The Government of Great Britain might be construed to be a "family" affair, what with two of the The Government of Great Britain might be construed to be a "family" affair, what with two of the leading lights having sons and one daughter in prominent roles as law-makers and another young man a power to be reckened with, even though he was defeated by the very avalanche which gave his father and his party increased power. Ramsay MacDonald, Prime Minister, has an able supporter in the House of Commons in his 30-year-old son, Malcolus. David Lloyd George, famous wartime Premier, has double ammunition in Parliament as support for hi mself and his Liberal party in his daughter, Megan, and his son, Major Gwilym. Of the three outstanding leaders in British politics, I. e., MacDonald, Baldwin and Lloyd George, Stanley Baldwin is the only one who does not now have a member of his family in Parliament. His Socialist son, Oliver, was ousted from the House of Commons in the very election which returned Baldwin and his Conservative party to the heights.

Police Chief Puts Shame on Ordinary Account of Nov. 11

SILVERTON, Nov. 9. -Arthur Dahl, chief of police at Silverton, admits that Armistice day's falling on the 11th just filled out a circle of elevens for him.

He was at LaValbonne, Ain, France, at the time, and had gone there from Tours. He had left New York December 11, 1917, at 11 o'clock; had crossed the Atlantic in 11 days; there had been 11 ships in the convoy, including the escort.

Eleven days later they arrived in Tours, and 11 months later to the day, their company, which was the 11th infantry training school, heard at LaValbonne, which was in the 11th military district, that the armistice had been signed at 11 o'clock of the 11th day of the 11th month.

WALDO, HILLS, Nov. 9 .- The heavy rain which began at dusk Friday night was probably the cause of the small attendance at the invitational dance given by the Waldo Hills community club. Only 125 persons were present but they report it one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. Music was furnished by a five-piece orchestra from Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lofthers and family from near Silverton and Ruth Rue, who is nursing at Silverton, were Thursday night guests at the K. O. Rue home. Miss Myrtle Moore of Portland spent the week end at the A. A. Geer home. Miss Moore and Mrs. Geer are sisters.

Family Fete Given Denny

HAYESVILLE, Nov. 9-Sunday, November 8, the Denny home wore a festive look when all the children gathered to help Jacob Denny celebrate his 81st birthday. The lovely cake, which was served after the delightful dinner, was large enough to hold the 81 candles.

Those participating in occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kruse of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McMillen and children, Frederick, Donald and Kathleen of Corvallis, Mrs. Tom Anders and daughter, Elizabeth of Mill City, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Armstrong of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Denny, Misses Ida and Pauline Denny.

The Modern Teachers' club will hold its monthly meeting in the Hayesville school Tuesday.
