are just beginning to harvest their crop. So far, a good yield has been reported. A potato digger is used to plow out the potatoes, and then a crew follows after and picks them up, which makes quick work in harvesting them.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wilson and daughter, Jo Ellen and Raymond Wilson of Troutdale were Sunday guests of the A. Wilson and Chapman families.

Delegates from Mt. Rebekah lodge in Jefferson who attended the district convention of the order held in Albany Friday were Mrs. Stella Hart, Mrs. Maude Blackwell, Mrs. Dora Humphrey, Mrs. Ada Wells, Mrs. Millie Bilyeu, Mrs. Juanita Smith, Mrs. Leona Libby, Misses Laura and Flora Thomas, and John C. Alexander.

Mrs. Ada Wells was appointed chaplain for the coming year.

Mrs. Ella Densmore has purchased 89 acres of the A. J. De Vany farm, near Green's bridge.

RUNNING EXPENSES ESTIMATED $26,185

SILVERTON, Nov. 9.—The estimated cost of running the city of Silverton next year, according to the budget committee, will amount to $26,185, which is $1,360 higher than was approved last year.

The biggest one item, outside of the city hall bonds, is the light, estimated at $2500. Sewer building and maintenance comes next at $1850.

The estimated expenses include the following total items: salaries of city officials, $4,550; materials and supplies, including light and fuel, $3400; maintenance and repairs, not including sewers, $2900; indebtedness, $4,000; interest on bonds, $2750; fire department, $1400; park,

100 ATTEND RALLY AT BRUSH COLLEGE

Sunday School, Organized in 1910, Celebrates Yearly Occasion

BRUSH COLLEGE, Nov. 9.—The Brush College Sunday school, which was organized in 1910 and has functioned regularly since that time, held an enthusiastic rally at the schoolhouse Sunday, with approximately 100 present.

The morning program was opened with devotional services in charge of F. C. Ewing, Sunday school superintendent. Mrs. C. L. Blodgett was accompanist for the program. A group of 16 girls and boys sang "For Such is the Kingdom of Heaven," followed by the 24 Psalms, read by eight girls and boys.

Mrs. Oliver Whitney, in charge of the home department, gave an account of its activities, telling of the 15 members in the department who receive literature from the Sunday school at their homes quarterly, among them being four quarterlies written in German. She reported that the cradle roll, which was organized in 1910, has had as high as 18 members. A special number was "That Story of Old," sung by Billy Utley, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. A. E. Utley. This preceded the story of Paul and his wanderings told by six little girls and boys and continued by a group of four girls and boys. As a closing number on the program 18 girls and boys sang "Bringing in the Sheaves," and five little children gave a clever motion exercise.

A pot-luck dinner was served. The following program was given in the afternoon: Reading, "Let Me Walk With the Man in the Road," Mrs. C. L. Blodgett; talks on the Sunday school's organization and growth, F. C. Ewing and U. J. Lehman; a humorous play, "The Village Photographer." The cast included John Norwood as Mr. Stork, the photographer; Mrs. John Norwood and little son as Mrs. Selby and Johnny; Opal Tansy as Mrs. Keil, a young widow; Delbert Harriett and Nina Tansy as Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, and

WHICH IS AKRON? GUESS AGAIN!

They say that the camera cannot lie, but here is evidence that it can. Above is the Navy's new Queen of the Skies, the dirigible Akron, shown as she floated over Washington, D. C., with the ex-queen Los Angeles. The picture was made at such an angle that the latter, which is nearest the camera (cross my heart!) appears to dwarf her giant sister. The two air monsters cruised above the national capital and later flew up for a look at New York.

Billy Utley, Maxine Olsen and Myrtle Meiers as their three precocious children; Miles Munson as Jerry; Miss Velma Woeike and Delbert Harriett as Ray and Honey Moon, newlyweds; Lucy May Munson as Sally Harms; Eldon Olsen as Zeke Haytop, a bachelor; Marjorie Harriett as Miss Olivia Oldham.

Other program numbers were: Vocal solo, "The Old Road," Mrs. A. E. Utley accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Blodgett; Dr. Grover C. Birchett of the Presbyterian church at Salem gave a rally day sermon. Mrs. Birchett and three chert.

75 Persons Attend Annual Grad Event

AMITY, No. 9.—The annual Amity high school alumni banquet was held at the high school Saturday night.

A delightful dinner was served and later followed by a very interesting program. Persons from each class represented gave talks, which were enjoyed by all. About 75 people were present.

SCHOOL BUDGET IS LOWEST SINCE 1921

Honor Roll Members are Listed; W. C. T. U. Meets Wednesday

TURNER, Nov. 9.—The annual school budget as presented by the board to the special school meeting Saturday afternoon, was the lowest in 10 years and was unanimously accepted by the voters. A substantial sum is paid each year on the school building indebtedness.

The grade school is larger than ever this year and the high school has a larger enrollment than last year. The high school roll of honor by grades, includes seniors, Margaret Robertson, Katherine Shempier; junior, Leona Cook; sophomores, Emma Denyer, Bertha Elger, Harold Fowler, Rachel Gardner; freshman, Ruth Gilstrap, Margaret Gilstrap. Special student, Helen Wetzel.

Perfect attendance group includes: Hildred Bones, Leone Cook, Eugene Mells, LeRoy Warner, Jean Snyder, Harold Cook, Roy Standley, Emma Parr, Everett Hansen, Helen and Helen Wetzel.

W. C. T. U. To Meet
The W. C. T. U. will hold its November meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. F. C. Gunning.

Mrs. H. N. Barnett drove up to Crawfordville Saturday afternoon to visit her mother, Mrs. F. M. Bea. She returned Sunday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bear, who attended Mr. Bear's mother's funeral Sunday afternoon and returned home with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gillett, who made their friends a visit.

Miss Hazel Bonas, nurse at the Pacific Christian hospital at Eugene, recovered from her recent attack of pneumonia, so she was able to return home a few days ago, but she has developed a bad case of heart trouble. She is at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Barr.

Of the 1,900 British air ministry pilots' licenses current, 114 are held by women.

"Can you blame me for liking LUCKIES?"

"My throat means a lot to me—My voice is half my show. Can you blame me for liking Luckies? And what an idea your improved Cellophane wrapper is. No prying necessary—just Zip and the little tab does the trick."

Joan Blondell

It didn't take Joan Blondell long to make a bright and shining mark in Hollywood. This star-eyed little blonde kicked up a lot of dust in her first hard-boiled role—and Warners are proud of her. In "Blonde Crazy" she is wonderful. She never disappoints in any picture.

Made of the finest tobaccos—The Cream of many Crops—LUCKY STRIKE alone offers the throat protection of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays—the process that expels certain harsh, biting irritants naturally present in every tobacco leaf. These expelled irritants are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. "They're out—so they can't be in!" No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE 60 modern releases with the world's finest music orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose group of jacks begins the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N.B.C. network

MOISTURE-PROOF CELLOPHANE Sealed Tight—Ever Right The Unique Humidor Package Zip—And It's open!

See the new notched tab on the top of the package. Hold down one half with your thumb. Tear off the other half. Simple. Quick. Zip! That's all. Unique! Wrapped in dust-proof, moisture-proof, germ-proof Cellophane. Clean, protected, neat, FRESH!—what could be more modern than LUCKIES' improved Humidor package—so easy to open! Ladies—the LUCKY TAB is—your finger nail protection.